

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (7th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Cakes! In Wadham's New Seminar Room A, staircase 4 at the back-right corner of the main quad. Drop in for obligation-free CAKE (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything! The venue is still to be confirmed, but we'll let you know at Freshers' Cakes and also via the website and announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

loads of other information, visit our website

For full directions to venues, as well as

Directions

traditional Punt Party Panto.

Party, complete with our very own the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see term. This term is the Christmas Special events mark the end of each

Special Events

Phillip Reeve (best known for Mortal Engines).

Merchant Princes etc.), and our last visiting author was arrange for the return of Charlie Stross (The Laundry,

We regularly have visiting speakers: this year we're trying to Genetic Opera as our Halloween special.

session. Movies this term include Mitromask and Repo! The story-writing evening, and the ever-popular Geek Craft of the Boundaries between SF and Fantasy, a collaborative

8pm. Discussion meetings this term include an exploration

Discussion and video meetings are held on Wednesdays from

Discussions and Videos

OUSFG's library of over 2000 books.

Everything, whilst also perusing chat about life, the universe and an opportunity to socialise, and Univ at 8pm. These evenings are rooms in Univ, meeting outside

Sunday from 14th October, in our librarians'

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every

Library

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.
loads of other information, visit our website
For full directions to venues, as well as

Directions

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Special Events

Discussion and video meetings are held on Wednesdays from 8pm. Discussion meetings this term include an exploration of the Boundaries between SF and Fantasy, a collaborative story-writing evening, and the ever-popular Geek Craft session. Movies this term include MirrorMask and Repo! The Genetic Opera as our Halloween special. We regularly have visiting speakers: this year we're trying to arrange for the return of Charlie Stross (The Laundry, Merchant Princes etc.), and our last visiting author was Philip Reeve (best known for Mortal Engines).

Discussions and Videos

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 14th October, in our librarians' rooms in Univ, meeting outside Univ at 8pm. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of over 2000 books.

Library

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (7th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Cakes! In Wadham's New Seminar Room A, staircase 4 at the back-right corner of the main quad. Drop in for obligation-free CAKE (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything! The venue is still to be confirmed, but we'll let you know at Freshers' Cakes and also via the website and announcement list.