

COVID-19 Policy

Our full COVID-19 policy is live on the website at:

reclamation2022.co.uk/covid-19/

At the time of writing, there are expected to be no formal rules in place in England and Wales in relation to Covid-19. However, many of us in the fannish community are vulnerable, and/or live with or care for people who are vulnerable, so we want to make sure the convention is as accessible and safe as possible for everyone to attend. We also want to make sure that the convention is as safe as possible for hotel staff and other hotel guests who aren't attending the convention.

This policy has been developed and agreed by the whole Reclamation 2022 committee, and incorporates feedback from members and the fannish community. It is a living document and may change between now and the convention. Reclamation 2022 actively seeks feedback on this policy in order to improve it. If you have any questions or feedback, please email secretary@reclamation2022.co.uk

Advertising in the 'Read Me'

Limited spaces are available to advertise in the 'read me' guide given to all members at registration. If you would like to advertise, please email communications@reclamation2022.co.uk for availability, rates and sizes.

Hotel Bookings

Please be patient with the hotel's booking portal. It can only accept bookings for Single or Double rooms. If you have further needs, please book the room and then ring the reception desk on +44 (0) 208 283 2030 or contact them directly.

Prices are £81 per night for a single room including breakfast and £91 per night for double or twin rooms, including breakfast.

If you are a member and have not received the hotel booking code to access these rates, please contact us via the website.

Known Transport Issues

Members should be aware that they are multiple issues with public transport over the Easter Bank Holiday weekend that will affect travel to the event.

This is an ongoing concern and we will be providing updates via our social media channels. There is a comprehensive guide on our website at: reclamation2022.co.uk/travel/

Programme Participants

Programme participant emails will start going out this week - if you want to be on programme and haven't filled out the survey, please do it now so we can try and include you! If you are unsure where to find the survey, please contact programme@reclamation2022.co.uk

BSFA Voting

The voting form is at:

forms.gle/3pDAq7MMptd9gJ5z7

Voting is now open for the BSFA Awards for work published in 2021. The awards are voted on by members of the BSFA and by the members of the year's Eastercon. The BSFA Awards ceremony will be free to attend by all members of Eastercon and nominees!

Please note, you will not be able to edit your responses via this form. If you make an error, please email vector.editors@gmail.com

Microfiction

We wanted to do something a little different with Reclamation and are asking for 250-word, science-fiction micro-stories.

If 250 words is too much, please consider submitting 100 word drabbles to Satellite Convention. Details for both can be found at: reclamation2022.co.uk/drabbles/

Bursary Scheme

Attending conventions is expensive, and money can be a barrier to attendance. Reclamation offers a discounted rate for people on low incomes, but the cost of membership is only a small part of the cost of attending a convention. Other costs include travel, accommodation, food and childcare. This is why Reclamation 2022 is operating a bursary scheme to help people who may not otherwise be able to attend. For more information, see reclamation2022.co.uk/bursary/
