

Falkon 85 P R O N E.

Motto: "Pass the Port Stanley". Dr Livingstone. (actually Ian Sorensen).

- 1982. Northern fans complain about the arduous journey to Brighton.
- 1983. Southern fans complain about BR services to Glasgow.
- 1984. Scottish fans again worry about travelling 500 miles.
- 1985. Falkon redefines the word remote.

This a Popular Liberation bid which intends to give control to the average fan on the floor (of the bar). There will be no elitist committees instead every paid up member will be a member of our Task Force.

We are concerned about the numbers of suitable hotels on the island so members are advised to bring their own. An overflow flotel may be provided depending on the state of hostilities at the time.

The varied programme we intend to provide reflects the conditions and materials available. These include the combined Fun Yomp and fireworks display along the foreshore. A look at the way Sheep and penguins have been treated in SF through the ages including Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep and The Sheep look up. Much needed sponsorship has come from Penguin books but more is needed. We cant understand why Gallianz have'nt been more forth coming.

A focal point of the Kon will be the banquet. Instead of the usual chicken we will be making use of the extensive local cuisine. Included on the menu will be such items as Lamburgers, Mutton Stew with kelp, Salad (kelp), cold lamb, Lamb Pate, Kelp Icecream, and the odd roast Penguin if they dont behave themselves.

The South American guest of honour will be Jorge Luis Borges, the Fan GOH will be Bob P. (enguin) Shaw, a Mr L. Galtiere has agreed to run the War Games room and security will be courtesy of 2 Para.

At the present moment the Task Force consists of the following members.

Pete Cohen. Purveyor of politically subversive waffle.
