Novacon 32 The Day Of The Dead

Chairman's Address by Martin Tudor

Santiago Columbar invites . . . (the 'ware would mailshot the names) to the Terminal Café, District of Saint John, to the annual celebration of the Festival of Our Lady of All the Dead.

Nightfall, November 1.

(from NECROVILLE by Ian McDonald.)

On arrival at the Quality Hotel in a few weeks time you might be forgiven for thinking that you have wandered into the pages of our Guest of Honour's wonderful novel NECROVILLE.

It will be the 1st of November, the entire novel takes place over the 1st and 2nd of November 2063. You will be surrounded by various strange and manic bodies – hurling themselves into the festivities with feverish glee, as they try to shrug off the constraints of mundane life, (for some reason the names Valois and Farey spring immediately to mind...). NECROVILLE, of course, features a futuristic version of Dia de Los Muertos, the Mexican festival that celebrates life by honouring the dead. McDonald's version of the festival having a peculiar piquancy as the dead live again through nanotechnology.... Whilst all around you is the delicious aroma of chilli, nachos and tortillas which the Hotel will be serving to help us celebrate the work of our GoH.... (Memo to self: must remind Hotel to get in copious quantities of tequila.) This atmosphere of the bizarre and magical will be exacerbated on Saturday night when we will be entertained by Ray Bradbury and some of his colleagues from the Magic Circle, shortly before we launch into the frenetic bacchanalian festivities of the Saturday night disco. Sunday could confuse you even more with the much-heralded appearance of our celebrated (or notorious depending on which newspaper you read) science guest, Professor Kevin Warwick or "Britain's Bionic Man".

Or then again, you may feel that you're back at Novacon surrounded by fans and/or piss heads, with loadsa cheap beer and food and nothing has changed since last year....

Whatever your opinion I hope you've arranged for somewhere to lay or head once the festivities have burnt you out! Have you booked your room yet? You only have until the 20th of October to book before the Hotel will be releasing its rooms to the general public! Book now! Although we used up our allocation of rooms we could use as reduced price singles sometime ago, we still have plenty of twins you can share (or if you're feeling flush you can pay the £64.00 rate and use a double or twin as a single).

Novacon 32 Hotel Information

Check-in time for hotel rooms is from 2pm and check-out by 11am (bedrooms will be cleaned between 10am and 3pm each day).

The Quality Hotel, Bentley, Walsall is situated beside Junction 10 of the M6 – so access by road couldn't be easier. The nearest Railway Station is Walsall and the nearest Inter City Railway Station is Wolverhampton – full details about travel appear elsewhere in this Progress Report.

The Quality has about 150 twin/double rooms – no singles. Twin/doubles are £32 per person, per night (inclusive of full English breakfast).

We have now used all of our allocation of rooms that could be used as singles.

The Quality Hotel, however, are still holding all of their available twin and double rooms for us until 20th October 2002 – after which time they will start taking non-Novacon bookings. So you must get your bookings to Steve Lawson by that date.

Children under 5 will be accommodated free of charge, and children aged 5-12 will be charged £10 per night to include breakfast.

All residents will be able to enjoy full use of the Quality's Leisure Club, which comprises indoor heated swimming pool, spa-bath, sauna, solarium, and gymnasium.

If, however, you insist on a single room you have two choices:

1. You can pay the full twin/double rate for a room at the Quality Hotel of £64.00 per night. Complete your booking form as normal but state clearly in the comments line that you wish to use the room as a single but you are prepared to pay £64.00 per night. You should enclose a deposit of £64.00.

2. You can contact Travel Inn at Bentley Green, ten minutes walk from the Quality Hotel (fifteen minutes back – as it is up hill on your way back!). Rooms there are currently £42.95 each, but if you are on a very tight budget it is worth bearing in mind that Travel Inn charge per room, rather than per person, and many of their rooms will accommodate up to two adults and two children under 16. The address for the Travel Inn is Bentley Green, Bentley Road North, Walsall, West Midlands, WS2 0WB, tel: 01922-724485 (www.travelinn.co.uk). It is next door to the Bentley Green Brewsters from Brewers Fayre (where Travel Inn's breakfasts are served – full English for £6, Continental breakfast £4).

For further information contact: Steve Lawson, 379 Myrtle Road, Sheffield, S2 3HQ (e-mail xl5@zoom.co.uk or telephone 0114-281-1572).

Duplicate Room Keys:

We have made arrangements with the Hotel so that if you are sharing a room and require a key each you should be able to get one this year. (Unfortunately if you are in one of the 30 executive suites you cannot have a key each as they have a different locks to the other rooms in the Hotel.)

However, if you require a key each you must notify the Hotel of this on arrival. You will not be able to change your mind later because the Hotel will be programming 100 rooms to accept duplicate key sets before we arrive. This is a time-consuming process and there are a limited number of these duplicate key sets available – the Hotel does not normally use them and is buying them in especially for Novacon.

If you do have a key each please don't lose them! If you lose your key two new keys will be need to be issued immediately as your sharer's key won't work after you've used your new key! As there are limited quantities of these duplicate keys available you may find that if you've lost your key the Hotel will be forced to reprogramme the lock on your room to take their standard single key system again.

If you do not have a key each you can still easily gain access to your room by either tracking down your sharer or by asking Hotel Reception to let you in with a master, but please don't get them doing this all the time. The hotel will require you to produce your keycard as proof that it is your room, so please ensure you carry it.

The James White Award

The James White Award is a short story competition open to non-professional writers and is decided by an international panel of judges made up of professional authors and editors. The winner will receive a cheque and a trophy to keep and the winning story is also published in Interzone, Europe's leading magazine of speculative fiction.

This year the award will be presented at Novacon, at which James White was twice a Guest of Honour. Our current, GoH, Ian McDonald, was one of the judges of last year's award.

The presentation will take place after the Awards ceremony and closing of Novacon 32 on Sunday evening, and before the beer tasting.

For more information please visit the award's web site at www.jameswhiteaward.com

Novacon 32 Celtic Food and Beer Tasting

The Drink...

In honour of their victory Interaction, the 2005 World SF Convention, have donated a large amount of Scottish beer to give our beer tasting a distinctly Celtic flavour this year.

To further compliment this Celtic theme we asked our (Irish) Hotel Manager to instruct his (Irish) chef to put together a special menu of food in honour of our (Irish) Guest of Honour Ian McDonald. This has been done, but more of that elsewhere, back to the beer tasting....

This latest in a long series of Novacon Beer Tastings will again be using the ever-popular BYOB (bring your own beer) format. To get the ball rolling, as mentioned above, Interaction, the 2005 World SF Convention, have donated a large amount of Scottish beer, in addition to this the convention will supply a few interesting bottles - the rest is up to you!

To partake of the BEER, all you need to do is bring at least THREE bottles of your favourite British or foreign beer to the convention and check them in at the Novacon Registration desk when you arrive. In return you will receive a Technicolor "BEER BADGE" which will entitle you to drink the beer at the Tasting on Sunday. Alternatively, you can also take part in the Tasting by buying a BEER BADGE for £5.00 from Novacon Registration.

All Novacon members are welcome to attend the Tasting. The convention will supply an assortment of exotic and/or unusual non-alcoholic drinks at the Tasting, which will be free to everyone, but only those with BEER BADGES will be entitled to drink the beer and only those with IRISH FOOD TICKETS will be able to partake of that culinary delight.

The Celtic Beer Tasting will start at 7pm on Sunday in the King Charles Suite. (The Irish Food will be served from 7.30pm only to those people who have purchased tickets at £6.00 per head, see elsewhere for details.)

For further information please contact the Celtic Beer Tasting organiser, Tony Berry at 68 Windsor Road, Oldbury, West Midlands, B68 8PB, (morbius@zoom.co.uk).

[Please remember, although we have come to an arrangement with the Quality Hotel regarding the Beer Tasting, this does not extend to you bringing in your own supplies of drink elsewhere during the con. The Hotel can and will charge corkage to people smuggling food or drink into the hotel!]

The Food...

To compliment the Celtic theme of the Scottish Beer being supplied to the Beer Tasting by Interaction, the 2005 World SF Convention, we asked our (Irish) Hotel Manager to instruct his (Irish) chef to put together a special menu of food in honour of our (Irish) Guest of Honour Ian McDonald. This has been done:

Irish Stew
Boiled Bacon
Vegetarian Coddle (potatoes, vegetarian sausages and corn)
Cabbage
Culcannon
Scallion Mash
Champ or Turnip
Soda Bread

The Irish Food will be served in the King Charles Suite on Sunday night from 7.30pm, but tickets (£6.00 per head) must be purchased in advance, either from Martin Tudor at the address below or from the Novacon table before 5pm on the Sunday of the con. (In addition, from 11pm-12am the hotel will be selling a late night snack of bacon rolls to help soak up the beer!)

Now we know what you're thinking: "This Celtic Evening has Scottish beer and Irish food, what about the Welsh?!" We haven't forgotten! Even as I type this Steve Green has taken his life in his hands and is the darkest depths of Merthyr Tydfil negotiating the cost of four dozen Welsh cakes with his mother-in-law....

For further information regarding the Irish Food or to purchase tickets contact Martin Tudor at 24 Ravensbourne Grove, Willenhall, West Midlands, WV13 1HX (e-mail empties@breathemail.net). Cheques should be made payable to "Novacon 32".

Cash !

Please ensure you bring sufficient cash with you as the nearest cash point is in the 24-hour Spar a 15-minute walk from the Hotel. Although there are lots of them in Walsall – a 5-minute drive or bus ride away.

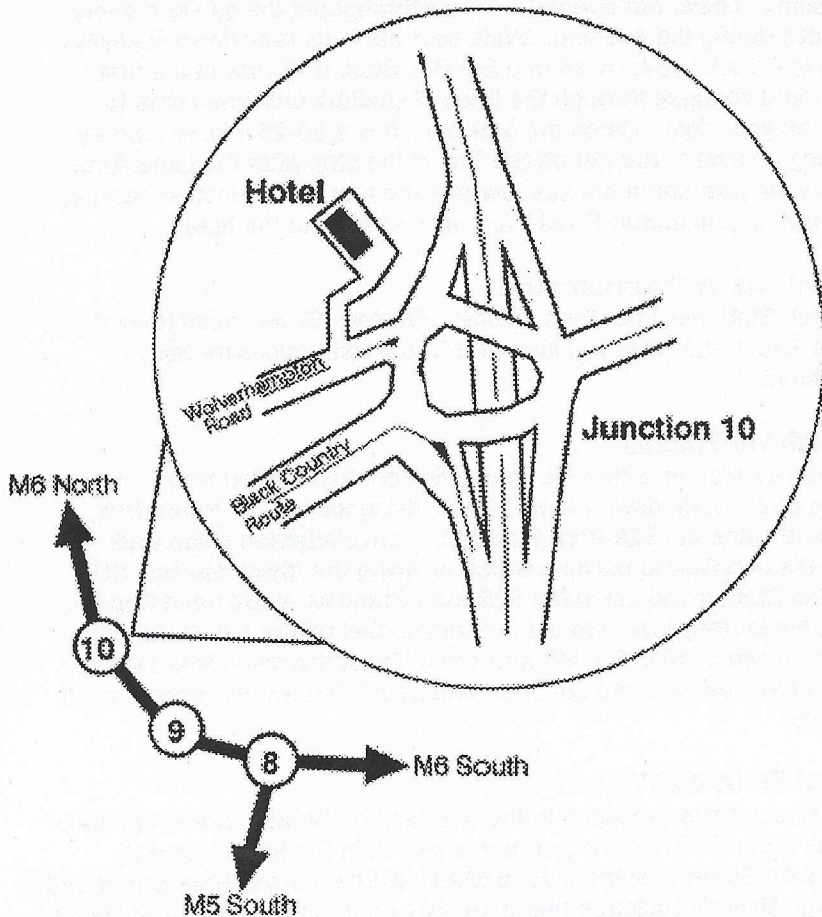

Novacon 32 How To Get There

By Car

The hotel is right next to J10 of the M6, but is not visible from the motorway.

From the North come off at J10 and turn right heading for Wolverhampton, but as you go over the motorway DO NOT go in the left-hand lane for Wolverhampton as this will take you down the Black Country Route, which you don't want. Stay in the right-hand lane to the traffic lights and take the second exit signposted "Buses and Hotel" (the lane is also marked Hotel) and then the first right into what looks like a regular suburban service road. Follow this round and it will bring you to the hotel. Go in through the car park barrier, but remember to get a token for the exit barrier from Reception when you leave.

From the South, come off at J10 and DO NOT go in the left-hand lanes, but keep to the right as you go up the sliproad to the traffic lights. Then follow directions above.

By Train via Wolverhampton

The nearest Inter City train station to the Quality Hotel is Wolverhampton. If you exit Wolverhampton Station on to Railway Drive you can get a taxi to the Quality Hotel (at Junction 10 on the M6 in Bentley) for about £8, it is a journey of about 10 minutes. If there are no taxis in the rank you can call Associated Taxis on (01902) 425591.

If you prefer to save your money you can catch a 529 bus to the Hotel for 95p off peak (9.30am-3.30pm and after 6pm) or £1 during peak times. The 529 was the first major route in the country to be completely serviced by gas powered vehicles (using Compressed Natural Gas) and most of the buses on the route are wheelchair-friendly, easy access buses with "kneeling suspension". These run every 6 minutes throughout the day and every 20 minutes during the evening. Walk past the taxis rank down Railway Drive to the clock and turn left into the Bus Station. Cross at the first crossing and continue through the lines of shelters until you come to Stand F on your right. Catch the 529 bus. It is a 20-25 minute journey depending on traffic, you get off the bus at the stop after the Lane Arms pub and walk past some houses towards the motorway junction bearing left down Wolverhampton Road West access road to the hotel.

By Coach via Wolverhampton

The Coach Station is in Littles Lane/Gt. Western Street, head toward St. Patrick's Street and Railway Drive and follow instructions for taxis or buses above.

By Coach via Walsall

Most coaches stop on either St. Paul's Street or Hatherton Road. From St Paul's Street walk down the hill to the "flying saucer" St Paul's Bus Station and catch the 529 from Stand M. From Hatherton Road walk towards the Job Centre building which is facing the "flying saucer" St Paul's Bus Station and catch the 529 from Stand M. You'll need 85p bus fare and the journey lasts around 5 minutes. Get off the bus at the first stop after Junction 10 of the M6 and cross Wolverhampton Road West, then walk back towards the Junction and bear left down the access road to the hotel.

By Local Train via Walsall

Exit the station following signs to the taxi rank on Station Street, taxi fare should be around £5 and the journey is less than 5 minutes. Or walk down Station Street past the side of Marks & Spencers to Park Street and cut through Butler's Passage (the alley way near Littlewoods) to St Paul's Bus Station, catch the 529 from Stand M (see above for details).

By Bus From Birmingham

Catch the 51 bus from Carrs Lane (facing the side of the Marks & Spencers building) in Birmingham to St. Paul's Bus Station in Walsall. The 51 is every seven minutes through the day and every 20 minutes in the evening. Fares are 95p off peak (9.30am-3.30pm and after 6pm) or £1.30 during peak times, the journey takes about 40-45 minutes. Disembark at Stand G and cross the bus station to Stand M, there you catch the 529. You'll need 85p bus fare and the journey lasts around 5 minutes. Get off the bus at the first stop after Junction 10 of the M6 and cross Wolverhampton Road West, then walk back towards the Junction and bear left down the access road to the hotel.

By Bus From Sutton Coldfield

Catch the 366 from Lower Parade, fares are 95p off peak (9.30am-3.30pm and after 6pm) or £1.30 during peak times, the journey takes about 35-40 minutes. Disembark at Stand G and cross the bus station to Stand M, there you catch the 529. You'll need 85p bus fare and the journey lasts around 5 minutes. Get off the bus at the first stop after Junction 10 of the M6 and cross Wolverhampton Road West, then walk back towards the Junction and bear left down the access road to the hotel.

From The Airport

Birmingham New Street station is only 10 minutes away by train from Birmingham International. A shuttle bus called Air Rail Link links the Airport directly to Birmingham International Station This runs approx. every 10 minutes from outside Terminal 1 (Main Terminal) (and International Station). The journey time is 2 minutes and is free of charge. From New Street you have the choice of taking a train to either Wolverhampton or Walsall and following the instructions from there. The 966 service from Bus Stop H links to Walsall. From there follow the instructions for "By Coach Via Walsall".

This is the latest information we have. You will be able to get up to the minute travel advice at the airport.

Novacon 32 On Arrival At Novacon

by Martin Tudor

As you enter the hotel the bar will be right in front of you, with the restaurant beyond it. Please resist the temptation to go there immediately; instead go to the hotel reception on your right. Here you will be given a key for your room and your Key Card – keep this with you at all times!

Having unpacked your luggage in your room, go back past the bar (yes, past the bar) and along the corridor with the Book Room (King Charles suite) on your left to the convention foyer where convention registration is located. Pick up your convention pack and membership badge (please wear this throughout the con) and note that the main Programme room (Oliver Cromwell suite) is also off this foyer. Now you can go to the bar.

Everything else is on the bedroom side of the hotel. Past reception you'll find the syndicate rooms: up the stairs is the Ops Room; or turn left to the hotel's leisure facilities, which are free to residents; or straight ahead you'll find the Dave Lally Show (Dudley), the Artshow (Sedgley and Brierley) and the CD ROM Artshow (Netherton); while the childminding facilities, run by Richard Standage and Helena Bowles, are in the Ashmore at the end of the corridor past the Artshows.

We expect to have the dealer's room open from Friday afternoon onwards as we have access to it from early in the morning.

Dia de Los Muertos

10pm-11pm Chilli & Rice. Plus extras such as nachos, tortillas etc price to be confirmed.

What sort of Mexican diversion were you expecting for £3.50? Roberto Rodriguez and Selma Hayek?

Other Food on Friday night:

There'll be the usual convention fare available earlier in the evening. Main course dishes such as lasagne, steak & mushroom pie, salad bar with cold meat selection. It will be sold on a "plate" basis, pile it high for £6.00. Desserts available at £1,50 each.

Drink:

The main bar will be open from 10.30am each day, Black Sheep at £2.10 per pint and Addlestons Cider available again price to be confirmed.

For the rest of the weekend consult the "Read Me Inside" in your convention pack when you get there.

Novacon 32 Life During Wartime

The Programme by Steve Green

As Novacon 32 looms over the event horizon with the dread inevitability of a trigger-happy Texan looking for revenge on the thug who dissed his dad, I guess it's time to put a little flesh on the bones of our programme.

Immediately following the opening ceremony at 7pm on Friday, our guest of honour Ian McDonald will discuss his novels, influences and future plans with noted sf critic Paul Kincaid. Novacon's own Dan Dare, Gerry Webb, will open our science thread by focussing upon the latest developments in commercial satellite technology, before our late night chatshow throws the spotlight on many of the writers and artists joining us this year - plus, we hope, an exclusive preview of 2003's first sf movie blockbuster.

Saturday morning sees the official launch of the 2005 British worldcon, following its victory in August's selection ballot, with Ian McDonald's guest of honour speech taking pride of place after lunch. TAFF winner Tobes Valois will be recounting his adventures across the Atlantic, setting the scene for our traditional fan fund auction (weird donations are always welcome!). The evening closes in spectacular showbiz style, as Novacon and Magic Circle veteran Ray Bradbury presents a full-blown magic show, before you're invited to grab your partners for our midnight disco.

Sunday's highlights include the much-anticipated convention debut of bionics pioneer Professor Kevin Warwick, the art auction and a closing panel on our "alien" theme featuring Ian McDonald, Iain Banks, Ken MacLeod, David Hardy and Mike Cobley. Once the Nova Awards are announced, as well as the winner of this year's James White Award, it's time to relax at our infamous beer tasting (entry's free in return for three bottles of your local elixir - and don't worry, the hotel has waived corkage for this one event).

Hope that whets your appetites - and look forward to seeing you in less than a month!

Novacon 32 The Nova Awards

by Tony Berry

The Nova Awards are given for work in fanzines. There are three awards: Best Fanzine, Best Fan Writer and Best Fan Artist. All members of Novacon who are active in fandom can vote. For a fanzine to qualify, one or more issues must have been published between 1st October 2001 and 30th September 2002. For artists or writers to qualify, a piece of their work must have been published for the first time between those dates.

For a list of eligible fanzines, see the reverse of the Nova ballot which is included with this PR. The list is by no means exhaustive, but is there to jog a few memories. Completed ballot papers can be posted to me before Novacon, or placed in the ballot box at the con by midnight on Saturday 2nd November.

For further information contact me at 68 Windsor Road, Oldbury, B68 8PB. If you want a copy of the rules please enclose 50p to cover copying and postage - or check out www.novacon.org.uk.

Finally an apology: triple Nova-winner Claire Brialey's name was horrendously misspelt in the last PR and we at the Nova Administration take these things seriously. It won't happen again and we can assure shocked readers that Heads Will Roll.

Operations

As we are sure you are aware Novacon, like most conventions in Britain, is run by volunteers and we can't have too many of them! So if you are willing to help out at the convention – anything from moving chairs to helping with tech ops or working on the programme, please contact our Ops Manager, Alice Lawson, at 379 Myrtle Road, Sheffield, S2 3HQ (e-mail fab@zoom.co.uk).

Novacon's RNIB Raffle

As usual we will be selling raffle tickets to raise money for the Royal National Institute for the Blind's "Talking Books for the Blind Project". So, if you have anything you would like to donate as a prize for the raffle please contact Martin Tudor at 24 Ravensbourne Grove, Willenhall, WV13 1HX (e-mail empties@breathemail.net).

We will list the Raffle Prizes beside Novacon Registration in the convention foyer throughout the weekend, and the winning numbers will be posted there after the Awards Ceremony on Sunday.

Don't forget to buy a ticket or two from Anne Woodford at the convention!

Crèche

We are running a crèche this year. If you are interested in using such a facility please contact Martin Tudor at the address below.

Please let him know names and ages of the children who might be using the facility, along with any special requirements or other relevant information (allergies, special needs etc). Contact: Martin Tudor at 24 Ravensbourne Grove, Willenhall, West Midlands, WV13 1HX (e-mail empties@breathemail.net).

The Art Show by Ann Green

This year's Art Show is being run by Ann Green. If you want to show any work please contact me to let me know your display needs. If you'd like to help out in any way please get in touch either by contacting me before hand or early at the Con. All help and advice is greatly appreciated.

33 Scott Road, Olton, Solihull B92 7LQ,

0121 706 0108 (if you get the answer phone leave a number)

or e-mail neergnna@yahoo.co.uk

The CD-ROM Art Show

Following the success of previous year's innovative CD ROM Art Show we are again inviting contributions. (Suggested format for the CD-ROM is JPG at resolution 72 pixels.)

If you have work you wish to exhibit on CD-ROM or you know of someone who has, please contact: Martin Tudor at 24 Ravensbourne Grove, Willenhall, West Midlands, WV13 1HX (e-mail empties@breathemail.net).

It's still not too late to advertise in our programme book...

The rates are –

- Full page £75.00 (fan £35.00)
- Half page £40.00 (fan £17.50)
- Quarter page £20.00 (fan £10.50)

Anyone interested in advertising should contact Dave Hicks (Publications):
1 St. Woolos Place, Newport, NP20 4GQ (david.hicks70@ntlworld.com).
Deadline for camera-ready advertising copy is 18th October 2002.

Do you have photographs of the guests, fans and activities at Novacons of old?

Novacon 32 urgently needs distinctive snaps from its thirty-one predecessors. Please forward originals to 33 Scott Road, Solihull, B92 7LQ (ensuring the address for their return is included), or e-mail scans to sfcheckpoint@yahoo.co.uk
