Costume-Con is an annual conference dedicated to costumers and costuming of every type. The convention has its roots in science fiction and fantasy conventions and historic re-enactment type events, but all forms of costuming are welcome, including anime, re-creation, fursuit, etc. Costume-Con is a “traveling” national-level convention, and is in a different city and run by a different committee each year – in 2012, it will be in Arizona for the very first time.
