NASFiC 1987

WHAT IS A NASFiC? It is a convention held in the USA whenever the Science Fiction World Convention takes place overseas. The initials stand for North American Science Fiction Interim Convention.

September 3-7, 1987 are the dates for the 1987 NASFiC which will be held in sunny Phoenix, Arizona and is named CACTUSCON.

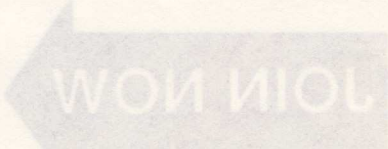

We expect over 5000 people, including noted guests, professionals and fans to gather here for five days of Author Panels, Autograph Sessions, Cactus Juice Guzzling, Bid Parties, Publishers' Exhibits, Art Show, Gaming Demonstrations, Hospitality Suites, Fanac, Costuming Programs and Events, Smoffing, Video, Films, Snogging, Fanzine Room, NASA Presentations, Filking, Hot Tubbing, Premieres, Trade Show and Dealers' Room.

The Phoenix Civic Plaza (one huge facility) will be the site for the Dealers' Room, Art Show, Exhibit Hall and Daytime Programming (Panels, Presentations, Video and Films) and the Saturday Evening Costume Event. The Hyatt Regency is right across the street. The furthest of the other three hotels is only two blocks away.

OUR PLANS INCLUDE: Free Beer in the Con Suite; A Professional Stage in a Ballroom seating over 3000 people for the Masquerade; Discount Buying Power for party supplies and Discounted Suite Rates for Bid Parties, etc.; A Trade Show just prior to the Con; Early Setup for Dealers and Art Show on 9/2/87; A Major Evening of Readings, Panels and Presentations; First Class Function Space for everyone, including diverse groups such as Gaming and Comics; AND A SPECIAL AIR FARE DISCOUNT PRICE AT 5% BELOW AMERICAN'S LOWEST RATE (including bargain specials) FOR MEMBERS TRAVELING TO NASFiC.

JOIN NOW WHILE RATES ARE LOW!!!!
WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AT CACTUSCON!
