YES!

Montréal has the facilities:

The Palais des congrès (convention centre) is large enough to host the entire convention on two convenient floors connected by elevators, escalators and stairs.

One floor has 198 820 sq.ft. of exhibit space

The other up to 65 meeting rooms totaling 131 700 sq.ft.

Total rental space: 330 520 sq.ft.

Everything is located right in the middle of downtown Montréal and a stone's throw away from Old Montréal.

There are over 1600 hotel rooms within 1 km (approx 0.6 miles) and another 2500 within 2 km (approx 1.2 miles) of the convention centre. Most of which can easily be reached via the underground city.

The convention centre is directly connected to the Montréal Metro and the underground city giving you access to countless other restaurants, stores, and attractions.

YES!

You can get there from here:

Montréal is accessible by all the usual forms of transportation.

Montréal has a major airport with over 500 flights per day bringing over 25 000 passengers from all over the world.

Montréal connects by rail through New York City and through Detroit.

Montréal is on the Interstate. Well, practically: a mere 45-minute drive from the border, where interstate 87 ends and highway 15 starts. Same road, different name.

And once you've arrived, getting to the convention site is easy. Both the train and bus stations are connected directly to the metro and are a few stops away from the convention centre, while shuttle services are available from the airport to most major hotels.

YES!

You can buy great food here:

Not only do Montréal and Québec have their own unique cuisine, Montréal also has one of the widest varieties of restaurants in any city, from Afghan to Vietnamese, you can find it here.

There are over 300 restaurants of all kinds within 1 km (approx 0.6 miles) of the convention centre and over 800 within 2 km (approx 1.2 miles) of it.
