RULES

- 1. Prizes may be awarded in the following areas
Original, Recreation, Best within the theme, Best Young Fan, Best Beginner, Best Experienced Costumer, Most Entertaining, Judges' Award, Best in Show. In addition there will be prizes for Hall Costumes.
- 2. No costume may enter in competition which has won an award at any previous Worldcon.
- 3. Professionally made (purchased or rented) costumes may not be shown in competition.
Awards are for original work. The maker should get the award - or share the award if the work was done jointly.
- 4. Total nudity is prohibited.
No costume is no costume. (Rotsler's Rules)
- 5. The judges' decision is final. No correspondence will be entered into.

STAGE RESTRICTIONS

- 1. No dangerous or potentially dangerous props permitted.
This is serious. Many weapons are now banned under Australian Federal Law. Obvious props are okay, as are sheathed swords. No guns unless they are NOTHING like the real thing. As noted in the weapons policy, you should discuss any weapons with the masquerade director prior to the parade - ideally by the Thursday of the convention.
- 2. Nothing shall be allowed which presents a real possibility of damage to the health, well being, or costumes of other contestants or of the audience.
Like...peanut butter. Yep. Somebody actually wore peanut butter which went rancid and got everywhere...stage...costumes...So you've been warned!
- 3. A microphone will be available to contestants.
Pre-recorded tapes are preferred. If you need to use the microphone, please indicate that on the entry form. There will be a fixed microphone, front row centre for contestants' use. Tapes should be cued and ready to play. Include your name and character on the tape. Tapes will be made available for collection at the Information Desk on the Monday.
- 4. Lighting
The masquerade will be presented with broad general lighting. If you require any dimming of the lighting for special features of your costume, please note this on the Instructions to the MC
- 5. Height
We have problems with the Batman Theatre. To get from the Green Room to the Stage, you need to travel along about 30 yards of corridor, said corridor being about seven feet high. Any taller costumes will need to be capable of being assembled in the wings in close to complete darkness. Either that or we'll have to cut you off at the knees.
- 6. Time limits.
Keep it short. No more than 3 minutes. If you have a skit that needs to go longer, please contact the organisers.
- 7. Check the Costume Parade Notice Board.

Please address any questions to Marc Ortlieb, P.O. Box 215 Forest Hill Vic 3131. e-mail mortlieb@vicnet.net.au Phone (Between 8:00am and 9:00pm AUSTRALIAN Eastern Standard Time) 03 9803-9480

Volunteers

We still have need of backstage assistants, particularly in the area of people organisers to help costumers to and from the Green Room, on and off stage and into the photography area. Please contact Marc, or leave your name at the Information Desk if you'd like to be involved.
