NOTES FROM THE CHAIR

Welcome back to the continuing saga of the 51st WorldCon. As mentioned in the last episode (PR#1) the Chair's job is to cheer the team on (RAH, RAH, SIS-BOOM-BAH!); accept the blame for everything (what do you mean the cleaner's gave my suit to Clark . . .); and my favorite, delegate everything before I have to do it myself.

Most of the team will be at Chicon V. We are planning on leaving some time free at ChiCon to talk with anyone that wants a fuller update of what is going on so far in a particular area of interest. We're still too far out for more than the basic bones (i.e. no fine details are set yet). Look for notices of where we are located at ChiCon. We are planning a Thank You party so come join the fun.

The ConCom staff is doing such a good job that I don't have many things to accept responsibility for. However, as noted in the last PR, the mailroom was not responding to all our mail. Shortly after PR1 was mailed, I confirmed that the convention mailroom wasn't forwarding mail in a timely manner (as opposed to mail not being delivered by the postal service - apologies to the U.S. Postal Service for implying our mail was not delivered). There've been some changes in the mailroom. We are sifting through the backlog and writing replies as fast as possible.

On a closing note, I would like to thank Alex Raymond and Ed Wood.

NEW ADDRESS! NEW ADDRESS! NEW ADDRESS!

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Membership Types	Attending	Supporting	Conversion from Supporting to Attending	Non-Human
through December 31, 1991	$70	$25	$45	$25
After December 31, 1991	$85	$25	$60	$25

Youth Admissions (based on age as of Sep 1, 1993)	Kids-in-tow 0-8 years	Children 7-12 years	Over 12 years
through September 6, 1993	no charge	$30	use adult

Supporting members receive all generally-distributed ConFrancisco publications (including the Program Book and any progress reports published after the purchase of the membership), may nominate and vote for the 1993 Hugo Awards, may nominate for the 1994 Hugo Awards, and may (subject to paying an additional voting fee) vote on the 1996 Worldcon site-selection. Supporting members may not attend the convention without converting their membership into an attending membership. If you voted on the 1993 site-selection, you are automatically a supporting member of ConFrancisco.

Attending members receive all of the privileges of supporting members, plus the right to attend the convention. Supporting members may convert to attending by paying a conversion fee. If you pre-supported the San Francisco in '93 Worldcon bid, you may deduct $5 from the price of an Attending membership or the price of conversion from supporting to attending. This $5 discount for pre-supporters of the San Francisco in '93 Worldcon bid expires September 30, 1991.

A Kid-in-tow admission may be issued to a child eight years old or less as of September 1, 1993. Kids-in-tow must remain in the custody of an Adult Attending member at all times, do not receive publications, and do not have voting rights. Although Kids-in-tow are free, it will speed your at-con registration if you register any Kids-in-tow in advance.

A full Adult Attending membership may be purchased for a child of any age. A Children's admission may be purchased for a child between the ages of 7 and 12. Child members may attend programming, but do not receive publications and do not have voting rights. The overlap in ages between Kid-in-tow and Children is intentional; parents may choose which kind of admission to obtain for their child if the child is 7 or 8 years old.

Children between the ages of 13 and 17 must purchase an Attending membership. The parent or guardian of a minor attending ConFrancisco is responsible for the minor at all times. For a comprehensive listing of policies regarding minor children attending ConFrancisco, please write to ConFrancisco, Attn: Children's Membership Policies and enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply.

Note: This membership schedule replaces all earlier versions. If you purchased a Children's admission under an older schedule for a child who will actually be a Kid-in-tow, you may request a refund by writing to ConFrancisco, Attn: Kid-in-tow Refunds. If possible, please include all relevant information, including copies of receipts/cancelled checks.

Non-humans (pets, inanimate objects which you may want to have a badge, etc.) must remain in the custody of an attending member at all times, do not receive publications, and do not have voting rights. Proceeds from the sale of non-human memberships will be donated to the WSFS Mark Registration and Protection Committee.

Except for refunds of erroneously-purchased Children's admissions, ConFrancisco memberships are not refundable. They are, however, fully transferable. To transfer a membership, the person who currently owns the membership should send us a letter giving the particulars of the transfer, including the name and address of the person to whom the membership is being transferred. Until July 15, 1993, send transfer requests to ConFrancisco, Attn: Registrar. After July 15, 1993, do NOT send the transfer letter; instead, the person receiving the membership should bring the transfer letter to convention registration.

Although no end date is currently specified for this chart, new rates will be announced in Progress Report 3 (late 1991). If you are attempting to use this chart after September 30, 1992, we recommend that you first check with ConFrancisco to determine if the rates listed in this chart are still current. Checks which are returned to ConFrancisco by the bank for insufficient funds will be assessed a service charge as allowed by law, and the membership(s) purchased with the returned check will be cancelled.

Please make checks payable to ConFrancisco. All checks must be drawn on US banks; we can also accept Postal Money Orders as long as they are payable in US currency. All of this means that a check from your local bank will be O.K., just as long as your local bank is a U.S. bank. We hope to be able to accept payment by credit cards and in non-U.S. currencies shortly. Galactic currencies will take a little longer.

Now that you know how much it costs and how to pay us, the rest is up to you. All you need to do now is send a check along with your name and address to the wonderful folks at ConFrancisco, 712 Bancroft Road, Suite 1993, Walnut Creek, CA USA 94598.

NOTICE OF INTEREST TO WORLDCON BIDDERS

Committees wishing to appear on the site selection ballot for the 1996 World Science Fiction Convention must file with ConFrancisco no later than the close of business of the 1992 World Science Fiction Convention in Orlando. For convenience, ConFrancisco has defined the close of the 1992 Worldcon as Monday, September 7, 1992, 5:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time.

The constitution of the World Science Fiction Society (WSFS) requires that bids for North American sites for the 1996 Worldcon be from the Western Zone, defined as "Baja California, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Saskatchewan, and all states and provinces in North America westward including Hawaii, Alaska, the Yukon and the Northwest Territories. Sites within 60 miles of the 1993 Worldcon are ineligible, however. Bids for any site outside North America are acceptable.

Filings may be made only by mail or by delivering the appropriate documents to the chair or the secretary of ConFrancisco. For the record, they are Terry Biffel and Kevin Standlee. They should be easy to locate at Magicon.

Filings by mail should be sent to ConFrancisco's address, 712 Bancroft Road, Suite 1993 Walnut Creek, CA 94598. If the filing is postmarked legibly by a national post office, it will be considered to have been filed as of the time and date of the postmark. If the postmark is made by a private postage meter or other means, the date of the filing will be the date of its actual receipt at the ConFrancisco address.

Article III, Section 4 of the WSFS Constitution specifies the information that bidders must submit in order to appear on the ballot:

Bids from prospective Committees shall be allowed on the ballot by the current Worldcon Committee only upon presentation of adequate evidence of an agreement with the proposed sites' facilities, such as a conditional contract or letter of agreement. To be eligible for site selection, a bidding committee must state the rules under which the Worldcon Committee will operate, including a specification of the term of office of their chief executive officer or officers and the conditions or procedures for the selection and replacement of such officer or officers. Written copies of these rules must be made available by the bidding committee to any member of WSFS on request. The aforementioned rules and agreements, along with an announcement of intent to bid, must be filed with the Committee that will administer the voting no later than the close of the previous Worldcon for a Worldcon bid, and as set by the administering convention but no earlier than the close of the corresponding Worldcon for a prospective NASFiC bid.

ConFrancisco will consider a bid to have fulfilled its filing requirements if it submits the following documents:

1. Letter(s) of agreement or similar documents for the prospective convention's principle programming site and principle hotel.
2. Articles of Incorporation and bylaws (if incorporated) or constitution or similar document (if unincorporated) of the organization that is responsible for the bid.
3. If any of these documents are not applicable or unavailable, bidders should consult with ConFrancisco's secretary, Kevin Standlee, concerning acceptable substitutes.

If NASFiC site selection proves to be necessary, the same documents will be required of NASFiC bidders. The deadline for submission will be Sunday, September 5, 1993, 11:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time.

Questions about bidding procedures should be addressed to the ConFrancisco address, Attention: Kevin Standlee, Secretary.

Did You Know . . . ?

The first woman mayor of a major American city was Janet Gray Hayes of San Jose, California. Ms. Hayes was elected November 6, 1974. The first woman to chair a WorldCon was Noreen Falasca (co-chair with Nick Falasca) for Clevention, the 13th WorldCon, which was held in Cleveland, Ohio in 1955. Once again fandom was ahead of its time.

DEAR SWMBO

Dear SWMBO:

Boy, is your mail room a mess. I've written three times and nobody answers. Is that P. O. Box number really a translation gate to another universe?

Signed, Writer's Cramp

Dear Cramp:

You're not alone in your complaint. The mail room was a mess, and no exaggeration. We've done a bit of personnel shifting and have added an Administrative Division to the organization. We also have a new and improved mailing address as well (see p. 3), all in an effort to see to it that nobody's letter ever goes unanswered again. Fair enough?

Dear SWMBO:

I couldn't find my name listed in your pre-supporting members and I know I bought a membership. Couldn't find my receipt to save me but I did locate the kazoo. Could you check your files just one more time? Please?

Dear SWMBO:

I didn't think I had pre-supported you but there my name was in the list of pre-supporting members in PR-1. I'd appreciate a refund of my $12 if you please.

Dear Folks:

These letters are representative of a number of inquiries that have come in about the list of pre-supporters and why your name was or was not on the list. ConFrancisco did not publish a list of our pre-supporting members. The one that appeared in PR-1 was part of the Hawaii ad. The complete and updated list of ConFrancisco members (not pre-supporters) does appear in this issue of China Mail.

Dear SWMBO:

What's the deal on the child membership? Do I really have to keep my ten-year-old with me at all times? He's very mature for his age and accustomed to doing pretty much as he pleases, naturally checking with me now and then. If he has to stay within arm's reach all the time we're both going to be unhappy about it.

Signed, A Concerned Mother

Dear Mother:

Your ten-year-old sounds like a dream and no, we don't expect him to hang onto your coattail for the entire convention. What we do expect from kids who have memberships is that they have an adult around somewhere, who is responsible for them -- see to it that they eat now and then, be available in case there's a discipline problem or somebody gets hurt, make sure they go to bed once in awhile. Unbelievable as it may sound, on the west coast we've found an increasing number of instances where people buy a child a membership in a con -- or maybe not even bother do this much -- drop him off at the door, and collect him when the con is over. In the meantime, the child is on his own to scrounge food and a spot to sleep if he can. As you can imagine, children in this circumstance present discipline and/or security problems. This isn't fair to anybody and it's something we really want to avoid. Therefore, if we have sounded a little stiff in our child membership requirements, that's why. We'll be spelling out our child care policy in clear and unmistakable terms well in advance for one and all.

Dear SWMBO:

I am physically handicapped, with cystic fibrosis. I'd love to come to ConFrancisco if only one day and for a few hours. The problem is, I have to have a helper with me and I simply can't afford two memberships. Can you help me?

Signed, Chris A.

Dear Chris:

Rejoice. You don't have to pay for your helper's badge. By all means, buy a full membership now -- SWMBO would bet you'll appreciate having the peace of mind -- and explain your problem in your letter. Get a note from your doctor documenting your case -- shouldn't be difficult for you, I should imagine. Enclose a copy with your letter to us, and bring the original with you when you collect your packet of membership materials just in case. Your helper will get a badge with a special marker sticker or whatever on it that will identify him or her as your assistant. Fair warning, though -- you'll be a team and your helper won't be able to get into any convention activity such as art show or dealers' room or programming without you. Hope you can make it, and look me up. I'll buy you a soda or something.

A CONTINUATION OF THE MOST WISE UTTERANCES OF SWMBO

---

Dear SWMBO:

Excuse me, but there have been other cons that have run into big hotel problems -- Noreascon III and the first Orlando bid to name just a couple. You're not unique and you'll only make enemies or show your own ignorance by claiming that nobody else has ever been there, the way your lead article appeared to do.

Signed J.H.

Dear J.H.:

I must have expressed myself poorly. What I meant to get across was that nobody, as far as I knew, had ever had to deal with their main hotel being pulled out from under them bit by bit until it was all gone -- sort of like cutting off the dog's tail an inch at a time so it wouldn't hurt so much. If anybody else has had that rather peculiar problem to deal with, they have my sincere sympathies. However, ignorance, as they say, is curable and I thank you for taking the time and trouble toward mending some of mine.

Dear SWMBO:

Okay, I'll bite. What in the galaxy does "SWMBO" mean?

Signed Susan C.

Dear Susan:

It's a long and entertaining story but I'll give you the short version. Several years ago on CompuServe where yrs. truly hangs out a good bit of the time, there was a spirited discussion on a controversial subject that, alas, degenerated into name-calling by the Other Side. The staff, quite rightly, broke it up and dissolved the discussion, leaving many of us with that empty feeling of having nothing left to talk about. In a moment of giddy irresponsibility I suggested we call each other names instead and said I had always fancied being called She Who Must Be Obeyed. It quickly became an acronym and the rest, as they say, is history. The moral, if any can be found in this story, is that one really should be careful of the names one calls oneself as they just might stick.

If you have a question, or you've heard something you want to check out, write to Dear SWMBO, c/o ConFrancisco, and your letter may appear in this column. Names withheld on request.

Pre-Supporting Memberships: $5.00

Associate Memberships: $20.00

Two of the six directors of our bid live in Louisville and the other four live within 2-3 hours by car. Five have served on the executive committees of previous Worldcons and NASFiCs. We have chaired over 40 science fiction conventions and logged over 140 years in fandom. The bid committee is comprised of Co-Chairs Steve Francis, Sue Francis and Ken Moore, plus members Gary Robe, Roger Sims and Dick Spelman.

The Louisville Commonwealth Convention Center and our four main hotels are located along Fourth Avenue in downtown Louisville. There are over 2,400 hotel rooms within two blocks of the Convention Center and another 600 rooms within six blocks.

These facilities have guaranteed to hold the space until after the site selection voting at the 1991 World Science Fiction Convention.

Worldcon and NASFiC are service marks of the World Science Fiction Society, an unincorporated literary society.

PRE-SUPPORTING MEMBERSHIP - Your Pre-Supporting membership fee will be applied against the cost of an attending membership.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP - If you wish to provide additional support to our bid and pay the lowest attending membership fee, you may become an Associate member by contributing a total of $20.00 to our bid.

If you vote in the 1991 Site Selection balloting and we win, your Associate membership will automatically make you a full attending member of our convention. In addition, we will have a drawing at our victory party for one Associate member to receive four free nights in one of our convention hotels.

T-SHIRTS - The official, full color Louisville in '94 T-Shirt is available by mail for $12.00 (including shipping and handling) in sizes small through triple-X. Please send your requests to the address shown below.

A BIT ON OUR PHILOSOPHY (FIRST IN A SERIES)

In general, (science fiction) convention committees start with the idea of hosting the best convention ever, one that will be remembered for years afterward as the funnest ever and will be held up as a shining example for its smooth operations.

During the bidding process, our committee evaluated each of the elements that make up the convention. We determined that certain aspects of the convention would take priority in our policy decisions. Policy has been formulated for the last several months based on this philosophy. So, for the members' viewing pleasure, here is a brief statement of part of our philosophy.

There has not been a WorldCon locally for twenty-five years (at the time of ConFrancisco).

Many area fans have worked at the local regional con and smaller cons. However, many have rarely worked at higher than the staff level at WorldCons. Some haven't worked at a WorldCon at all.

Our philosophy includes the idea that the WorldCon should be run largely by local fans. While we do not believe any committee can successfully run a WorldCon without assistance from other fan groups, we wanted to allow time for local fans and fan groups to demonstrate that they have the ability to perform the given task.

We have been recruiting committee people from out of the area and will be escalating our efforts at ChiConV.

Stay Tuned. Future PR's will have further discussions of our philosophy.

A Continuation of the Discussion about Matters of Organization

A FEW WORDS FROM THE HEAD OF PUBLICATIONS

Here I am at midnight the day after this PR was supposed to go to press trying to fill the last little hole. I guess the best thing to do is to tell you a little about what is happening with ConFrancisco publications. The most exciting thing for me right now is that a couple of people have been added to the staff.

Steve and Bobbi Ryals will be working as creative consultants and Teddy Harvia is going to act as Artists' Liaison for publications. If you are an artist and would like to contribute to the ConFrancisco publications, write Teddy at PO Box 905, Euless, TX 76039. My advertisers' liaison, and best friend, Selene Tittle, has decided to make some changes in her life starting with a move from California to Virginia. I will be assuming her duties for the time being. I wish her all the best.

I am still looking for a couple of people who are good at organizational work to handle correspondence with contributors and advertisers. I also need someone to keep track of deadlines and prepare shipments of ads, flyers, etc. to other cons. If you are interested, write to me care of the convention address.

I guess that just about fills the space. See you next time.

Gail Sanders

WONDERFUL PEOPLE NEEDED NOW!

What do we need volunteers for this early you ask? Well, we (the various and sundry members of the committee) cannot always be everywhere that we need to be or we do not always have enough caring individuals. Right now, we need people to help us at information tables, prepare mailings and slice 'n' dice for parties. We are also looking for people at the staff level to help in several divisions such as Publications, Art Show and Administration. If you are going to any conventions where you would be willing to donate some time, or live in the GREATER Bay Area and would like to help out, please write to the convention address (see page 3) Attention: Volunteers. We are also taking names of those interested in helping at ConFrancisco.

Sabre Von Braskat-Crowe

DEALERS' ROOM

The Dealers' Room for ConFrancisco, the 1993 World Science Fiction Convention, will be the largest, most varied, most eclectic since the Bazarre at Deva. Whatever your taste, and whatever your budget, you will most likely find it there! People interested in obtaining dealers tables (up to a maximum limit of three tables) should indicate their interest by contacting David Medinnus, Dealers Room Liaison, ConFrancisco, 712 Bancroft Road, Suite 1993, Walnut Creek, CA 94598. Table rates have not yet been firmly established, but we are accepting a $50 refundable deposit which will guarantee you an invitation to purchase tables at the normal rates once they have been fixed. Prices will be fixed no later than September 1, 1991.

MAILROOM

Hi! You are now hearing from the Embarcadero Memorial* Mailroom. We are now in control of your mailroom. We control the horizontal. We control the vertical. No further adjustments of your mailroom will be necessary.**

Wilma Meier

*We had to tear it down to make it work.

**With apologies to the Outer Limits writers.

ART SHOW INFORMATION

Initial information packets should be out in January 1993. For the time being, I am collecting names and addresses of artists interested in receiving information about the ConFrancisco Art Show when it becomes available.

Vince Sanders
(acting)

We regret to announce that in spite of previous announcements, pieces of the Embarcadero Freeway will not be available for sale at ConFrancisco. The Embarcadero, damaged in the 1989 earthquake, has been slated for demolition. It had previously been hoped that in the same manner that the Berlin Wall has been merchandised upon its removal, "Bark-A-Dero" chunks might be sold as souvenirs and to symbolize the removal of a structure that was universally disliked by the local populace. We apologize for any disappointment that may result.

History of... Exhibits

The Science Fiction History Exhibits developed in celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the first Worldcon will be exhibited at ConFrancisco. Although the exhibition was originally intended to conclude in 1992, the exhibits have never been shown on the West Coast. These exhibits are The History of Worldcons, The History of Fanzines, The History of Bidding, The Portrait Gallery and the World-Wide Fandom. We also expect to have the History of Specialty Press exhibit and a retrospective of Worldcon Masquerades through a slide presentation in the exhibit area, which are currently being developed.

If you have material you would like to contribute for any of these exhibits (for display, it will be returned after the History of exhibits are concluded) please contact Peggy Rae Pavlat at 5709 Goucher Drive, College Park, MD 20740 USA as soon as possible.

The History of Fanzines exhibit, developed by Nancy Atherton, encourages the current-day fan to travel back to the days of Spaceways, Le Zombie, Quandry and Xero. The exhibit features a feast of fanzine writing from the 1930s through the 1950s by such legendary fans as Walt Willis, Lee Hoffman, Donald Wollheim, Ray Bradbury, Robert Silverberg, Robert Bloch, Bob Tucker, Marion Zimmer Bradley and a host of others.

The fanzines on display are likely to include the 1930's Cosmology, The Planet, The Time Traveller, The Phantagraph and Fantasy Magazine; 1940's Peon, The Acolyte, The Fanscient, Futura Fantasia, and Spacewarp; The 1950's Fanac, Hyphen, Grue, the Vega Annish and the BNF of Iz. There will also be copies of special items such as Up to Now, the first fan history; Walter A. Willis's immortal fan fable, the Enchanted Duplicator; Jack Speer's original Fancylopedia and Bob Tucker's original Neo-Fan's Guide.

The History of Worldcons exhibit, developed by Bruce Pelz, includes the World Science Fiction Convention banner, the Program Book from each previous World Science Fiction Convention, playing cards, sets of stamps issued in honor of the convention, official Worldcon stationery, some T-shirts, a hat and tote bag and many badges, buttons and other memorabilia.

Banquet pictures from some of the World Science Fiction Conventions in the 50s and early 60s will be on display. We'd like your help in identifying people in these photographs. If you know who one or more currently unidentified people in these photographs are, please give us the information by following the posted instructions. We are in the process of making arrangements to duplicate the 1963, Discon I, banquet photograph. If $2.00 was too steep a price for you to be able to afford to get one of these photographs for yourself that year, if you have any of the other banquet photographs, and are willing to have them displayed, please contact Peggy Rae Pavlat at the above address.

The Portrait Gallery, a collection of over two hundred photographs of professionals in the science fiction community, is being created by Christine Valada. Beth Zipser is coordinating the biographies for this exhibit. Christine is still taking more photographs. If you are a professional within the science fiction community and have not yet had your portrait taken by Christine, please contact us at the above address to make arrangements for scheduling a photo session.

The History of Bidding, developed by Joe Siclari based on a prototype by Peggy Rae Pavlat, features the potpourri of gimmicks which silly groups of fans have used to win (or lose) the right to work themselves to a frazzle over the Bank Holiday or Labor Day Weekend. There are ceramic whales and beer buckets and coupons good for a backrub and rats and wooden shoes and a host of other ideas too fascinating to be forgotten. If you have material which you are willing to have on display, please contact Peggy Rae Pavlat.

The History of the Science Fiction Small Press is being developed by Tony Lewis and should be ready for the Fiftieth Worldcon. Please let us know if you can help.

Scenes from World-Wide Fandom will include material from Japanese Fandom (thanks to Mr. Takumi Shibano), Russian Fandom (courtesy of the Russian SF artist Anatoly Paseka), Canadian Fandom (many thanks to both Charles Mohapel and John Robert Columbo). In addition, there are Scenes from the Dutch (Dirk Bonkes), Finnish, German, Norway and the Czechs. Other European fan groups are being recruited to provide Scenes of their own fandom. If your group is interested in participating, please contact us.

Don't Look Now, But ...

There's a Convention in your Computer!

There's a major convention going on right now. Anyone can attend. You'll meet people who write science fiction and fantasy; professionals in the movie and TV industries; artists and fans; reviewers and publishers. You can see pictures and artwork, pick up copies of articles and reviews, and snoop around for books to complete your collection. You can make new friends and meet old ones. In fact, you can do just about anything you'd do at any other convention.

You can come to this convention as often as you like. All you have to do is fire up your computer and log into the Science Fiction and Fantasy Forum on CompuServe.

CompuServe Information Service is the largest commercial computer network in the world, with over half a million subscribers. Any computer, word processor, or terminal can connect with CompuServe, as long as it can use a modem to connect it to phone lines. CompuServe has a network of phone numbers all over the country; over 80% of the phones in the USA can reach CompuServe with a no-toll local call.

The Science Fiction and Fantasy Forum has three parts. The Message Board is divided into sections for each special interest. Sections include Star Trek, Science Fiction Literature, Fantasy Literature, Publishers' Corner, Science Fact, The Con Suite, McCaffrey's Pem (tm), Science Fiction/Fantasy Film, Science Fiction/Fantasy Television, British Media SF, The Weekly Book Chat, The Writing Workshop, Conventions/Fandom, and a SFWA (closed) section. You can read the messages in any section and reply to them; your reply is attached to the original messages to form a thread. If someone posts a message for you, you'll be notified when you enter the Forum. You can post messages to any of the professionals who use the Forum, or any other member, on any subject.

Browsing the Libraries will show you multiple author stories written by Forum members (such as our very own "Sweet Savage Star Trek" - a parody of ST:TNG); High-resolution GIF (Graphic Interchange Format) picture files can be downloaded from several of the Libraries, and software to view these files is free for the downloading. Interesting message threads and conference transcripts are archived here for you to read. Computer programs are also stored in the Libraries.

Finally, you can have real-time conversations with other users in the Conference Rooms. When you're in a Conference Room, the lines you type come up on everyone else's screen with your name in front. Conferences devoted to Star Trek and Beauty and the Beast are held every Monday evening; a conference devoted to Anne McCaffrey's Pem universe is held every Saturday evening; and our informal weekly "The Hot/Tub" conference is held every Thursday evening. There are other informal conferences held during the week.

CompuServe is a subscription service; it costs you $1.50 a month plus $6.50 per hour (in increments of a minute, at 300 bps) of online time to use it. Since most users don't have to pay phone company toll charges to log in, CompuServe rates are cheaper than a long distance call.

FREE OFFER!

If you are not a CompuServe member, just call TOLL FREE 1-800-848-8199 and ask for Representative 186. We'll send you a Free Introductory Membership which includes a $15.00 usage credit.

received with the ad.

out to ConFrancisco and must accompany the the Director of Publications.

Image area for ads:

Explanation of the Application of the Fan and Pro Rates

"Fan Rate" is intended to support and encourage fan clubs, conventions and other fan activities. Any ad submitted under this rate must be from such an organization and must be promoting or offering information about itself and/or its activities. Membership rates, information and/or fund raising activities can be promoted in the ad.

Any organization submitting an ad under the fan rate is subject to verification as a legiti-mate and recognized fan group by checking with fans in its geographical area or through other reliable sources. We are in no way trying to discourage new fan groups from advertising with us but, we feel these procedures are necessary to be fair and to maintain the integrity of ConFrancisco Publications and their policies.

"Pro Rate" applies to ads from all other individuals, businesses and organizations. This includes the big publishers and the little comic book stores as well as fans selling off their personal collections. If you have any questions about specific applications of these rates, you can contact the Advertisers' Liaison, Gail Sanders.

One other note about advertisements -- because we remember how difficult it can be to come up with the money for advertising a Worldcon bid, it is the policy of ConFrancisco to offer space for a half-page ad to all legitimate bids for Worldcons to be held in 1994, 1995 and 1996 FREE OF CHARGE. Following is a list of the bids announced at the time of the publication of PR2:

Louisville in 1994	Winnepeg in 1994
Atlanta in 1995	Glasgow in 1995
Sydney in 1995	Los Angeles in 1996

The ad is subject to the same mechanical specifications as all other ads. The value of the free half-page ad ($50.00) can be applied as a credit against the cost of a larger ad (one or more pages). This ad space will not be automatically reserved. Each Bid Committee must contact Gail Sanders to reserve ad space for each publication. The reservation must be made by the published deadline (see above for PR3).

"From wc90 vote" means that the information for that membership was included in the list we received from ConFiction (the WorldCon in Holland); "from member" means that membership was purchased after the vote either at a convention or through the mail.

FUNNY MONEY

Similar numbers but different colours add up to a very distinctive Canadian Currency. But when you take your money to the bank to exchange it, you'll find a difference that you'll really love: You will get more back than you gave them (and from a bank too).

With increased buying power, and cheaper Canadian costs, your stay here will add up to being a very affordable vacation. Come to Winnipeg and spend more time with your money.

WINNIPEG, CANADA

FOREIGN CUSTOMS

Over 70 different nationalities have made Winnipeg their home away from home. This has produced an ethnic mix that makes us an exciting place to live and with more ethnic restaurants per capita than any other place in Canada, a great place to eat!!

We do have local customs as well. But they are the kind you find on any trip to foreign lands... Like Winnipeg.

We have made customs simple enough, so that you can move you & yours not paperwork. With our customs, the main thing you will notice is there is very little to notice.

he smoking regulations in San Francisco are among the most stringent in the US. They can be summed up as follows:

Smoking in "adequately ventilated" public places is permitted except when and where the owner designates otherwise. Signs must be posted notifying the public of places where smoking is permitted or forbidden. Restaurants must provide non-smoking seating to patrons who request it. Many restaurants which permit cigarette smoking do not permit cigar or pipe smoking. They are within their rights to make this distinction. In theory, theaters must also provide segregated seating but in practice almost no theaters in San Francisco permit smoking other than in the lobby.

Smoking in hotel rooms and function space is left primarily to the discretion of the hotel or function space owner except when the function space is owned by San Francisco, where it is regulated by Ordinance No. 300-88. As of 1990, smoking rules for parties aren't covered by this Ordinance; however, by 1993, this may change. Multiple revisions of the various smoking laws during 1990 have not yet received final approval, nor will they until well into 1991.

Smoking on public transit, or in BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit) or Muni Metro stations, is strictly prohibited. The fines can and do range up to $500. They mean business.

Most hotels in San Francisco, on request, will provide nonsmoking rooms. Nonsmoking rooms are rooms which have never been smoked in.

There are some "of course" aspects to the question as well. Of course you don't smoke in an enclosed room with no way to open a window. Of course you don't carry a lit cigarette onto an elevator even if it's just for a couple of floors. Of course you don't automatically light up wherever you happen to be without checking to see if you're going to send a nearby asthmatic into a wheezing fit that will land him in a hospital. Of course you don't light up without finding out if you're in an area where you legally can do so. Common sense, here as in so many other areas of life, can get us all through a lot without having to resort to citing laws. Nevertheless, just so there would be no areas of misunderstanding, we took the trouble to find out just what the laws were. The full text of the ordinances will be in a future PR.

Cold and Desperate Twain Mugs Bear for T-Shirt

Witnesses report seeing fur fly in bizarre confrontation

The bear, reportedly answering to the name of Bruno, had just arrived from Bullhead City, AZ where he lived with a large and disparate group of animals in some kind of commune near the Colorado River.

Taking offense at a remark by Twain, clearly made in jest, Bruno attacked with a shocking barrage of inarticulate rage, rendering the normally valuable Twain speechless with envy. Twain thereupon ripped the bear's mug and t-shirt off and ran into the street screaming incoherently about some ursidae plot to rule the world with cute t-shirts and

Frantic Family Scours City By The Bay, finds ConFusion

Description of victim distributed to toy stores

A diminutive specimen reaching only nine and a half inches, he was last seen wearing a white t-shirt with navy blue sleeves. The ConFrancisco logo on the front was done in black with red print. (See illustration rendered by SFPD artist).

Frantic relatives described the brown, button-eyed Bruno as soft and cuddly, weighing no more than 15 ounces, and in possession of a new line of oversize mugs that his commune was hoping to sell. The 15 ounce mugs are either white with a black ConFrancisco logo or the reverse.
