

ConJosé Offline

Being an occasional publication for information updates

Note from the Chair

Tom Whitmore

chairman@conjose.org

We're starting to get publications out very rapidly as we have more to tell you! This issue is mainly so that you can get the hotel information forms to reserve your rooms for the con. We hope you'll like our hotels—the committee stayed at the Fairmount, our main party hotel, for a meeting a few months ago and we were quite pleased with the rooms and the service.

You should have gotten your Hugo Nominations ballot in our previous publication—your label had a five-digit personal identification number that you can use to nominate (and vote once the nominations are closed) on the Hugos. Don't worry if you've lost it; we'll send it to you again when it's time to vote. If you want to nominate on the web, check out our website!

I'm pleased to report that Geri Sullivan has joined us to head a Hospitality Division. We hope that this will make our convention much more fun for all the attendees. On a different note, Ruth Sachter has left as a Vice Chair, for family reasons. Life happens to all of us, and though I'm sorry to see her go, I understand why and hope to continue to get the benefit of her advice.

We look forward to seeing all of you in San José in a few short months!

Publications Report

Robert & Brenda Daverin publications@conjose.org

Every time we write one of these, we feel a sense of recursion. After all, we're writing about what's happening in Publications inside what's happening in Publications.

We've got most of our positions filled, but we're still looking for people to take care of one or two more special projects, so if you're interested in helping, please drop us a line and let us know.

Now for our traditional items of info. First up, our ad rates. The ad rates for PR #4 are (in US dollars):

	Fan	Semi-Pro	Pro
1/4 page	$30	$60	$90
1/2 page	$50	$100	$150
Full Page	$100	$175	$275
Inside Cover	$200	$275	$375

And our ad rates for the program book have been set. They are a little more complex, so please bear with us.

Full page (8.5 x 11):

	Fan	Semi-Pro	Pro
Interior B&W:	$200	$300	$400
Interior Color:	$1,100	$1,600	$2,175
Inside cover:	n/a	$4,000	$5,000

Half-page (8.5 x 5.5 or 4.25 x 11):

	Fan	Semi-Pro	Pro
Interior B&W:	$150	$225	$300
Interior Color:	$750	$1,125	$1,500

Quarter Page (4.25 x 5.5):

	Fan	Semi-Pro	Pro
Interior B&W:	$100	$150	$200
Interior Color:	$450	$675	$900

And now we appeal to you for help. We need artwork. We need a cover piece for our next PR and we need lots of fillo art for the PRs, Offlines, Program Book, and anything else where a small spot crops up that could use a little prettying up. Please help. We can scan stuff in, or we can take them in email. If you email them in, please send them as TIFFs or PNGs, as they have the best image quality, and we don't want your artwork to suffer in reproduction. Send ads, questions, and art to publications@conjose.org.

Thanks, and enjoy the rest of our show.

What's a Hugo PIN?

On the top line of your mailing label there should be a five-digit number after the word "Hugo PIN." A Hugo PIN substitutes for your signature on the online version of the Hugo ballot, available on the ConJosé web site. You must include your Hugo PIN with your electronically-submitted ballot or we will not count it. You don't need your Hugo PIN to vote on a paper ballot. Having a Hugo PIN on your mailing label does not guarantee your eligibility to vote. Some classes of membership, including any "guest of" membership or membership owned in the name of a club, corporation, or other "non-natural person" may not vote.

If you do not know your Hugo PIN, want to change your Hugo PIN, or have not received a notification postcard or a progress report with a Hugo PIN printed on the mailing label, or if you have questions about the Hugo Award voting process, e-mail hugos@conjose.org and we will be happy to help you.

Programming Update

Linda McAllister

programming@conjose.org

Programming at ConJosé will celebrate science fiction, fantasy and the diversity of fandom, as well as the technology that helped build Silicon Valley. We are also planning concerts and filk sessions, costuming discussions and workshops, gaming, and a variety of media-oriented programs.

We are planning to hold the majority of daytime and early evening program items in the McEnery Convention Center. In addition to our daytime program tracks, we will have a smaller number of evening and night program items for people who want to take a break from the parties. Nighttime programming—including music and gaming programs—will be held in our hotels.

We need your help to make all of this happen! If you want to help out at ConJosé, drop us a line at programming@conjose.org.

Autograph Sessions

Have you published a novel/story collection/graphic novel/comic/CD or something similar, that is science fiction, fantasy or related? ConJosé will be sponsoring several autograph sessions. To sign up for a time slot, contact us at programming@conjose.org. Be sure to specify whether you'd prefer a morning, afternoon or evening session.

Readings

One of the highlights of WorldCons is the chance to hear authors read from works in progress. If you are interested in reading your own work-in-progress, please contact programming@conjose.org. DISCLAIMER: we have a finite number of time slots! They will fill up fast, so get in touch with us by June 1!

Special Interest Groups

We will have a small amount of space available for Special Interest Group (SIG) or Birds-of-a-Feather (BOF) sessions. If your club or organization wants to present a special recognition, such as the Prometheus Award, or wants to hold a get-together at the convention, get in touch with us at programming@conjose.org. We will also try to have some (unfortunately limited) space available through program operations at the convention for impromptu discussions.

Guidelines for SIGs/BOFs

The requestor of a SIG or BOF session must be a member of ConJosé. All meetings and functions held in convention space must be open to all members of the convention.

All meetings and functions must adhere to the rules of the hotels or convention center and to all applicable federal, state and local regulations. ConJosé Programming reserves the right to deny space to groups engaging in illegal, unsafe or otherwise bothersome activities. This includes, but is not limited to, showing of bootlegged videos, use of weapons, excessive noise or other activities that would interfere with neighboring program items, and use of paints/adhesives/solvents/peanut butter/etc. that can damage function space.

ConJosé will not provide any special resources or equipment for SIGs/BOFs.

Hospitality at the Worldcon

Geri Sullivan

hospitality@conjose.org

Most of the hospitality at the Worldcon is the sort that fans bring with them—running into friends, meeting new ones, and, in particular, throwing a plenitude of the best room parties in fandom.

ConJosé is looking forward to complementing the hospitality you bring to the Worldcon with a lively consuite, comfortable fan lounge, dances to get you hopping (and gliding) on to those aforementioned room parties, and other bizarre, sparkly bits to remind you that, yes, this is the Worldcon, and, yes, all sorts of strange and wondrous fun is waiting to be created here.

Since hospitality is all about enjoying getting to know each other better, I'll start by introducing the fen spearheading ConJosé's formal hospitality functions. (That wasn't a shark joke, honest.)

Sandra "Shark-on-a-Stick!" Childress is running the consuite, with lots of help. (Maybe even some from you?) In addition to running the Loscon 2000 consuite and helping with our Hugo Nominees Party at the Millennium Philcon, Sandra was responsible for all but four of the sharks spotted at MilPhil. Come ConJosé, the sharks are going Hawaiian as the consuite prepares to welcome alien tourists to our Earthly shores.

Alan "Transcontinental" Rosenthal and Janice "Hero Distributor of Ansible" Murray are hosting the fan lounge, again with lots of help. (Yes, it's a theme. Sign up early; sign up often.) The fan lounge welcomes fans old and new. It is home to memorable conversations in person, and in print via fanzines published in recent weeks, years, decades, and centuries. We haven't yet tracked down any titles on stone tablets, but we can point you to Bill Bowers' resource guide to fanzines on the Web.

What makes for a great dance? The answer is as varied as the fans who join the Worldcon, and we're looking forward to running the gamut from John Hertz' Regency to BayCon Techno, with several stops at other danceable spots along the way. If you have a lead on the "literally waltzing on air" part of the Brand New Tennessee Waltz, we want to hear from you. Likewise if you enjoy pushing the limits of gravity by more traditional means, keeping the dance floor lively from the first beats to the last. Or if you know someone who does....

We'll be back in PR4 with more hospitality and party updates, including the fabulous Discworld party Denise Connell is coordinating ["she's promised bustles—I can hardly wait..."—T. Pratchett]. In the meantime, send us your questions, ideas, and promises to help. We're also interested in hearing from any and all who have inflatable spacemen, rockets, dinosaurs, Crush monsters, sharks, and other oddities that might enjoy finding their way to ConJosé.

Yes. Really. Be afraid, be amused. And send email to hospitality@conjose.org. Thanks!

Fairy Godfather Division

Dave Clark

godfather@conjose.org

Here's a friendly reminder from your Fairy Godfather Division. If you are interested in performing a deathless service to science fiction and fandom at large, please consider entering our Ferdinand Feghoot Representation Contest. Information flyers are being prepared, and may be available on our web site by the time you receive this.

Also, please contact the Fairy Godfather Division if you are interested in participating in a night tour of the Winchester Mystery House or a game of Monopoly in the Park.

Got questions? Send them to godfather@conjose.org, or to Fairy Godfather Division, ConJosé, P.O. Box 61363, Sunnyvale, CA 94088.

Hotel Update

Well, it's time to make our hotel reservations for ConJosé. We will be using the San José Convention & Visitors Bureau's Convention Housing office for all regular (non-Suite) room reservations. The housing office will accept reservations beginning February 15, 2002.

Our Hotels

The Fairmont San José is our headquarters and party hotel. The Fairmont is the only hotel where we have negotiated a corkage waiver. We will also have evening events in The Fairmont, along with filking. We have 750 deluxe rooms blocked for ConJosé. Rooms at The Fairmont are $129 per night single/double, $149 per night triple/quad.

The San José Hilton & Towers is connected to the San José McEnery Convention Center. We have 210 rooms blocked at the Hilton. Rates are $129 per night single/double, $149 per night triple/quad.

The Crowne Plaza is our closest hotel to the Civic Auditorium, where the Masquerade will be held and the Hugo Awards presented. We will be using the Park Center Ballroom in the Crowne Plaza for programming. We have 150 rooms blocked at the Crowne Plaza. Rates are $119 per night single/double, $139 per night triple/quad.

The Hyatt Sainte Claire is an historical hotel that originally opened in 1926. The Hyatt Sainte Claire was recently renovated and many of its historical qualities were restored. It is half a block east of the McEnery Convention Center and one block south of The Fairmont. We have 100 rooms blocked in the Hyatt Sainte Claire; we will not have any convention programming there. Rates are $119 per night single/double, $134 per night triple, $149 per night quad.

All rates listed are subject to the City of San José's Occupancy tax, currently 10%.

Reservations

Room reservations can be made by mail, fax, and online beginning February 15, 2002. If you are mailing or faxing your reservation form, please use one form for each room being reserved. Online reservations must be made one room at a time. Reservation confirmations will be sent by mail, fax or email.

The online reservation form is updated on a real-time basis. If a specific room type is not available at a particular hotel, that combination will not be shown on the online form. If that type of room later becomes available, it will then be shown on the online form.

If you want to change a reservation, send a new reservation form to the housing office, referencing your earlier reservation.

Reservation forms can be mailed to:

ConJosé Housing Bureau SJCVB

P. O. Box 6299

San José, CA 95159-9828

Faxed to 1-408-293-3705, or submitted online at <http://www.conjose.org>.

The cut-off date for housing office reservations is July 29, 2002. After July 29, please contact the individual hotels for reservations.

Parties and Party Suites

If you want to have a party, you must have a room in The Fairmont. If you want to hold your party in a regular room, make your reservation through the housing bureau and mark the "Party" box on the form.

The Fairmont has several different types of suites available for parties. One-Bedroom Suites offer a luxurious bedroom with a King bed and separate parlor. The parlor and the bedroom are each 450 square feet, for a total of 900 square feet. Two-Bedroom Suites are identical to the One-Bedroom Suite, with a connecting deluxe room with two double beds. The two-room suites are 1350 square feet. One-Bedroom Suites are $249 per night; Two-Bedroom Suites are $378 per night. All rates listed are subject to the City of San José's Occupancy tax, currently 10%.

Suites must be reserved through ConJosé; contact our Suite Coordinator by e-mail at suites@conjose.org or by mail to ConJosé Suites, PO Box 61363, Sunnyvale, CA 94088-1363. Book any adjacent deluxe rooms through the San José Convention & Visitors Bureau's Convention Housing office. Be sure to let us know if you have reserved adjacent rooms.

Clearance Sale at the Consuite!

Mark Monday, September 2, 2002 on your calendars! The Consuite will have all the decorations (including but not limited to the volcano, beach huts, and palm trees) as well as some of our serveware available for purchase. Sales are first come, first served. See any of our staff for details.

Aliens on Hawaiian Holiday

The news here in paradise is that there is an alien invasion, of sorts. These visitors are not aggressive. In fact, they are quite relaxed. They have picked our ConSuite as their vacation spot for 2002.

While here, they plan on checking out the sites—a volcano, the beach, and the underwater treasures. Why not drop in and see why they've chosen this to be their point of relaxation? You can be sure that not only are they sunning themselves and enjoying great nourishment, they are also open to discussing their home lands with Earthlings.

Oh, and if you would like to assist in hosting our extra-terrestrial visitors, drop us a line at consuite@conjose.org. We'd love to have you as a part of our team. Positions that are still available include: cabana boy/girl, beverage host/hostess, cleaning crew and pre-con set-up. We only require previous experience in enjoying hard work and long hours while mingling with a couple thousand of your closest friends you've never met. This requirement may be waived given the desire to acquire said experience.

THE CONTINUING ADVENTURES OF FERDINAND FEGHOOT

Ferdinand Feghoot, aboard the starliner Bruce Pelz, docked at a deep space station in the Kruton Empire, was astonished by the beauty of the leader of the space pirates who had overwhelmed both station and starship. She was a glory of a woman, tall and athletic, with an exquisite figure crowned by flowing red hair.

“Who is she? What’s her name?” asked Feghoot, beaming in admiration even as a patch-eyed cutthroat relieved him of his wallet, which contained most if not all of his travel money. It was not so much her figure as her face that transfixed him. He had never seen such a beautiful bas-relief of a face. It was perfection. He would not have balked at putting her on the short list of one of the most beautiful women he had ever seen.

The party spoken to, a middle-level Kruton diplomat, grunted as he handed over his own valuables. “Her name is Helen O’Loy. She was born to a poor family in a mining colony on Procyon V and grew up to work in an algae-chip factory on Deneb III. Her job was quality control—a taster. At nights she worked in strip joints near the spaceport, but she quit and went on to become a space pirate and fight against the Kruton Emperor, Wilhelm VII, who personally owns all the decadent fleshpots in his realm. After years of tasting horrible junk food and being exploited, she developed quite a personal animus against our emperor, and has led many rebellions against him.”

Feghoot thoughtfully stroked his chin and gave forth this mighty line: “Is this the face that crunched a thousand chips and spurned the topless bars of Willy, hmm?”
