

Notes from the Chair

Welcome to the first issue of our interim progress reports. We're going to intersperse these smaller issues between the more standard large progress reports; let us know if you like this format. A great deal is going on with ConJosé. Just look at the staff list and you'll see a lot of new names. At OryCon, they say that the convention runs on blood, sweat and volunteers. That's every bit as true at the Worldcon level, and we've been getting some very fine people volunteering. We still need lots more, though, and we hope you'll consider volunteering for us.

Speaking of on-line, check out our web site. It's going to be a work in progress all the way through the convention. At the moment the only restaurant information is from Mapquest, but we'll change that as we go along. Let us know what you'd like to see on the web site (www.conjose.org). We can't promise it will get there, but we love suggestions.

We're down to less than two years — are you excited yet? We are!
