A Message From The Chair

Hi All,

I can't believe that it is time to write for a Progress Report again. I am not a writer and am terrified of a blank piece of paper or a blank screen. Bur I know I have to do this, so here goes.

I am so pleased that over 3,000 of you have bought attending memberships to come see us in Spokane. Because of you we have been able to increase our space in the Convention Center, so therefore we will have more Programing, Exhibits, Dances and other wonderful things for you to see and do.

The staff has been working hard to make sure that everything that needs to happen, will happen. The Hugo Awards will have bases, the Office will have supplies, there will be tech for the Masquerade, Hospitality will have food, Registration will not have long lines, and many other things too numerous to mention.

Just be assured that there will be something for everyone to do and enjoy. And remember a great way to meet people is to volunteer to help us. We cannot run this large of a convention without you.

I am so looking forward to meeting all you wonderful people in August in Spokane.

Thank you all,
Sally Woehrle, Chair

Programming

Invitations for panelists and performers for Sasquan are starting to go out. We will be inviting people gradually, through May of next year. Our volunteer for Program/Events form (<http://sasquan.org/program/volunteer-form/>) will be up until next spring. If you've written to volunteer once, you do not need to volunteer additional times; we have a record of all volunteers. We also have a Frequently Asked Questions for Program online at: <http://sasquan.org/faq-program/>

SuperScienceSaturday

While we'll have science items all Worldcon long, we're going to focus on science on Saturday with SuperScienceSaturday. In addition to a lot of formal science panels/presentations, we'll be opening 111A for special demos and activities from 10am - 4pm.

We will have participation from LaserMotive, Intellectual Ventures Laboratories, and Intellectual Ventures' Global Good Program for Super Science Saturday! We'll have Jordin Kare (physics, rocket science, invention & engineering), one of our Guests of Honor, Vonda McIntyre (genetics and the mathematics of creative technologies), Guy Consolmagno (Vatican Astronomer), and Alma Hromic Deckert (microbiology). That's just for starters! We'll be including lots more people as they get added. If you are doing some interesting work, or know someone who, please get in touch! We want the best, most interesting stuff we can find.

Discworld

Fans of Terry Pratchett will receive a warm welcome at Sasquan in 2015. The convention staff have teamed up with Discworld fans around North America and beyond to create a variety of program elements and events that will honor Sir Terry's work. These will include both YA and adult panels, a Discworld/Steampunk dance, and a Discworld costume parade. Also planned are some of the infamous Seamstress Guild parties, as well as Discworld fan meets hosted by members of various Discworld fan guilds based in North America such as the Discworld Bakers Guild, the Guild of Cunning Artificers, The Librarians Guild, and the Dark Clerks. Pub crawls are being planned, as are Black Ribboner meetings. Several of Sir Terry's editors will also be in attendance and we hope to offer some Discworld movies, as well. Come one, come all. Oook!

Stroll with the Stars

How would you like to get up close and personal so you could have a conversation with your favorite author, artist or editor . . . and at the same time get some fresh air and stretch your legs a bit? Well that's what Stroll With The Stars is all about.

Every morning at 9am, we'll take a nice stroll...and we stress, stroll. This is not a heart-pounding aerobic exercise, or a military forced march, it's a nice morning stroll, generally wandering the paths through the park adjacent to the convention center. We'll be back at the convention center by 10am, in time for most activities to start. Stroll with the Stars has been described by some of the participants as a "Strolling Kaffee Klatsche" (but unlike a Kaffee Klatsche you won't need to stand in line to sign up, and there's no limit to how many can attend).

Young Adult

Sasquan's Young Adult Program will include an exciting selection of topics and themes ranging from dystopias vs. utopias, The Wizard of Oz, teen romance in fiction, Discworld, and life in space, among others. Participants will also get the chance to experience out-of-this-world workshops: dabbling in puppetry, costume making, YA trivia, and much more!

Maker

We are looking for panelists to talk about how they use their Maker and Hacker skills to complement their writing/drawing/worldbuilding. Do you physically build your "world" for your stories using a 3D printer, CNC mill, or laser cutter? Do you virtually build one, and if so, what software do you use?

How else do you combine your Maker skills with your science fiction and fantasy efforts? Would you be willing to do a panel to share your tips with others? If you have experience along these lines, write to program@sasquan.org and include the word Maker in the Subject.

Meetups

Want to have a discussion group or schedule a meeting for your local club at Worldcon? We'll have some space available in the Convention Center between 9am and 10am, and between 5:30pm and 10:30pm. We'll have a form on the Website by early 2015 with more information about meetups.

Note: A meetup is not the same thing as a party. The Convention Center has very strict rules about not bringing food in from the outside, so a meetup can only be a meeting. If you want to throw a party, you need to rent a hotel room in our party hotel, the Davenport.

Music

Given that Sasquan has a musical GoH in the form of Tom Smith, aka "The World's Fastest Filker," expect a strong music program that will be well-integrated with the rest of Sasquan.

We will be having concerts, panels, workshops, and a few surprises (if we told you what they were, they wouldn't be surprises!). We also have a few more grandiose things in the works; more on those as we make them happen.

If you or your group would like to perform at Sasquan, or if you have any ideas for Music Programming, select the Music Programming link on the Committee Contact page (<http://sasquan.org/committee-list/>).

Sign-ups for Writers Workshops

We will have sign-up forms for Writers Workshops on the Website very soon!

As we confirm panelists, performers and items, we'll post information regularly to @sasquanprogram on Twitter, so follow us for the latest. The Website will also be frequently updated.

Fan

We're working on a robust collection of programming items about fandom — past, present and future!

Events

Audio Theatre

The Audio Theater will be presenting recorded SF/F down through the ages from the Golden Age of Radio to the podcasts of today. We're making plans to bring you both audio originals and adaptations, familiar franchises and forgotten gems. We'll even have a live performance or two. Stay tuned to this frequency for more details!

First Night

The First Night is moving forward with big plans for fandom's first evening of entertainment at Sasquan. The team is currently working with the Spokane Visitor's Information Center to find the best ways to show off the Pacific Northwest and Spokane to Worldcon members.

Hugo Awards

Preparations are underway for the year's biggest Science Fiction and Fantasy event: the 2015 Hugo Awards Ceremony at Sasquan. Your hosts for the Hugos will be David Gerrold, Sasquan guest of honor and writer-extraordinaire, and Tananarive Due, vivacious personality and author par excellence. In addition, for those watching the Awards from the comfort of the Internet, Sasquan is proud to offer you a first in Hugo Ceremony history - "The Road to the Hugos", a pre-Hugo and post-Hugo show done live and streamed over the Internet. Hosted by the collective talents of the acclaimed Doctor Who Podcast "Radio Free Skaro", Warren Frey, Steven Schapansky, and Chris Burgess will provide commentary and analysis of the 2015 Hugo Awards, along with some special interviews both before and after the ceremony!

Be a part of history with the 2015 Hugo Awards Ceremony! We'll see you there!

GoHs on Hugos

We asked our Guests of Honor to share with us their thoughts and memories on The Hugo Awards.

“I love that the lists of nominees have always been a good guide, what with more and more science fiction being published, for the titles and authors that would be worth seeking out. I like that while the rocket itself stays the same, the base is a totally different and unique design each year, some of them amazing works of art in their own right -I don't know of any other award that does that. It's interesting to watch how some categories have changed over time, as both publishing and fandom have changed. I'm glad someone else is willing to take on the task of trying to straighten it all out. I'm always fascinated to see who and what ends up in the final lists for all categories every year. I don't think there has been a single time I was told I had been nominated when it didn't come as a surprise.”

Brad Foster

Leslie Turek

“I don't remember the year I saw Hugo Gernsback on a TV talk show. It was probably around 1960 -my dad told me to pay attention to this odd-looking guy with the crazy ideas who had so influenced his early years. I heard of the Hugo Awards around the same time. I read a lot of science fiction and I soon learned that the Hugo Award marked the best of the best. When I found fandom several years later, I learned that I could even vote for the Hugo Awards - how cool was that? And then I went to Tricon, and got to watch my favorite author Isaac Asimov do his humorous schtick complaining about never winning a Hugo Award, until the tables were turned and he got a special Hugo for the Foundation series as Best All-Time Series.

And at every Worldcon I went to after that, the Hugo award ceremony was the highlight. When I look at my Hugo I feel a valued part of the science fiction community. And sometimes I think back to my dad, a geeky kid building his first ham radio, inspired by the magazines published by Hugo Gernsback.”

“To me, the Hugos are an annual recommended reading list. There are so many good writers working today, it’s impossible to keep up -- but the nominations are always a good sampling of the best. Diving into the various books and stories is one of my favorite adventures, because it’s a chance to rediscover of the sense of wonder that brought me to science fiction in the first place.”

David Gerrold

Tom Smith

“ Much has been made of the thought that the Hugos are fandom’s Oscars or Emmys or Grammys. But they’re not, not really. The Nebula Award fulfills that function, being voted upon by professionals actually working in science fiction.

The Hugos are our People’s Choice Awards, and that’s not a bad thing. Because what makes a story stand out is the combination of the imagination to come up with something that does not freakin’ exist, and the intelligence to plan out its possibilities, and the wit to hang a story on all that, and the charm to make people want to keep turning the pages. The Hugos recognize the ability to share a dream with the world, in such a way that the world can actually have the same dream.”

Welcome to The Hugos

Nominating for the Hugo Awards

Have you seen “Hugo-winning novel” of the cover of a classic science fiction novel, or even attended the Hugo Awards ceremony at a previous Worldcon, and wondered how those awards were decided? It’s very simple—the voters for the Hugo Awards are all members of the World Science Fiction Convention, and all members of Sasquan are eligible to vote on this year’s Hugo Awards.

Any Questions?

If you have questions, please check the Sasquan website for updates at: <http://sasquan.org/hugo-awards/> or contact us directly at: hugoadmin@sasquan.org. There its also a short FAQ section after the ballot.

Hugo voting consists of two stages. In this first step, the nominating process, voters can name the items that they consider worthy of being considered for the Hugos. By combining the votes of more than a thousand people, we can get a proper overview of what came out in 2014.

In this Progress Report, you’ll find the Nominating Ballot for this year’s Hugo Awards. Use this form to send in your nominations, or vote online at <http://sasquan.org/hugo-awards/> using your personal Hugo PIN to validate your vote. The Hugo PINs are printed on the mailing label for this progress report, and also will be sent out via email in batches to everyone who is eligible to vote. Eligible voters who have lost their PIN, or haven’t received one, can contact us at hugopin@sasquan.org.

Do not worry if you don’t have five items to nominate in each category, or haven’t read everything that’s been published in 2014 (has anyone?). Nominate as many (up to five in a category) or as few as you desire. (Don’t bother nominating an item more than once—we’ll only count that as one vote.)

In the final step, we’ll take the five items gaining the most nominations in each category and we’ll ask the voters to rank their preferences among those five. The final ballot will appear in PR 4, so keep an eye out! - J. Lorentz and R.Sachter, Sasquan Hugo Admins

Please Read These Instructions Carefully Before Casting Your Ballot for the 2015 Hugo Award & John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer!

Voter Eligibility

You may nominate for the Hugo and Campbell Awards if you, on or before January 31, 2015 (11:59PM Pacific Standard Time)

- are an attending or supporting member of Sasquan (the 2015 World Science Fiction Convention); or
- are an attending or supporting member of MidAmeriCon II (the 2016 World Science Fiction Convention); or.
- were an attending or supporting member of Loncon 3 (the 2014 World Science Fiction Convention).

All ballots must be received by 11:59PM (2359 hours), Pacific Daylight Time on Tuesday, March 10, 2015.

Please mail your paper ballots as early as possible to ensure that your ballot will be counted. Overseas members should send their nominations airmail.

Ballot should be mailed to: Sasquan Hugo Awards, c/o John Lorentz, 6323 NE Mallory Ave, Portland, Oregon 97211-6317, USA. (Ballots mailed to the main Sasquan address will be delayed and might arrive too late to be counted.) Ballots mailed internationally must be enclosed in an envelope. Do not email your ballot.

Online voting will be available via the Sasquan web site: <http://sasquan.org/hugo-awards/>. PINs for voting online are included on the mailing label for this progress report and will also be emailed to members.

Please be sure to fill in the eligibility section on the previous page. Don't forget to sign the ballot—we cannot count your ballot if it is unsigned.

Nominating by Mail or Online

•You may nominate up to five persons or works in each category. However, you are permitted (and even encouraged) to make fewer nominations, or none at all, if you are not familiar with the works that fall into that category. The nominations are equally weighted: the order in which you list them has no effect on the outcome.

- “No Award” will appear automatically in every category on the final ballot - there is no need to include that choice in the nominations.
- Please include source information wherever possible. This is not mandatory, but does make it easier for us to identify the work you intend to nominate.
- Please type or print clearly. We cannot count illegible ballots.

- The top five vote-getters in each category (more in case of ties, fewer if not many nominations are cast in that category) will appear on the final Hugo Awards ballot, which will be distributed with Sasquan PR4 (scheduled for publication in April 2015). Only members of Sasquan will be eligible to vote on the final ballot.

Eligibility

Works published in 2014 for the first time anywhere, or for the first time in English in 2014, are eligible for the 2015 Hugo Award. In addition, any works published outside the United States prior to 2014, but first published in the United States in 2014, are also eligible for the 2015 Hugo Awards (unless they have already appeared on a previous final Hugo ballot).

Books are considered to have been published on the "publication date" which usually appears with the copyright information on the back of the title page. If there is no stated publication date, the copyright date will be used instead. A dated periodical is considered to have been published on the cover date, regardless of when it was placed on sale or copyrighted. Serialized stories or dramatic presentations are eligible in the year in which the last installment appears. Other rules of eligibility are given with the specific categories.

Exclusions

The Sasquan Committee has irrevocably delegated all Hugo Administration authority to a subcommittee. Therefore, only John Lorentz, Ruth Sachter, Linda Deneroff, Ron Oakes, Dave McCarty and Glenn Glazer are ineligible for the 2015 Hugo Awards.

Reproduction

Reproduction and distribution of this ballot is permitted and encouraged, provided that it is reproduced verbatim (including voting instructions), with no additional material other than the name of the person or publication responsible for the reproduction.

This ballot must be received by 11:59 (2359 hours) Pacific
Daylight Time, Tuesday,
March 10, 2015

Why vote for the Hugos?

Because the Hugos are unique: The highest award in the field -- in science fiction and fantasy literature and fandom -- and they are decided not by an exclusive jury or by a professional group, but by fans. The people who love science fiction and fantasy, who have grown up with it in their books and shows and media, who go to conventions and live, breathe and argue about the genre they love.

Why vote for the Hugos?

Because the award is the touchstone for the larger culture about the current state of the science fiction and fantasy genre. Because within in the genre, no award is discussed more, debated as loudly, complained about or desired more passionately, or been the subject of more theories, conjectures and proclamations. Because at the end of the day the Hugos are a snapshot of who we are as a fandom, as a literature and as a community. It's the living memory of the people who, simply, love science fiction and fantasy.

Why vote for the Hugos?

Because it's fun! It's fun to argue, it's fun to pick and choose and to agonize over who gets that final nomination slot on your slate. It's fun to celebrate with the friends who get nominated, grouse about what favorites of yours have been overlooked -- unfairly! -- and to explore the works of the nominees with whom you are (not yet) familiar. It's fun to vote on that final ballot, knowing that you're expressing an opinion on what others, inside of the genre and outside of it, will understand to be the best of science fiction and fantasy for the year.

Why vote for the Hugos?

Because you can. Anyone can get a membership to the Worldcon; anyone can nominate; anyone can vote on the final ballot. All it takes is that membership and a willingness to express an opinion. And by "anyone," we mean "you" -- you can do this, and if you love science fiction and fantasy as much we all know you do, then you should. Make your voice heard.

Why vote for the Hugos?

Because the Hugos are about science fiction and fantasy. It's about our genre and our community. And it's about you.

That's why.

Hugo Award FAQ

Is Fantasy Eligible For The Hugo Awards?

From the very beginning, both fantasy and science stories (whether written, filmed or other media) have been eligible for the Hugos. Because “fantasy” and “science fiction” have been intertwined for decades, the Hugo rules make no effort to distinguish between the two. So feel free to nominate the stories you’ve enjoyed, whether they feature rocket ships or wizards.

How Is A “Novella” Different From A “Novelette”?

For the Hugos, written fiction is divided by length into four categories: Novels (usually any full-length book, but defined by the rules as any work over 40,000 words); Novellas (from 17,500 words to 40,000); Novelettes (from 7,500 to 17,500 words) and Short Stories (7,500 words and under). Several magazines indicate which category a story falls into, but collections and websites often do not. Not too worry—give it your best guess.

The Hugo Administrator can relocate a nominated story to its proper category. There is even a 20% gray area. If a story is within 20% of the boundary and gets most of its nominations in the “wrong” category, the Hugo Administrator is allowed to leave it in the category that most of the voters felt it belonged in, despite the official word count of the story.

Similarly, the Dramatic Presentation nominees are divided by length into two categories: Long Form (usually movies), which are more than 90 minutes in length; and Short Form (usually single or two-part television or radio episodes), which are 90 minutes in length, or less. Here again, there is a 20% overlap, so that a short film of 85 minutes in length can be placed in Long Form if most of the voters feel it belongs there; and a two-part television episode that last 95 minutes can be placed in Short Form, if most of the voters feel it properly belongs there.

What’s a “Fancast”?

Fancast is a relatively new category for the Hugos. A fancast is an amateur video or audio production that is released on a periodic basis. To be eligible, it must have been produced at least four times by the end of 2014 (with at least one episode coming out in 2014).

Eligibility Extension

The Hugo rules allow an additional year of eligibility to any items that had not yet been published in the United States during the year (since the majority of Hugo voters are usually from the U.S.). Therefore, any items first published outside the United States prior to 2014, but first published in the U.S. in 2014, are also eligible to be nominated for the 2015 Hugos.

Vatican Astronomer to Give Carl Sagan Award Acceptance Speech at Sasquan

Guy Consolmagno, an astronomer at the Vatican Observatory, will give a speech for the Carl Sagan Medal he received for 2014 as part of Sasquan's First Night. The Sagan award is given annually by the American Astronomical Society for excellence in science writing.

Brother Guy, an active fan and a member of the MIT Science Fiction Society, will give this speech at 8 PM on Wednesday night. Br. Consolmagno obtained his Bachelor of Science in 1974 and Master of Science in 1975 in Earth and Planetary Sciences from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and his PhD in Planetary Science from the University of Arizona in 1978.

Br. Consolmagno is curator of the Vatican meteorite collection in Castel Gandolfo, one of the largest in the world. His research explores the connections between meteorites and asteroids, and the origin and evolution of small bodies in the solar system.

Home Away From Home

by Mike Willmoth
Vice Chair

Sasquan will use the DoubleTree Hotel which is attached to the Spokane Convention Center (SCC) on it's North side for Consuite (Presidential Suite, 15th floor), Staff Den (Ambassador Suite, 14th floor), and Childcare. Function space on the first floor of the DoubleTree is slated for Dances, Gaming and Filking. The function space on the 3rd floor of the DoubleTree will used for Operations, Con Storage and daily Division Head meetings.

The Davenport & Tower Hotel, about a half mile southwest of the SCC, will be the party hotel. Because the Davenport is now branded as a Marriott Hotel, as well as the new Grand Hotel, we cannot call them parties. Instead, please refer to them as 'meet and greets.' The Davenport is made up of two buildings, diagonally across the street from each other. The northwest building will be the home to the public 'meet and greets' and the southwest will be home to some non-public 'meet and greets.' Both buildings have suites. For public 'meet and greets' the top three floors will be available- each floor has eight suites. If we have enough requests for party rooms as well as suites, then after we fill the top three floors we'll expand downwards as needed.

Details on these rooms and suites will go out to the folks who have requested them via parties@sasquan.org and suites@sasquan.org as soon as we have the details ready. The Davenport will definitely be on the shuttle route between the hotel, the SCC and the other hotels.

- Above - clockwise from right: the Davenport Hotel, the DoubleTree, and Grand Hotel
- Left - clockwise from top right: the Best Western, the Red Lion River Inn, and the Hotel Ruby.

The Grand Hotel will be the home to some of the non-public “meet and greets”. At this time these include the Hugo Losers Party, sponsored by Worldcon 2016 (Kansas City, MidAmeriCon II), the Association of Science Fiction & Fantasy Artists Inc (ASFA), and the Science Fiction & Fantasy Writers of America (SFWA). We are working on details with them. The Grand will be attached to the SCC by a second floor skybridge at the southwest corner across from the INB Theater, home of the Masquerade and the Hugo Awards Ceremony. Because it is attached to the SCC, it will be on the shuttle route by way of the SCC/ DoubleTree.

The Red Lion At The Park is north of the Spokane River, north of the SCC, about a half mile. There is a foot path through the park connecting them. It contains suites for non-public ‘meet and greets’ or private use. It will be on the shuttle route.

The Red Lion River Inn is east of the Red Lion At The Park, northeast of the SCC, about a half mile from the east exit, and has one suite. It will be on the shuttle route.

The Hotel Ruby and Ruby 2 are the newest hotels. They are about a block south of the Davenport Hotel and have rooms only. Due to their proximity to the Davenport they will be on the shuttle route via the Davenport.

Visit Spokane, the city's convention and visitors bureau (CVB), is negotiating additional hotels for us. We will announce details as soon as they are available. We are also hoping to add additional rooms at our existing hotels if negotiations are successful. The CVB is handling our housing bureau software system linked from our website. If anyone has a question, needs assistance, etc. with the hotels or the housing bureau, please contact them / us via hb@sasquan.org or call them using the toll free number. If you need the direct dial number for any reason, just send us an email there or via info@sasquan.org.

WSFS: You're a Part of It

Have you ever said, "They should have a Hugo Award for ___"? If you're a member of Sasquan, then there isn't a "they"; there's a "we", as in "We should have a Hugo Award for ___". That's because every member of Worldcon is part of the process to not only select the Hugo Awards, but how they're run and what the categories are. It's not a faceless, nameless "them" who makes the decision, it's "us."

If you have a membership to Sasquan, the 2015 World Science Fiction Convention, then you also are a member of the World Science Fiction Society (WSFS). In fact, joining Worldcon is the only way you can be a member of WSFS. Your attending membership includes the WSFS membership dues, and your supporting membership is those annual membership dues. That membership gives you a number of rights, including nominating and voting for the Hugo Awards, voting for the site of a future Worldcon, and (for those with attending memberships) the right to propose, debate, and vote on changes to the document that controls how Worldcons are selected and how the Hugo Awards work.

Most big organizations, even those with members, have a Board of Directors or some other group that makes all of the decisions. WSFS is not like that. Almost all of the important decisions about WSFS and Worldcon's basic structure are made by the members themselves through the Business Meeting. Every attending member can attend this meeting, which is usually held on the second, third, and fourth days of the convention starting at 10 AM. The people who attend these meetings get to propose, debate, and vote on proposals to change the WSFS Constitution. The Constitution includes the rules for the Hugo Awards, including what the categories are and who can vote on them, and also how we select the sites of future Worldcons, including where those conventions can be held.

Being able to directly debate how WSFS works and vote on changes personally is unusual. Few large organizations work this way. Most of them elect delegates or otherwise put the decisions in other people's hands. Usually those decisions are held mostly in private. WSFS lets every member directly participate, just like it lets every member vote on where to hold future Worldcons and to whom to bestow our highest honor, the Hugo Awards. You too can help make the future of Worldcon by participating. The rules are published in this Progress Report, and are available from the Sasquan web site and from the WSFS web site. Remember that you're directly a part of the process, as long as you want to be.

4.1.2: Voting shall be by written ballot cast either by mail or at the current Worldcon with tallying as described in Section 6.4.

4.1.3: The current Worldcon Committee shall administer the voting, collect the advance membership fees, and turn over those funds to the winning Committee before the end of the current Worldcon.

4.1.4: The site-selection voting totals shall be announced at the Business Meeting and published in the first or second Progress Report of the winning Committee, with the by-mail and at-convention votes distinguished.

Section 4.2: Voter Eligibility.

4.2.1: Voting shall be limited to WSFS members who have purchased at least a supporting membership in the Worldcon whose site is being selected.

4.2.2: The supporting membership rate shall be set by unanimous agreement of the current Worldcon Committee and all bidding committees who have filed before the ballot deadline. If agreement is not reached, the default fee shall be the median (middle value) of the US dollar fees used in the previous three (3) Worldcon site selections.

Section 4.3: Non-Natural Persons.

Corporations, associations, and other non-human or artificial entities may cast ballots, but only for “No Preference”. “Guest of” memberships may only cast “No Preference” ballots. Memberships transferred to individual natural persons may cast preferential ballots, provided that the transfer is accepted by the administering convention.

Section 4.4: Ballots.

Site-selection ballots shall include name, signature, address, and membership-number spaces to be filled in by the voter. Each site-selection ballot shall list the options “None of the Above” and “No Preference” and provide for write-in votes, after the bidders and with equal prominence. The supporting membership rate shall be listed on all site-selection ballots.

Section 4.5: Tallying

4.5.1: The name and address information shall be separated from the ballots and the ballots counted only at the Worldcon. Each bidding committee should provide at least two (2) tellers. Each bidding committee may make a record of the name and address of every voter.

4.5.2: A ballot voted with first or only choice for “No Preference” shall be ignored for site selection. A ballot voted with lower than first choice for “No Preference” shall be ignored if all higher choices on the ballot have been eliminated in preferential tallying.

4.5.3: “None of the Above” shall be treated as a bid for tallying, and shall be the run-off candidate for the purposes of Section 6.5.

4.5.4: All ballots shall be initially tallied by their first preferences, even if cast for a bid that the administering Committee has ruled ineligible. If no eligible bid achieves a majority on the first round of tallying, then on the second round all ballots for ineligible bids shall be redistributed to their first eligible choices, and tallying shall proceed according to Section 6.4.

4.5.5: If “None of the Above” wins, or if two or more bids are tied for first place at the end of tallying, the duty of site selection shall devolve on the Business Meeting of the current Worldcon. If the Business Meeting is unable to decide by the end of the Worldcon, the Committee for the following Worldcon shall make the selection without undue delay.

4.5.6: Where a site and Committee are chosen by a Business Meeting or Worldcon Committee following a win by “None of the Above,” they are not restricted by exclusion zone or other qualifications.

4.5.7: Where a site and Committee are chosen by a Business Meeting or Worldcon Committee following a tie in tallying, they must select one of the tied bids.

Section 4.6: Bid Eligibility.

4.6.1: To be eligible for site selection, a bidding committee must file the following documents with the Committee that will administer the voting:

- (1) an announcement of intent to bid;
- (2) adequate evidence of an agreement with its proposed site’s facilities, such as a conditional contract or a letter of agreement;
- (3) the rules under which the Worldcon Committee will operate, including a specification of the term of office of their chief executive officer or officers and the conditions and procedures for the selection and replacement of such officer or officers.

4.6.2: The bidding committee must supply written copies of these documents to any member of WSFS on request.

4.6.3: For a bid to be allowed on the printed ballot, the bidding committee must file the documents specified above no later than 180 days prior to the official opening of the administering convention.

4.6.4: To be eligible as a write-in, the bidding committee must file the documents specified above by the close of the voting.

4.6.5: If no bids meet these qualifications, the selection shall proceed as though “None of the Above” had won.

Section 4.7: Site Eligibility.

A site shall be ineligible if it is within five hundred (500) miles or eight hundred (800) kilometres of the site at which selection occurs.

Section 4.8: NASFiC

If the selected Worldcon site is not in North America, there shall be a NASFiC in North America that year. Selection of the NASFiC shall be by the identical procedure to the Worldcon selection except as provided below or elsewhere in this Constitution:

4.8.1: Voting shall be by written ballot administered by the following year’s Worldcon, if there is no NASFiC in that year, or by the following year’s NASFiC, if there is one, with ballots cast at the administering convention or by mail, and with only members of the administering convention allowed to vote.

4.8.2: NASFiC Committees shall make all reasonable efforts to avoid conflicts with Worldcon dates.

4.8.3: The proposed NASFiC supporting membership rate can be set by unanimous agreement of the administering Committee and all bidding committees who have filed before the ballot deadline. If agreement is not reached, the default fee shall be the median (middle value) of the US dollar fees used in the previous three (3) Worldcon site selections.

4.8.4: If “None of the Above” wins, or if no eligible bid files by the deadline, then no NASFiC shall be held and any supporting membership payments collected for the NASFiC site selection shall be refunded by the administering convention without undue delay.

Article 5 - Powers of the Business Meeting

Section 5.1: WSFS Business Meetings.

5.1.1: Business Meetings of WSFS shall be held at advertised times at each Worldcon.

5.1.2: The current Worldcon Committee shall provide the Presiding Officer and Staff for each Meeting.

5.1.3: Standing Rules for the Governance of the Business Meeting and related activities may be adopted or amended by a majority vote at any Business Meeting. Amendments to Standing Rules shall take effect at the close of the Worldcon where they are adopted; this rule may be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

5.1.4: Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of (in descending order of precedence) the WSFS Constitution; the Standing Rules; such other rules as may be published in advance by the current Committee (which rules may be suspended by the Business Meeting by the same procedure as a Standing Rule); the customs and usages of WSFS (including the resolutions and rulings of continuing effect); and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

5.1.5: The quorum for the Business Meeting shall be twelve members of the Society physically present.

Section 5.2: Continuation of Committees.

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, any committee or other position created by a Business Meeting shall lapse at the end of the next following Business Meeting that does not vote to continue it.

Section 5.3: Constitutional Pass-along.

Within two (2) months after the end of each Worldcon, the Business Meeting staff shall send a copy of all changes to the Constitution and Standing Rules, and all items awaiting ratification, to the next Worldcon Committee.

Article 6 - Constitution

Section 6.1: Conduct.

The conduct of the affairs of WSFS shall be determined by this Constitution together with all ratified amendments hereto and such Standing Rules as the Business Meeting shall adopt for its own governance.

Section 6.2: Natural Persons.

In all matters arising under this Constitution, only natural persons may introduce business, nominate, or vote, except as specifically provided otherwise in this Constitution. No person may cast more than one vote on any issue or more than one ballot in any election. This shall not be interpreted to prohibit delivery of ballots cast by other eligible voters.

Section 6.3: Electronic Voting.

Nothing in this Constitution shall be interpreted to prohibit conducting Hugo Awards nominating and voting and Site Selection voting by electronic means, except that conducting Site Selection by electronic means shall require the unanimous agreement of the current Worldcon committee and all bidding committees who have filed before the ballot deadline. Valid paper ballots delivered by any means shall always be acceptable. This section shall not be interpreted to require that such elections be conducted electronically, nor shall it be interpreted to allow remote participation or proxy voting at the Business Meeting.

Section 6.4: Tallying of Votes.

Votes shall first be tallied by the voter's first choices. If no majority is then obtained, the candidate who places last in the initial tallying shall be eliminated and the ballots listing it as first choice shall be redistributed on the basis of those ballots' second choices. This process shall be repeated until a majority-vote winner is obtained. If two or more candidates are tied for elimination during this process, the candidate that received fewer first-place votes shall be eliminated. If they are still tied, all the tied candidates shall be eliminated together.

Section 6.5: Run-off.

After a tentative winner is determined, then unless the run-off candidate shall be the sole winner, the following additional test shall be made. If the number of ballots preferring the run-off candidate to the tentative winner is greater than the number of ballots preferring the tentative winner to the run-off candidate, then the run-off candidate shall be declared the winner of the election.

Section 6.6: Amendment.

The WSFS Constitution may be amended by a motion passed by a simple majority at any Business Meeting but only to the extent that such motion is ratified by a simple majority at the Business Meeting of the subsequent Worldcon.

Section 6.7: Commencement.

Any change to the Constitution of WSFS shall take effect at the end of the Worldcon at which such change is ratified, except that no change imposing additional costs or financial obligations upon Worldcon Committees shall be binding upon any Committee already selected at the time when it takes effect. The above copy of the World Science Fiction Society's Constitution is hereby Certified to be True, Correct, and Complete:

Have You Heard The Great News?

Sasquan has doubled in size since we issued Progress Report 2! We're so thankful for the support and we can't wait to share with you more of our plans for an excellent Worldcon!

If you're not already a member of Sasquan head online to our website and register today! We'll also be at plenty of conventions this summer and will happily register you in person.

Want to start the party early?

For Sasquan Staff and Volunteers the fun has already started! Join our team and help us put together a convention that everyone will love. We're always looking for new friends to show us something new and shiny about fandom to love - share your perspective with us!

To volunteer, email us at volunteers@sasquan.org today! We can't wait to hear from you!
