An Invitation

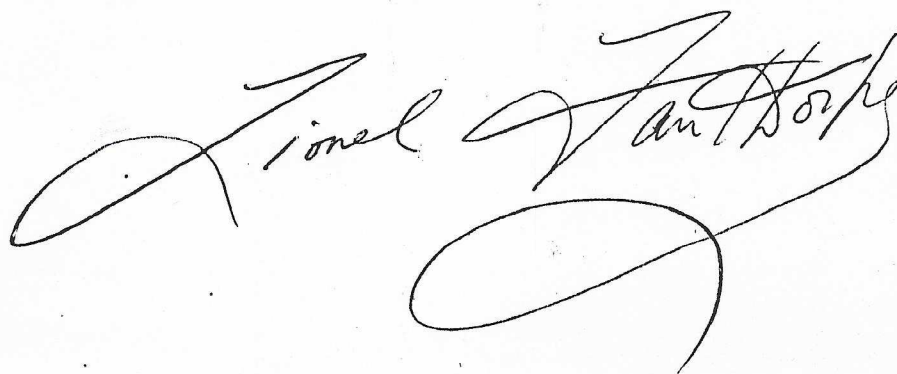

On Saturday, September 5th, 1992, I shall be celebrating my 40th anniversary as an author in print: I sold my first short Science Fiction story to Badger Books of Hammersmith in 1952 when I was seventeen and have sold about 200 novels and collections of short stories since -- several more are due out this year.

The celebrations are taking the form of a series of talks on unsolved mysteries like the Rennes mystery, videos, readings and dramatisations from my stories, in the large cinema at Chapter Arts Centre, Canton, Cardiff, beginning at 9.30 a.m. and ending at 5.30 p.m.

Visiting speakers will include fellow authors: BRIAN ALDISS, BRIAN STABLEFORD and GUY SMITH.

Tickets for the whole day's events are available at only £10 each from my Agent (who's also my wife!) Mrs Patricia Fanthorpe, "Rivendell", 48 Claude Road, Roath, Cardiff, CF2 3QA, telephone 0222 - 498368, Fax 0222 - 496832.

We'd be honoured and delighted to have the pleasure of your company to help us celebrate this 40th Literary Anniversary.
