Welcome to Boskone 54

ART SHOW

Check out 100 Years of Black & White Artwork, curated by the wonderful Joe Siclari and Edie Stern. We are also pleased to have on display the interior and cover scratch board illustrations from The Golden Key, written by George MacDonald. Illustrated by Ruth Sanderson (she is selling copies of the book in the Dealer's Room), it is located opposite the Art Show Desk, where you can also obtain a Bidder number to bid on all the spectacular art in the Art Show. Bid early, bid often (bidding closes at noon on Sunday). Please remember to vote for the Popular Choice Best of Show Award (voting closes at 9:00 PM tonight). Ballots available at the Art Show Desk.

FRIDAY NIGHT RECEPTION

The theme of the reception food was desserts. All manner of pastries, cakes, and pies were provided. As expected, hordes of hungry fans descended upon the food. At the end, two brownies were left—how did you guys miss them. Kudos to Gay Ellen Dennett (and her minion Robert Luoma) for the planning and execution.

NAME THAT CREATURE!

As you are aware, the escalators in the Westin are singing a cheerful song. But we at Boskone are baffled. None of us have been able to identify the creature which the elevators are emulating.

Therefore, we have decided to crowdsource the answer. Please write a paragraph which names the creature (terrestrial, ET, or fantastic) and tells us a bit about its habits and habitat. Then email your proposal to escalator@smofs.com by 8pm Saturday. The winning submission will be printed in Sunday's Helmuth and will receive the printed NESFA book of their choice as a prize.

Thank you for your help!

Escalator Warning

Safety warning: people wearing long dresses, robes, capes, etc. please take care to keep them clear of the escalator steps. We have already had one dress get caught and it needed to be ripped to get it loose.

NESFA PRESS

Our latest—the seventh—Poul Anderson collection, Question and Answer, is now here at the NESFA Sales table in the Dealer's Room. This was made possible by the heroic efforts of Rick Kovalcik. Three (and more) cheers for him.

There have been two other NESFA Press books printed since Boskone 53—The Halcyon Fairy Book by Ursula Vernon who was Guest of Honor at Arisia 2017 and Making Conversation by Teresa Nielsen Hayden for MidAmeriCon II where she was one of the Guests of Honor. These are available at the NESFA Press table in the Dealer's Room.

LOST AND FOUND

If you lost something in Burroughs please come to Boskone Office in Galleria and describe it or call 617-625-2311.

THANK YOU

Boskone thanks Joseph McDermott for contributing many (many!) jars of custom "The Fortress at the End of Time" marmalade. Stop by the consuite and choose one of four flavors to spread on toast: rosemary orange, grapefruit, Meyer lemon (made from home-grown Meyer lemons!), and blood orange. Kosher-friendly, vegan, ingredients listed on the jars. (Submitted by Geri Sullivan, who was there when he showed up with the box full of marmalade)

PARTIES

Saturday: Jean Berman's Birthday Party & John Costello Memorial Party. Saturday 7pm to 1am in Room 423. Food, Friends, Fun. Sweets, savories, hot & cold drinkables, lots of chocolate—including homemade fudge, and foods to appeal to many different tastes including special diets. Check it out on the party floor.

For more parties check the gridwall in the elevator lobby on the 4th floor.

BOSKONE 55

Memberships in Boskone 55 can be purchased at the NESFA Sales table in the Dealer's Room. Confirmed guests now are Mary Robinette Kowal (Guest of Honor) and Craig Miller (Special Guest). Boskone 55 will be held 16-18 February 2018 at the Westin Waterfront in Boston.

BOSKONES PAST

David A. Vanderwerf showed up Friday. Dave chaired Boskone 1 (September 1965) and Boskone 2 (March 1966). In those days, it was thought reasonable to hold a Boskone every six months. We soon learned better.
