FAAn Awards Voting Is Underway

The ballot for the 2012 Fan Activity Achievement Awards (FAAn Awards) is now in full distribution. It is available at www.Corflu.org or from me (crossfire4@cox.net).

Casting your vote is a great way to give egoboo to the writers' artists, publishers and posters who made worthy contributions to Fandom in 2011.

There is no charge for voting. All knowledgeable fans, not just Corflu members, are encouraged to voice their choices for Best Genzine, Best Perzine, Best Special Publication or Single Issue, Best Fanwriter, Best Fan Artist/Cartoonist, Best Website and Best Letterhack.

You can vote by snail mail or electronically. All ballots must reach 2012 FAAn Awards Administrator Andy Hooper (fanmailaph@aol.com) by March 8, 2012.

Fans are also invited to distribute The 2012 FAAn Awards ballot. It may be posted on your web site, mailed with your hard copy fanzine or circulated to your electronic list, if you desire.

2011 Fanzine Database

Many fans find that the passage of time, the huge number of titles and Expansive Hedonism have dulled their recollection of what fanzines were published in 2011.

FAAn Awards Administrator Andy Hooper (fanmailaph@aol.com) has put together the 2011 Fanzine Database. It is posted as a free download at www.corflu.org, thanks to the ever-efficient Bill Burns.

Andy has asked the help of fanzine editors to make the 2011 Database as complete as possible. Check the entries that reflect your publishing activities last year and send any additions and corrections to him (fanmailaph@aol.com).

For Fans of Spicy Foods Only!

"The Heat Seekers" show on the Food Channel has recently done an episode in Las Vegas. Glitter correspondent Gary Mattingly reports that the popular cable program spotlighted a trio of Vegas restaurants.

Knowing that some Corfluvians have a penchant for incendiary food, here are the recommendations:

- LBS Burger Joint (in the Red Rock Casino)
Potato Twister (spicy potato nachos) with a sauce made with ghost peppers.
- Lindo Michoacan
Chicken Cry Today,
Cry Tomorrow
Nine different peppers including habaneros, chiletepin, etc.
- Rice and Company at the Luxor

Texas de Brazil

6533 Las Vegas Blvd. So. (In Town Square)

Hours: Lunch - 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM; Dinner - 4:00 PM to 10:30 PM

Price: Lunch - $35, Dinner - $50

Service: Professional

And now, for something completely different: endless dining!

The newest ethnic hotspot on the Vegas scene, Texas de Brazil is a fun dining experience. Half the food you get on your own, and the other half is served to you when you want it. Start at the 50 to 60 item seasonal salad bar that includes appetizers, gourmet vegetables, soups, and salads.

At the table, turn your marker card to green for the main course, and the passadões bring flame-roasted cuts of beef, pork, lamb, chicken and Brazilian sausage, still on the sword skewers, to your table. Fried plantains, mashed potatoes and Brazilian cheese bread are sides. Flip the card to red when you've had enough. Save room for dessert! Key Lime Pie or Brazilian Papaya Cream? At the bar, try their signature Brazilian. (BD)

The Fire breathing Dragon sushi roll includes ghost peppers and habaneros sriracha topped with pop rocks

So, toughen up those stomach linings and come to Vegas to challenge the Big Hat. (Or join me for a late night Walter A. Willis Memorial Hamburger and a Shake at the Fatburger located in the Sunset Station Food Court. Details next issue.)

Good Night Now!

There's still plenty to tell you about Corflu Glitter, so Glitter will likely return next week. Meanwhile, keep fanning!
