Glitter #18, July 8, 2011, is the newsletter of Corflu Glitter, the 29th edition of what has become the World Trufandom Convention.

Edited by Arnie Katz

Glitter is available by request, but it may arrive unbidden, like the Spring's first weeds.

Glitter is also available as a free download at:
www.Corflu.org.

Shelby Vick to Speak at Corflu Glitter

Shelby Vick, the Corflu Fifty's recipient for 2012, will be featured on the convention's program. The long-time Big Name Fan will reminisce about some of the highlights and amusing sidelights of his 60-plus years in the hobby.

Who knows what nuggets of fanhistory will be revealed when I chat with Shelby in an informal interview as part of Saturday's formal program.

In related news, SheVy has just informed us that he will be accompanied by his daughter Cheryl Goode. Those lucky enough to attend Corflu Sunsplash will surely remember Cheryl; the rest of you have a treat in store.

The Corflu Glitter Pub Crawls

The use of the plural in the headline is correct, because it looks like Corflu Glitterati will be offered at least two of them, in addition to the Growlers at the Las Vegas Fandom Reunion Party on Friday evening in the main con suite.

JoHn Hardin looks forward to guiding fans on a tour of some of the better drinking establishments as do the team of Brenda Dupont and Laurie Forbes. We're hoping to schedule them for different evenings, so truly dedicated drinkers will be able to join both crawls if they wish.

Smoking at Corflu Glitter

Sunset Station Hotel & Casino tries to please both smokers and those who prefer to avoid the known danger of secondary smoke.

To summarize the situation, three of the four floors in the building that holds our meeting rooms and guests rooms are 100% non-smoking. That includes the floor on which Corflu Glitter's main Con suite is located. The smoking con suite, which will also have a supply of drinks and snacks, is on the smoking floor. (Reminder: the number of smoking guest rooms is limited. Reserve now to avoid later disappointment.)

It is possible to move between the hotel's main building and the one assigned to us without going through any smoking area. This may come in handy for those going to one of the hotel's many eateries. There is a shortcut through a well-ventilated and semi-open part of the casino if you can withstand a faint whiff of nicotine.

The bowling area is non-smoking, but there's a bar immediately behind the lanes where competitors and spectators can smoke while they drink.

Need a Corflu Roommate?

Publishing Glitter so frequently – this is the 18th in as many weeks – gives us the opportunity to do things that were hard, or even impossible, for past Corflus. One example is that, starting this issue, we'll try to help fans looking for a room-share find each other.

Anyone who has a Corflu Glitter membership can have a free roommate ad in Glitter and any fan, member yet or not, can use the e-mail address in an ad to firm up their accommodations for Corflu Glitter.

Roommate Wanted: Art Widner

Art Widner is seeking a roommate for Corflu for Thursday through Monday. The winner of the 2011 Lifetime Achievement Award has few “deal-breaker” requirements, though he would prefer a non-smoker. Art says “either gender” is fine with him and, though he didn’t elaborate, I suspect that all genders are actually fine.

If you’d like to snag a fine Corflu roomy, write to Art (bugr@mcn.org) and work out the details.

Still Time to Nominate for the 2012 Lifetime Achievement Award

The newly established set-up for the Lifetime Achievement Award is working well, but there are still many fans who haven’t sent their nomination.

Just hit “reply” on the email that brought you this Glitter, change the subject line to “LAA” and type the name of your choice in the letter; then hit “send.”

I’ll convey the names of the three fans who get the most popular support to the LAA Judging Committee, which makes the final selection. The committee is composed of the current Corflu chairman, the previous Corflu chairman, the current administrator of the Fan Achievement Awards, and the past recipients of the Lifetime Achievement Award.

A ‘Thank You’ from Arnie

I received an amazing number of birthday congratulations over the July 4th weekend. Thanks to all of you for making a happy occasion even more enjoyable with your show of good will and friendship.

That’s All for Now

Lots of stuff percolating, but that’s all we have room for this time. See you next week Meanwhile, keep fanning! — Arnie
