

C.S. Lewis and SF-guru Brian Aldiss founded OUSFG in the early 1960s, when the term ‘science fiction’ was deemed too disreputable by the university. We’re now glad of the broad scope that ‘speculative’ allows us. We’re a friendly, open group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other related genres, owing our longevity to our diversity of interests, activities and members. Meetings are held twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sundays (from Sun. 2nd week (16th Oct)) are reserved for library meetings, held from 8pm till late, in the rooms of our Librarians at Balliol’s Jowett Walk Building (note: this isn’t in the main Balliol site. It’s a short distance away on, unsurprisingly, the road named Jowett Walk). The termcard page on our website, <http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/> has full directions). These evenings are an opportunity for people to socialise and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing and borrowing from OUSFG’s library of over 2400 books.

Wednesdays alternate between author/discussion meetings and video meetings, both starting at 8pm. Author/discussion meetings are usually in Jesus College, Staircase XVIII, seminar Room A. Video meetings will be held in the video room of Hollywell Manor (which is on the corner of St Cross and Manor Roads (on the way to St Catz)). Both rooms will be signposted for the first meetings, and directions can be found on the termcard webpage.

Sunday 1st Week (9th Oct.): Freshers’ Drinks! This will be held in the bar at Hollywell Manor. Drop in any time between 4pm and 6pm (it’ll be signposted). Directions and a map can be found on our website (see above for the address). Come along and meet us for drinks & nibbles, an introduction, conversation and a spot of acclimatisation.

Wednesday 1st Week: The first discussion meeting of the term, ‘The OUSFG Award’. This will be the start of the 2nd annual award, which is for the best ‘speculative fiction’ novel published in paperback during the preceding year (i.e. October 2004 to September 2005 in this case). This will be a good introduction to OUSFG’s brand of discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don’t worry, no-one will be forced to speak!

Other discussion meetings this term include a Q&A session with author John Courtenay Grimwood, a talk about writing by author Juliet E. McKenna, and a discussion of time travel in books.

The video meetings this term (Wed. of 2nd, 4th, 7th weeks) are a mix of very different films. First there’s the recent adaptation of Douglas Adams’ The Hitchhiker’s Guide to the Galaxy, then Angel Heart and finally The Chronicles of Riddick.

We also hold occasional bonus video meetings during term. Usually on a Saturday, these are a chance to see something we wouldn’t have time to show at a regular video meeting. This term there’ll be the chance to see episodes of Firefly, the Joss Whedon TV series which is continued in the soon-to-be-released film Serenity.

Annual Special Events mark the end of each term. This term we have a Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the black-tie Banquet and Punt Party respectively.

There’s only so much you can fit on a flyer, and details are subject to change. The best way to be kept up to date is to join our low-traffic e-mail announcement list. You can find details of how to subscribe on our website at <http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg> The site also contains the full termcard, as well as loads of other information and fun bits. If you’ve any further questions, contact details for the committee can be found on the website. Hope to see you soon...

C.S. Lewis and SF-guru Brian Aldiss founded OUSFG in the early 1960s, when the term ‘science fiction’ was deemed too disreputable by the university. We’re now glad of the broad scope that ‘speculative’ allows us. We’re a friendly, open group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres, owing our longevity to our diversity of interests, activities and members. Meetings are held twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sundays (from Sun. 2nd week (16th Oct)) are reserved for library meetings, held from 8pm till late, in the rooms of our Librarians at Balliol’s Jowett Walk Building (note: this isn’t in the main Balliol site. It’s a short distance away on, unsurprisingly, the road named Jowett Walk). The termcard page on our website, <http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/> has full directions). These evenings are an opportunity for people to socialise and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing and borrowing from OUSFG’s library of over 2400 books.

Wednesdays alternate between author/discussion meetings and video meetings, both starting at 8pm. Author/discussion meetings are usually in Jesus College, Staircase XVIII, seminar Room A. Video meetings will be held in the video room of Hollywell Manor (which is on the corner of St Cross and Manor Roads (on the way to St Catz)). Both rooms will be signposted for the first meetings, and directions can be found on the termcard webpage.

Sunday 1st Week (9th Oct.): Freshers’ Drinks! This will be held in the bar at Hollywell Manor. Drop in any time between 4pm and 6pm (it’ll be signposted). Directions and a map can be found on our website (see above for the address). Come along and meet us for drinks & nibbles, an introduction, conversation and a spot of acclimatisation.

Wednesday 1st Week: The first discussion meeting of the term, ‘The OUSFG Award’. This will be the start of the 2nd annual award, which is for the best ‘speculative fiction’ novel published in paperback during the preceding year (i.e. October 2004 to September 2005 in this case). This will be a good introduction to OUSFG’s brand of discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don’t worry, no-one will be forced to speak!

Other discussion meetings this term include a Q&A session with author John Courtenay Grimwood, a talk about writing by author Juliet E. McKenna, and a discussion of time travel in books.

The video meetings this term (Wed. of 2nd, 4th, 7th weeks) are a mix of very different films. First there’s the recent adaptation of Douglas Adams’ The Hitchhiker’s Guide to the Galaxy, then Angel Heart and finally The Chronicles of Riddick.

We also hold occasional bonus video meetings during term. Usually on a Saturday, these are a chance to see something we wouldn’t have time to show at a regular video meeting. This term there’ll be the chance to see episodes of Firefly, the Joss Whedon TV series which is continued in the soon-to-be-released film Serenity.

Annual Special Events mark the end of each term. This term we have a Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the black-tie Banquet and Punt Party respectively.

There’s only so much you can fit on a flyer, and details are subject to change. The best way to be kept up to date is to join our low-traffic e-mail announcement list. You can find details of how to subscribe on our website at <http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg> The site also contains the full termcard, as well as loads of other information and fun bits. If you’ve any further questions, contact details for the committee can be found on the website. Hope to see you soon...

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (8th Oct), 4-6pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the bar at Holywell manor on St. Cross Road (signposted from the front door). Drop in for drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

The first discussion meeting of term: How to Build a Time Machine. In the Lady Brodie Room, St. Hilda's College (there will be directions from the lodge). Audience contributions encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (8th Oct), 4-6pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the bar at Holywell manor on St. Cross Road (signposted from the front door). Drop in for drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

The first discussion meeting of term: How to Build a Time Machine. In the Lady Brodie Room, St. Hilda's College (there will be directions from the lodge). Audience contributions encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, in the rooms of our Librarian at Hertford College. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing and borrowing from OUSFG's library of over 2,400 books. Every Sunday from 15th October.

Discussions and Videos

Wednesdays alternate between discussion meetings and video meetings, with the occasional talk by an author (this term Pat Cadigan, next term Alastair Reynolds) also starting at 8pm. Author/discussion meetings are usually in St. Hilda's Lady Brodie Room. Video meetings will probably be in Linacre College's TV room. This term we have a wide mix: V for Vendetta (3rd week), the comedy SF film Coneheads (5th week), Constantine (6th week), and finally Contact (8th week).

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the Banquet and Punt Party.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, in the rooms of our Librarian at Hertford College. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing and borrowing from OUSFG's library of over 2,400 books. Every Sunday from 15th October.

Discussions and Videos

Wednesdays alternate between discussion meetings and video meetings, with the occasional talk by an author (this term Pat Cadigan, next term Alastair Reynolds) also starting at 8pm. Author/discussion meetings are usually in St. Hilda's Lady Brodie Room. Video meetings will probably be in Linacre College's TV room. This term we have a wide mix: V for Vendetta (3rd week), the comedy SF film Coneheads (5th week), Constantine (6th week), and finally Contact (8th week).

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the Banquet and Punt Party.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (7th Oct), 4-7pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the Private Dining Room at St. Catherine's College, near the bar and JCR. Drop in for obligation-free drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Saving The World: Asteroid collisions? Greenhouse effect? Someday we might have to save the world for real. Luckily, SF has given us lots of ideas! Come along for a lively discussion in St Hilda's College Lady Brodie Room (directions from lodge). Audience contributions encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 14th October, in the shared house inhabited by our Librarians near Botley Road. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing and borrowing from OUSFG's library of over 2,400 books. Once you get your bearings in Oxford, it's very easy to find, but for the first few weeks, there will be a group walking there from the George Street Odeon at 7:30pm.

Discussions and Videos

Wednesdays alternate between discussion meetings and video meetings, with the occasional talk by an author (we're currently talking to Charlie Stross) also starting at 8pm. Author/discussion meetings are usually in St. Hilda's Lady Brodie Room, and video meetings are likely to be in the JCR TV room. This term we have the near-future Children of Men (2nd week), Outland (4th week), and a chance to recommend or request your favourite TV episodes in (7th week).

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the Banquet and Punt Party.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (12th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the MCR at St. Hilda's College, just to the right of the entrance and up the outdoor stairs. Drop in for obligation-free drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF/fantasy books most worth reading? Come along for a lively discussion in St Hilda's Sibthorpe Room (directions from lodge) and argue for your favourite book, or just for reading ideas – don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 19th October, in our librarian's room at 6/7 Holywell Street. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing and borrowing from OUSFG's library of over 2,400 books.

Discussions and Videos

Wednesdays alternate between discussion meetings and video meetings, starting at 8pm. We regularly have visiting speakers: SF author Charlie Stross will be coming in 8th week this term. Author/discussion meetings are usually in St. Hilda's, and video meetings are in New College. This term we have the futuristic classic, Blade Runner (2nd week), MirrorMask (4th week), and Wall-E (6th week).

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (11th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the Massey Room in Balliol College, which is at the far left corner of Garden Quad. Drop in for obligation-free drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion in New College (directions from our website). Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 18th October, in our librarian's room in Keble. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of over 2,400 books.

Discussions and Videos

Discussion and video meetings are held on Wednesdays from 8pm in New College. We regularly have visiting speakers: this term Frances Hardinge (one of many former OUSFG members turned famous author!), who wrote Verdigris Deep, Gullstruck Island and the award-winning Fly by Night, is coming in 7th week. Other discussion topics this term include the ever-popular philosophy in SF, and how aliens and their societies would really evolve. Movies this term are Watchmen (3rd week) and Coraline (5th week) – see our online termcard for more info!

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (10th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the Massey Room in Balliol College, which is at the far left corner of Garden Quad. Drop in for obligation-free drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion in Queen's College (directions from our website). Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 17th October, in our librarian's room in Balliol. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of over 1,400 books.

Discussions and Videos

Discussion and video meetings are held on Wednesdays from 8pm in Queen's College. We regularly have visiting speakers: this term Paul Cornell (TV writer whose SF credits include Dr. Who) is coming in 7th week. Other discussion topics this term include the ever-popular philosophy in SF, and the less-serious Gods in SF Death Match – come and support your favourite deity! Movies this term are 12 Monkeys (2nd week) and Alice in Wonderland (4th week) – see our online termcard for more info!

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (9th Oct), 3-5.30pm

Freshers' Drinks! In the Massey Room in Balliol College, which is at the far left corner of Garden Quad. Drop in for obligation-free drinks & nibbles, introductions and conversation!

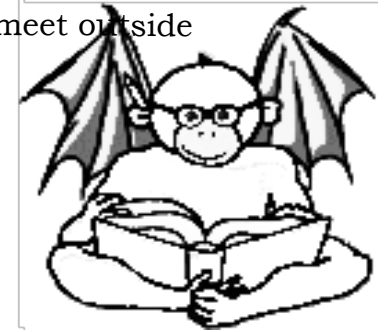

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything! Venue will be given at Freshers' Drinks and via the announcement list.

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 16th October, in our librarian's room in Pembroke, meet outside Pembroke at 8pm. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of over 1,400 books.

Discussions and Videos

Discussion and video meetings are held on Wednesdays from 8pm. We regularly have visiting speakers: this term Phillip Reeve (Author of the Mortal Engines Quadrilogy) is coming in 7th week. Other discussion topics this term include the ever-popular Zombie Apocalypse Survival corporate training evening, and a discussion about real Science that sounds as if it has been lifted straight from Fiction. Movies this term include Dark City – see our online termcard for more info!

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG

Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (7th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Cakes! In Wadham's New Seminar Room A, staircase 4 at the back-right corner of the main quad. Drop in for obligation-free CAKE (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week, 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything! The venue is still to be confirmed, but we'll let you know at Freshers' Cakes and also via the website and announcement list.

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 14th October, in our librarians' rooms in Univ, meeting outside Univ at 8pm. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of over 2000 books.

Discussions and Videos

Discussion and video meetings are held on Wednesdays from 8pm. Discussion meetings this term include an exploration of the Boundaries between SF and Fantasy, a collaborative story-writing evening, and the ever-popular Geek Craft session. Movies this term include Mirrormask and Repo! The Genetic Opera as our Hallowe'en special.

We regularly have visiting speakers: this year we're trying to arrange for the return of Charlie Stross (The Laundry, Merchant Princes etc.), and our last visiting author was Philip Reeve (best known for Mortal Engines).

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (13th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Cakes! In Wadham's New Seminar Room A, staircase 4 at the back-right corner of the main quad. Drop in for obligation-free CAKE (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week (16th Oct), 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion in the Wadham Old Seminar Room for our first regular meeting of term. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 20th October, in our librarian's room in Wadham, meeting outside college at 8pm. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of over 1500 books.

Discussions and Videos

Wednesday meetings start at 8pm, and venues depend on what we're up to. We usually alternate between video meetings and discussion meetings, where the latter range from debates or discussions of SF-related topics to geek craft evenings or story-writing workshops. We also have author meetings, and this term we're very excited to have Charlie Stross — author of The Laundry Files (Lovecraftian horror meets computer science), The Merchant Princes series (parallel worlds) and lots of other awesome stuff — coming to speak to us on Wednesday of 4th week (6th Nov).

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University
Speculative Fiction Group

OUSFG Science Fiction & Fantasy

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy SF, fantasy, horror and other genres. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (12th Oct), 3-6pm

Freshers' Cakes! In Wadham's New Seminar Room A, staircase 4 at the back-right corner of the main quad. Drop in for obligation-free CAKE (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, introductions and conversation!

Wed 1st Week (15th Oct), 8pm

Desert Planet Books: what are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along for a lively discussion in the Wadham Old Seminar Room for our first regular meeting of term. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late, every Sunday from 19th October, in our librarian's college room. These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 1000 books.

Discussions and Videos

Wednesday meetings start at 8pm, and venues depend on what we're up to. We usually alternate between video meetings and discussion meetings, where the latter range from debates or discussions of SF-related topics to geek craft evenings or story-writing workshops. We also have author meetings – past authors have included Phillip Reeve, author of the Mortal Engines (Hungry Cities) quartet and Charlie Stross, author of The Laundry Files.

Special Events

Special events mark the end of each term. This term is the Christmas Party, whilst Hilary and Trinity see the OUSFG Banquet and our Punt Party, complete with our very own traditional Punt Party Panto.

Directions

For full directions to venues, as well as loads of other information, visit our website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, horror and all things speculative. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (9th Oct) 3-6pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In Somerville. Drop in for obligation-free cake (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (12th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

In Pembroke. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

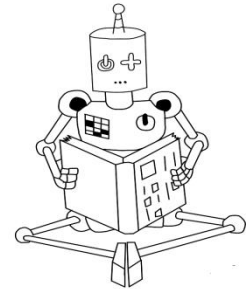

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room (or occasionally at a pub!). These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

Discussion and film meetings

Wednesday meetings also start at 8pm, and are held in either Pembroke or Somerville.

We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by our favourite collaborative storytelling event Tentacular Vikings (don't ask). In 3rd week we'll be watching The Rocky Horror Picture Show – fancy dress is far from compulsory but is very much encouraged!

Award winning author and ex-OUSFG president Frances Hardinge is coming to give a talk in 4th week!

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, horror and all things speculative. We meet twice a week during term, on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Sun 1st Week (9th Oct) 3-6pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In Somerville. Drop in for obligation-free cake (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (12th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

In Pembroke. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but don't feel you have to say anything!

Library

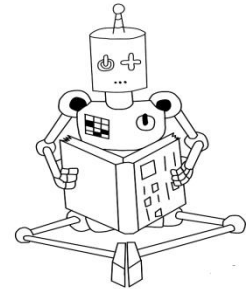

Sundays are library meetings, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room (or occasionally at a pub!). These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

Discussion and film meetings

Wednesday meetings also start at 8pm, and are held in either Pembroke or Somerville.

We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by our favourite collaborative storytelling event Tentacular Vikings (don't ask). In 3rd week we'll be watching The Rocky Horror Picture Show – fancy dress is far from compulsory but is very much encouraged!

Award winning author and ex-OUSFG president Frances Hardinge is coming to give a talk in 4th week!

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, horror and all things speculative. We usually meet on Wednesdays during term, and love visitors!

Sun 1st Week (8th Oct) 3-6pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In Somerville. Drop in for obligation-free cake (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (12th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

In Pembroke. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

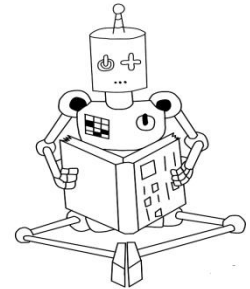

Library

Every now and again we host a Sunday library meeting, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room (or occasionally at a pub!). These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

Discussion and film meetings

Wednesday meetings also start at 8pm, and are held in either Pembroke or Somerville. We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by a discussion about Oxford in SF. In 3rd week we'll have both a library meeting and a collaborative story-writing event.

In 4th week we'll be watching Little Shop of Horrors for Our annual Halloween movie night!

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, horror and all things speculative. We usually meet on Wednesdays during term, and love visitors!

Sun 1st Week (8th Oct) 3-6pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In Somerville. Drop in for obligation-free cake (not a lie!), drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (12th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

In Pembroke. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

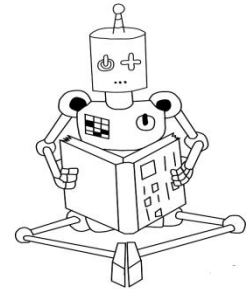

Library

Every now and again we host a Sunday library meeting, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room (or occasionally at a pub!). These evenings are an opportunity to socialise, and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

Discussion and film meetings

Wednesday meetings also start at 8pm, and are held in either Pembroke or Somerville. We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by a discussion about Oxford in SF. In 3rd week we'll have both a library meeting and a collaborative story-writing event.

In 4th week we'll be watching Little Shop of Horrors for Our annual Halloween movie night!

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our low-traffic email announcement list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, cult media and all things speculative.

Sat 0th Week (6th Oct) 2-5pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In SNSC Le May Room at Worcester. Drop in for obligation-free cake, drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (10th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

Location TBC. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

Discussion and film meetings

We meet every Wednesday at 8pm, mostly in Pembroke, Somerville or Worcester.

We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by a collaborative storytelling evening. This term among other things we will also be playing Werewolf (a fiendish and silly role-playing game), discussing Jasper Fforde's writing, and watching the fabulous "What We Do in the Shadows" for our Halloween event.

Library

Every now and again we also host a Sunday library meeting, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room or occasionally in the pub! These evenings are an opportunity to socialise and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our events mailing list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Or look for us on Facebook at @ousfg

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, cult media and all things speculative.

Sat 1st Week (6th Oct) 2-5pm:
Freshers' Cakes

In SNSC Le May Room at Worcester. Drop in for obligation-free cake, drinks, nibbles, and to meet the crew and fellow geeky freshers!

Wed 1st Week (10th Oct) 8pm:
Desert Planet Books

Location TBC. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

Discussion and film meetings

We meet every Wednesday at 8pm, mostly in Pembroke, Somerville or Worcester.

We're kicking off with Desert Planet Books, followed by a collaborative storytelling evening. This term among other things we will also be playing Werewolf (a fiendish and silly role-playing game), discussing Jasper Fford's writing, and watching the fabulous "What We Do in the Shadows" for our Halloween event.

Library

Every now and again we also host a Sunday library meeting, held from 8pm till late in our librarian's college room or occasionally in the pub! These evenings are an opportunity to socialise and chat about life, the universe and Everything, whilst also perusing OUSFG's library of around 600 books.

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our events mailing list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Or look for us on Facebook at @ousfg

Oxford University Speculative Fiction Group

We're a friendly, diverse group of people who enjoy sci fi, fantasy, and all things speculative.

Wed 1st Week (16th Oct)

Desert Planet Books

Pembroke, 8pm. What are the ten SF books most worth reading and why? Come along to our first regular meeting of term for a lively discussion. Audience contributions are encouraged, but no worries if you're feeling a bit shy!

For the full termcard, directions to venues and up-to-date information, visit the website and subscribe to our events mailing list.

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~ousfg/>

Or look for us on Facebook at @ousfg.