The Seventh Annual British Filk Convention held at
The Royal Cambridge Hotel, Cambridge
on
3rd-5th February 1995

Guests of Honour:

Joey Shoji
Philip Allcock

Information

Breakfast: is 8 – 10 in the Royal Cambridge Hotel, and 7:30 – 9 in the Lensfield Hotel.

Restaurants: are listed in the Programme Book, due to lack of space in the Read Me. So read it.

Checkout: please could you check out of the hotel by 11am on the morning of your departure. Luggage can be left in the Porter's room; ask at hotel reception.

Programme: The Prior Room has been set aside for spontaneous filk circles and the like. It is on the same floor as hotel reception, off to the left as you look at the stairs down to the Choir.

Dealers: the forces of Mammon are arrayed in the (K)nave, to one side of the Choir and in full view of the main programme. The opening hours will be posted when available on the boards upstairs.

Information: general info, maps and the like will be in the hotel lobby. Sign-up sheets for the concerts, request slips, rates and so forth will be held on the registration desk.

Taping: as ever, please try to be unobtrusive when taping performances, and please respect a performer's wishes if they ask you not to record them for any reason.

Thanks are due to SJ Research, Shape Data Ltd and ElectricMail Ltd for abuse of facilities; to Tom Nanson for the PR and Programme Book covers; to Mrs Rundle for loan of a printer; to the Flying Filk Fund for making it possible to bring Joey over; to the VIbraphone committee for services rendered (and giving us a hard act to follow); to all of you who contributed to this convention in whatever way; and especially to our Guests of Honour, without whom...

11:00 Concert: Church. Filks of hymns or about religion (any religion) will start our Sunday morning worship. Hitch will control the order of service; sign up with him or at registration.

12:00 Filk Fund Auction. Roger Robinson attempts to part you from your money, all in aid of bringing filkers across the Atlantic.

1:00 Desert Asteroid Filks. Sue Mason invites Robert Maughan to pick the filk songs that he would want if he was marooned on Asteroid M.

2:00 GoH: Phil Allcock. An hour of parodies and pathos from our home-grown Guest.

3:00 Gripe Session. The committee enter the confessional to seek absolution for their many sins. Just as long as you tell us what they are.

4:00 Concert: Computers. Steve Davies will be taking bookings for slots in this theme concert. See him or sign up at registration.

5:00 Concert: Critters. Trust a vet to want Little Fuzzy Animals. See Anne Whitaker or sign up at registration to get yourself a slot in this theme concert.

6:00 Closing Ceremony. In which the committee thanks the guests and promises not to do it again, whatever it was.

later I doubt we could stop you...
