

GRAND SF & F POLL

It being the 50th anniversary of the first SF convention ever we thought that it would be a good idea for a sizable number of fans to vote on their favorite SF and Fantasy books and films of all time. These are the books and films that you would not mind being castaway with on the proverbial desert asteroid. Just for fun you can also take three science fact or non-SF&F with you as well.

The results of this poll will be released to the Arts columns of the national press, SF specialist publications as well as the film companies and publishers concerned. Your vote therefore has a voice.

Ballots will be kept confidential.

Use block letters please.
