SATURDAY 7/11/92

- 10.00am IAN STEWART Scientific talk on the REAL science behind time travel. This promises to be fascinating, so make sure you're there bright-eyed and bushy-tailed.
- 11.15am BOOK AUCTION Once again the inimitable Rog Peyton will be attempting to (and probably succeeding in) parting you from your hard-won cash in return for some priceless (!) works of literature. Remember, it's all in aid of R.N.I.B.'s Talking Books for the Blind.
- 1.15pm PANEL Moderated by Linda-Claire Toal, Bob Shaw, Iain Banks and Tom Holt will discuss "Why is there so much humour in fantasy and not in sf, and does sf in fact lend itself to humour?" Be ready with your views as well.
- Iain has said if they run out of things to talk about (with THAT line up!), then they will tickle Linda-Claire, just thought we'd better warn her!
- 2.30pm MEETING The BSFA are holding a meeting, only members will be eligible to vote, so either join and partake of the fun, or you can take a short break.
- 3.00pm GoH INTERVIEW Storm prefers to be interviewed rather than giving a speech, so Graham Joyce will be doing the honours.
- 4.15pm PANEL "The Heirs of Tolkein Roadshow" Louise Cooper, Mike Jeffries and Rob Holdstock bring their tour to Novacon, and give us their thoughts on "the reasons for the massive explosion in the volume of fantasy published during the last ten years".

- 5.30pm FILM STRANGE INVADERS - see film notes in your programme book.
- 7.30pm MEETING
in the WAVERLEY
(6th floor) The Friends of Foundation's EGM, members only, so do consider joining and lending your support to this very worthy cause.
- 8.00pm PARTY Yes, another! Orbit's biennial bash arrives at Novacon.
Free booze (for a while anyway), Orbit authors will be in attendance; Which ones? Get down the corridor and find out.
- 9.30pm BREAK Whilst we clear up and set up the Disco, this is your chance to get the glad rags on ready to rock the night away.
- 10.00pm DISCO We do mean ROCK the night away, or whatever else you like to dance to, as long as it's not rap, jive bunny or anything else that clears the dance-floor.

And if you're still not tired, there's not only another all-night video show in the WAVERLEY (6th floor), there's an all night FILM show in the WROXTON featuring FROGS and
THE CAR - see film notes in your programme book.

SUNDAY 8/11/92

- 10.00am PANEL GoH Storm Constantine will discuss her Wraeththu books with Dr Jack Cohen (on the biological aspects) and Ellie Predota (on the sociological / anthropological aspects). Steve Jeffery will moderate, not an easy job with these lively minds; well worth getting up for!
- 11.15am ART AUCTION Rog Peyton, ably assisted by Chris Morgan, will be auctioning many of those works of art that have been exhibited on the second floor, (turn left on leaving the lift - rooms 204, 205 and 206). You did remember to go, didn't you?
- 1.15pm PANEL "What is it like to live with a creative person whilst they are creating?" Mark and Julia Smith (collectively Jonathan Wylie) and Mark Hewkin (Storm's husband) will spill the beans, moderator Chris Morgan.
- 2.30pm TAFF Current TAFF administrator Pam Wells will grill this year's candidates, Michael Ashley, Tony Berry, Abi Frost and Ashley Watkins (or their representatives) about their platforms.
- 3.45pm AWARDS CEREMONY Novas (did you win? did you vote?), also raffle prizes, a presentation to Talking Books for the Blind, and anything else that may occur to us.
- 5.00pm PANEL Rog Peyton, Pauline Morgan, Pete Weston and Roger Robinson will discuss your most popular books, based on the voting forms you all sent in. The result was heavily slanted towards the hard sf end of the field, perhaps we'll find out why,
- 6.15pm PANEL Collaborations, like them or hate them, this discussion by well known collaborators Mark and Julia Smith, Bob Shaw and Dave Hardy, moderated by Mr Cruttenden will tell us what it's like to be one.

7.30pm DEBATE

The Birmingham SF Group, represented by Helena Bowles and Jack Cohen, and the Aston University SF & Fantasy Society, will debate the motion that:

"This house believes that it is Man's duty, as the most highly evolved living organism on this planet, to pursue the goals of evolution to their maximum."

The University proposes, the Brum Group opposes, let battle commence!

8.45pm AUCTION

Got any money left? Good, come along and let Pam Wells have it for TAFF. She will be auctioning all kinds of items no self-respecting fan should be without.

7.??pm PEOPLE'S DISCO

As Pam's auction will last for as long as it takes, we can't pin down a starting time for this. It's hosted by Aston University, will finish when it finishes, so bring those tapes and be ready to bop 'til you drop (or words to that effect).

We hope you enjoy the programme. If you have any comments let Carol Morton (or any other Committee Member) know. We had a few suggestions this year which weren't entirely feasible, but that doesn't mean your comments are disregarded - we're already considering next year's Novacon!
