Programme Notes by Mike D Siddall

[All Programme items listed below will be in the Elgar Suite (see the plan on the back cover).

[However, please remember that the Programme continues before, after and between these scheduled items in Dave Lally's Programme Room. From about 5pm on Friday through to Sunday Dave Lally will strive to entertain you in the HEREFORD (bottom of the stairs from the lobby, next door to the Restaurant, facing the Con Tables). Check the flip chart by the door of the Hereford details.]

Friday 14 November

20:00 THE OPENING CEREMONY. ...the boys are back in town, oh, the boys are back in town. The Committee make it official, and welcome the Guest of Honour, Peter F Hamilton. (Not to mention launching the sale of the RNIB Raffle Tickets!)

20:30 THE UTOPIA/DYSTOPIA GAME. Well, what do the next few decades hold? Hosted by the debonair Mr Siddall, a team of purblind Optimists led by Mike Abbott and a bunch of miserable Pessimists prodded by Bernie Evans attempt to find out.

21:45 THE MUSIC QUIZ. Tim Stannard bravely attempts to answer that age-old question, what do fans know about music? Given the average fan's T-shirt collection it ought to be a lot but... well, we'll see.

23:00 THE TONY BERRY EXPERIENCE. Dave Hicks and fannish heart-throb Mike Siddall pay tribute to one of the Giants of modern Fandom. Using the medium of the comedy revue and a cast of thousands (most of whom will be small, covered in chocolate, and orange-flavoured) they will demonstrate that you too may achieve Berrydom, or at least have it thrust upon you.

[This could be followed by a People's Disco - if you have the tapes/CDs and the energy we have the equipment and Mr Siddall's butt!]

Saturday 15 November

10:00 DESERT ISLAND BOOKS. Ever been struck by the thought that Desert Island Disks is silly? Sod the music, what books couldn't you do without? Maureen Kincaid Speller finds out from her guests - Paul Kincaid, Dave Langford and Mark Plummer. Worth attending just to see Maureen in a life-or-death struggle with a drink with an umbrella in it.

11:30 BOOK AUCTION. As per tradition, forget all that caveat emptor rubbish and let your bibliophilic instincts run wild. The RNIB's Books for the Blind

(who get 10% commission) want your money, and you want all those horrible gaps in your collection filled, perfect symmetry.

13:30 WORLDCON UPDATE. KIM Campbell brings you all the latest news on the nascent Worldcon bid. Be enthused, be inspired, be appalled if you like, but be there.

15:00 GUEST OF HONOUR INTERVIEW. Delight as the private thoughts and hidden agendas are cruelly torn from the breast of our poor, defenceless, Guest of Honour Peter F Hamilton by the infamous Julian Headlong. Wallow as his innermost feelings are ruthlessly exposed for the gratuitous gratification of the howling mob (that's you, that is).

16:30 TURKEY READING FOR TAFF. Yes it's an old favourite, but this time we have a secret weapon, THE FIELD GUIDE TO EXTRATERRESTIALS (with illustrations via OHP and expert analysis from Dr Jack Cohen). Plus all the usual chaos and ruthless mangling of deathless prose.

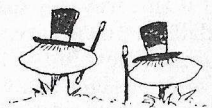

18:00 FLUKE. Hosted by the delectable Pam Wells (assisted by the delicious KIM Campbell). Using the device of a game-show based on the TV version, Ms Wells will demonstrate once and for all that the universe is not only cruel, but completely arbitrary.

19:00 TAFF HUSTINGS: EUROPE TO NORTH AMERICA 1998. If you can think of more fun than watching all those leading fannish luminaries standing for TAFF grovel shamelessly for the favour of little old you, then you should have submitted it as a programme item. Featuring the 1998 candidates: Chris Bell, Bridget "Bug" Hardcastle and Maureen Kincaid Speller, with the current (token male) European TAFF Administrator, Martin Tudor, moderating.

20:30 MR & MRS FANZINE CO-EDITORS. Dave Hicks and fannish heart-throb Mike Siddall pop the questions to the a few couples, including Mr & Mrs ATTITUDE (Michael Abbott, John Dallman, Pam Wells) and Mr & Mrs CRITICAL WAVE (Steve Green, Martin Tudor).

21:30 CEILIDH. 2Kon Bid Committee proudly presents the Amazing Travelling Ceilidh Tape_(TM). Get up! Bounce around! Let your Celtic blood express itself! It's been six years since the ATCT_(TM) was last at Novacon, but we'll help you out with any dances you don't know. (NB this being a Celtic thing, there's, sadly, little chance of seeing Mike Siddall's magnificent butt in motion).

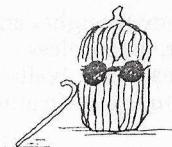

23:30 'til late. TIM STANNARD'S DISCO. A chance not only to dance and party but also, should you be supremely fortunate, to see the Siddall butt in motion. You'll never forgive yourself if you miss it.

MAGIC MUSHROOMS

Sunday 16 November

10:00 FIGMENTS OF REALITY. Dr Jack Cohen and Ian Stewart discuss some of the ideas in their latest book, on the evolution of consciousness.

BLIND DATE

11:30 ART AUCTION. You've been admiring them in the Art Show, now's your chance to get in there and purchase some art for yourself. Bring your wallet and/or purses - Chris Morgan will be happy to help you lighten them.

13:30 SF DETECTIVES. Murder One, the specialist book-shop in London, has its entire basement devoted to SF. Should this surprise us? Or are the detective novel and SF naturally compatible genres? Carol Morton moderates the discussion between Steve Green, Peter F Hamilton and Julian Headlong.

14:30 FUTURE LAW. The Law is always changing, but what's a good guess as to how present day developments will spin off onto future offences? Wendy Graham assembles a panel of lawyers, including Lilian Edwards and Tim Stannard, to answer the question, and Tony Morton, our Treasurer, thanks God they're not charging us an hourly rate.

15:30 SECOND ENDINGS. Presented by ReConvene and chaired by Peter Wareham. You've just reached a crucial point in the book you're reading, when you find out the remaining pages are all blank. Bridget Hardcastle, Austin Benson, Kate Solomon and Paul Dormer attempt to fill in the blanks.

16:30 AWARDS CEREMONY. Presentation of the Novas Awards, the raffle is drawn, thank-yous are said... but it's not over yet!

17.30 UNITED FAN FUNDS AUCTION. Alison Scott and her team of little elves pummel your poor, abused little wallets into submission. Don't worry, you will enjoy it... probably... possibly... look, just turn up.

20:00-23.00 THE BAVARIAN SCHUNKLERS. Beer and Sausages - can the world ever have seen two such complementary terms? With added Oompah band (doing three 40-minute sets). Put it this way, the queue forms behind Mike Siddall (there you are, Last Chance to See Fandom's Finest Butt). If you haven't yet booked your sausages some places are left - give your name(s) and £2.50 to Carol Morton at the Novacon Registration table (by the head of the stairs in the lobby).

General Information

Novacon Table: The Novacon Registration table will be open:

Friday: 2pm-7.30pm and 8.30pm-10pm N27 Registrations ONLY.

Saturday: 10am-3pm and 4.30pm-8pm All Novacon/BSFG business

Sunday: 11am-4pm and 5.30pm-7pm All Novacon/BSFG business

From Saturday morning onwards the table will be: selling a variety of Novacon merchandise and publications from previous Novacons; selling tickets for Sausages at the Sausage and Oompah Evening (£2.50 per person); selling memberships to Novacon 28 (just £25.00 at Novacon 27, rising to £28.00 after the con); raffle tickets in aid of the RNIB's Books for the Blind Project; taking money for the Birmingham SF Group's Beer & Skittles evening.

Gophers: If you have volunteered to be a gopher or if you wish to volunteer please report to CHRIS MURPHY in the Ops Room (this is the Cloakroom, behind/beyond the bar in the Elgar Suite). If you have volunteered or wish to volunteer to help in the Book Room please report to NIGEL FURLONG in the Shaw (if you are facing the reception desk turn left and head down the corridor to the end).

As we went to press we were still looking for willing gophers to:

- keep the space between the Elgar's programme area and the adjacent bar clear, to reduce noise and congestion. (This doesn't mean having to act like Judge Dredd, just being polite and persistent.)
- Staff the Operations Room, which tends to become a repository for all kinds of stuff which is bound to be wanted at a moment's notice.
- Help set up and clear away for programme items.
- Remind people entering the Book Room not to take in food or drink.
- Generally assist with running the con - 'go-pher this and go-pher that'.
- Go out with Mike Siddall. [This appears to have been added to the bottom of Chris's list in a different hand....]

The Bar: Both the main bar in the Abbey and the bar in the Elgar will be serving real ale in the form of Sarah Hughes Pale Amber Ale (4% ABV) - as this has been ordered by Novacon and sales guaranteed by the con we would appreciate you drinking it all - it is also the cheapest beer at £1.80 per pint!

Other beers on offer are Tetleys keg at £2.00 per pint and Stella Artois at £2.20 a pint. Coffee is available over the bar for 80p per cup.

Raffle: If you wish to purchase tickets for the annual raffle in aid of RNIB's Books for the Blind Project, they will be on sale around the con and from the Novacon Registration table - Saturday onwards. In a change from established tradition, prizes will not be given out as the draw is made at the Award Ceremony. Instead prizes will be available for collection from a table set up near the Elgar bar after the ceremony.

Cashpoints: Leave the Abbey Hotel through the main doors to the road, turn right, through the Gatehouse arch, continue straight on to the junction, passing the Post Office, cross the road and continue straight on for Link machines, turn right and head down the hill for most other banks.

No Smoking: We would appreciate it if you refrained from smoking in designated "No Smoking" areas such as: the Shaw/Book Room (apart from dealers), the Worcester/Art Show, the Warwick Lounge, the Lounge Area facing the Hotel Reception Desk and the right hand side of the Programme section of the Elgar (that being the right as you face the stage, the side nearest the windows to the car park).

Erratum: SF BLUES has been cancelled due to the death of Margaret Aldiss last week (as we go to press). If you wish to sign a card to Brian and his family please see Carol Morton at the Novacon registration table (in the lobby at the head of the stairs).

Please note that Dave Lally's programme will be in the Hereford and not the Montgomery (as appears in the Programme Book). The Hereford is downstairs from the lobby, next to the entrance to the Restaurant and opposite the Con Tables.

Many thanks to WENDY GRAHAM for agreeing to be "Nic Farey" our Tech Ops Boss for the weekend. Unfortunately, just a week before the con, Nic discovered that "real life" work commitments would prevent him honouring his commitment.

Dire Warnings: Please remember that the Abbey Hotel is in the business of selling accommodation, drink and food for profit. Neither the management of the Abbey nor the Novacon committee will approve of people "crashing" in rooms they haven't paid for, and/or smuggling food/drink into the hotel. The Novacon committee will obviously support the hotel in any dispute with members of Novacon caught "crashing" and/or "smuggling".

Committee: Martin Tudor (Chairman & Publications), Carol Morton (Registrations & Hotel Liaison), Tony Morton (Treasurer), Chris Murphy (Operations) and Mike D Siddall (Programme).

Staff: Wendy Graham (Tech Ops), Nigel Furlong (Book Room), John Harrold (Art Show), Al Johnston (Transport), Dave Lally (the Dave Lally Programme Room).

Thanks: To the contributors - Dave Mooring (for all interior artwork/cartoons and the cover), Mike D Siddall (for his programme notes and "adverts"), Forbidden Planet (for their advert and carrier bags), and to everyone who has worked on and at the convention.

Novacon 28

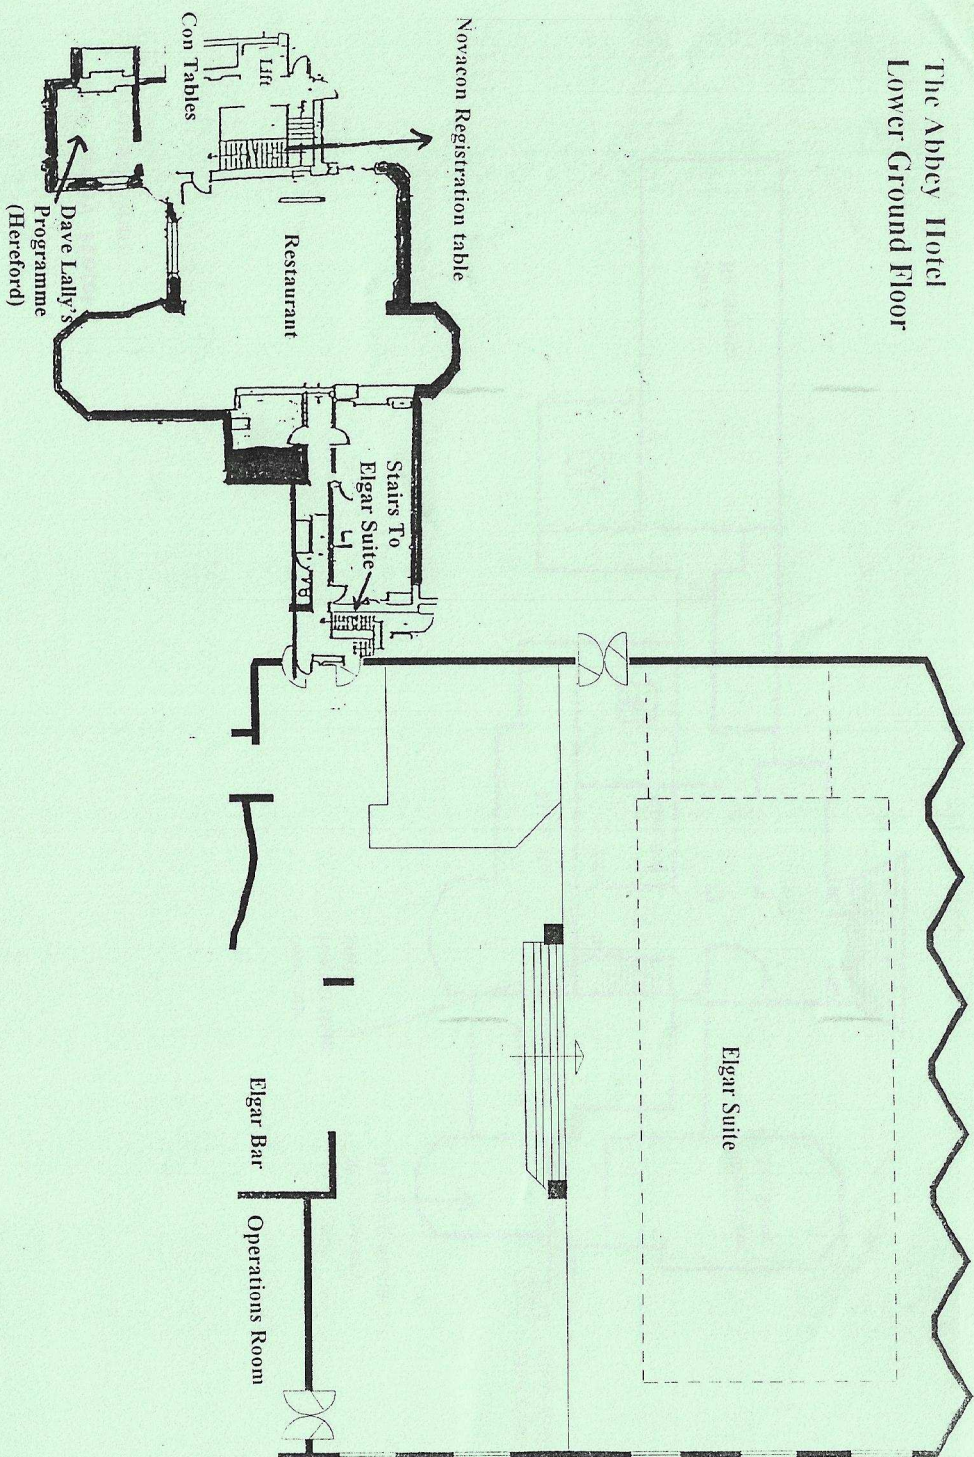

Novacon 28 will be held over the weekend 13-15 November 1998, and we are delighted to announce that our Guest of Honour is Paul J McAuley.

Currently we are still negotiating with several hotels in the Midlands area and we hope to announce our venue in Progress Report #1 later this year. For further details please complete the flyer in your programme package.

Attending membership costs just £25.00 at Novacon 27, rising to £28.00 after the con and probably rising again after Easter 1998. Cheques should be made payable to "Novacon28" and either passed to Carol Morton at the Novacon Registration table or posted to: Novacon 28, 14 Park Street, Lye, Stourbridge, West Midlands, DY9 8SS.

This publication was produced by Martin Tudor for Novacon 27, November 1997, on behalf of the Birmingham Science Fiction Group and was printed by Critical Wave Publications, 24 Ravensbourne Grove, Willenhall, WV13 1HX.
