Words from Our Chair...

by TONY BERRY.

Here is the always-thrilling PR3, full of things you need to know, like "What colour is the carpet in the bar? Have the bedrooms got windows? Does the hotel have electricity?" No idea, but if you've never been to a Novacon before, here's what to expect: A Dealers' Room where you can spend your money, a Book Auction where you can spend your money, an Art Show and Auction where you can spend your money, and a bar where you can gaze at the beer you can't afford cos you're skint. Unless of course you bring some of your own unwanted books along to be sold in the auction, then you can afford to drink (the convention takes 10% of the proceeds from both auctions).

Apart from that, there's a Programme of Events including panels, talks, silly games, the Guest of Honour spot, and the pub quiz on Saturday night. More on that later. Sunday evening sees the usual wind-down party of International Beer Tasting and Hot Food. To get the beer free, you need to contribute at least THREE bottles of British or foreign beer (the more unusual the better) which you check in to Registration when you arrive and receive a Beer Badge in return. Or you can buy a badge for £5.00. Only people with beer badges can drink the beer (including a barrel of real ale), but soft drinks will be available free to all. As our Guest of Honour is Scottish, the hot food will be of a Scottish theme. Again you MUST buy a ticket from Registration if you wish to partake of the food. This is a special event by agreement with the hotel, and does not mean that you can bring your own food or drink into the convention.

If you want to help out at the con, we need GOPHERS to ensure the smooth running of things (when the entire committee is drunk or can't be found). In return for your efforts you'll receive Groats (gopher reward tokens) which can be spent over the bar.

There is no formal CRECHE this year, but the room will be available with useful stuff in it (cages, chains...) if parents want to make their own arrangements.

We still want your old convention PHOTOS on CD to show on the TV in the dealers' room, since this proved quite popular last year. We won't have anyone sitting under the screen this time! And that's about it; see you there.

FRIDAY NIGHT, SATURDAY MORNING

Some years ago, for the final PR, I produced guidance imploring tired, perspiring fans to not bother with a shower before hitting the convention. Dear Lord, someone thought I was serious. Now I'm a health and safety officer out in the world, I'd like to remind all of you to first sanitise thoroughly by applying to your whole body the special mix of DDT, swarfega and Old Spice from the communal vat, and then to don your armoured boots and special Kevlar underwear with the security lock that won't open until Monday. It'll liven up Wendy Graham's traditional Sunday night underpants survey, if nothing else. Certainly nothing else.

Or perhaps not. Perhaps planning to move house a week before running a convention has turned my mind (such as it is). Please make sure to register on arrival.

The convention will open, as usual at 7.00 pm when the committee will introduce this year's splendid Guest Of Honour, Ken MacLeod. Ken should be known to many of you, as a regular on the British convention scene, but that makes him all the better for Guest. He's a man who pulls off the difficult trick of having strong opinions while remaining approachable and good company. Ken has a reputation as "political" too. We're not going to press that point (although we won't pretend it's not there), but we like the writer, the imagination and the style.

We'll follow the opening with a panel that starts with space opera, perhaps the most traditional staple of the genre, and why we still want to write – and read – it. Is it more a case these days that writers are asking what the Universe will do to us – how it will change us and how we'll change ourselves – than we'll do to it?

Mid-evening we host a book launch featuring the charismatic Storm Constantine. Come along and find your friends in the programme room and enjoy the hospitality.

Later we're still working on the entertainment. It'll be fabulous. It'll be amusing. It'll run until late and give you something to argue about when you get back to the bar.

The rest of the weekend, we'll endeavour to mix the amusing, the literate and the novel. Remember the pub quiz on Saturday night, too. It'll be your chance to shine. Although we recognise the innate intellectual modesty and disdain for trivia of our membership, you'll enjoy it. And while there's no disco (at no extra charge), we've been approached by someone who's reached the prime of life (a gentleman does not mention a lady's age) about celebrating their birthday with some music and dancing late that night. There isn't a dance floor, as such. What do you think we build the stage out of every year?

How to Get There:

By Car

The hotel is right next to J10 of the M6 but is not visible from the motorway.

From the North exit at J10 and turn right heading for Wolverhampton but DO NOT enter the left hand lane. (This will take you down the Black Country Route which you don't want and it is a long way to the next roundabout!)

Stay in the right-hand lane to the traffic lights and take the second exit signposted "Buses and Hotel" and then immediately the first right into what looks like a small service road. Follow this and you will come to the hotel.

Go in through the car park barrier. When you leave remember to pick up an exit token from reception.

From the South, come off at J10 and keep to the right-hand lane. Stay in lane as you go up the slip-road to the lights. Then follow directions as above.

By Public Transport

The fares on all local buses are £1.10. Exact change is required on the buses listed. Taxi fares are approximate.

By Train via Wolverhampton

The nearest intercity station to the hotel is Wolverhampton. Exit Wolverhampton station on to Railway Drive where you can pick up a taxi to the Quality Hotel (at J10 of the M6 in Bentley).

Expect to pay about £7.00 for a journey of about 10 minutes. If no taxis are available try Associated Taxis on (01902) 425591.

There is also the 529 bus to the hotel. Most of the vehicles on this route are wheelchair/buggy friendly with "kneeling suspension". They run every six minutes during the day and every twenty minutes in the evening. Walk past the taxi rank down Railway Drive to the clock and turn left past the bus station. Cross at the first crossing and continue through the rows of shelters until you find stand F on the right. The 529 takes about twenty minutes depending on traffic. Get off after the Lane Arms pub and walk past some houses towards the motorway junction bearing left down the Wolverhampton Road West access road to the hotel.

By Local Train via Walsall

Exit the station following signs to the taxi rank on Station Street. The five minute journey should cost about £6.00.

Alternatively walk down Station Street past the side of Marks and Spencers to Park Street and cut through Butler's Passage (the alleyway near Littlewoods) to St. Paul's Bus Station and catch the 529 from stand M. (See above for details).

By Bus from Birmingham

Catch the 51 from Carrs Lane (facing the side of Marks and Spencers) in Birmingham to St Paul's Bus Station in Walsall. The 51 runs every seven minutes during the day and every twenty minutes in the evening. The journey lasts approximately forty minutes. Disembark at stand G and cross the bus station to stand M where you will catch the 529. Follow earlier details.

By Bus from Sutton Coldfield

Catch the 366 from Lower Parades. The journey will take about 35-40 minutes. Disembark at Walsall (stand G) and cross the bus station to stand M where you catch the 529. Follow earlier details.

From the Airport

Birmingham New Street Station is only ten minutes away by train from Birmingham International. A shuttle bus called Air Rail Link connects the Airport directly to Birmingham International Station. This runs approximately every ten minutes from outside Terminal 1 (Main Terminal) and International Station. It is a two minute journey and free of charge. From New Street you can pick up trains to either Walsall or Wolverhampton and follow instructions from there. The 966 service from Bus Stop H links Walsall. Follow earlier instructions for "By Coach..."

I have endeavoured to get as up-to-date information as possible. If there are any problems or changes I am unaware of, please let me know at the Convention.

MONEY!

Please ensure you bring enough "walking around" cash with you as the nearest local cash point (a fifteen minute walk to the local Spar) charges a fee.

THE HOTEL DOES NOT POSSESS A CASH MACHINE.

The background is a stylized space scene with a large nebula on the left, several planets (including Saturn), and orbital paths. CONVENTION INFORMATION

ART SHOW

The Art show will be run by Vicky Cook. If you are planning to exhibit please contact her at:

5 Greenbank,
Barnet Green,
Birmingham
aunico@hotmail.com

The CDRom Art show will also be running. If you wish to exhibit in this format your work should be sent to Steve Lawson (address and e-mail on p2 under “Committee”).

DEALERS’ ROOM

This year the Dealers’ Room is being run by Tony Berry. Cost for a table for the weekend at 6ft x 2ft 6ins is £20.00. You must be a convention member to hire a table.

AUCTIONS

Novacon runs two auctions each year: the Art auction which sells the paintings/prints etc that you’ve been admiring in the art show all weekend but don’t forget the BOOK AUCTION! Got books you no longer want/can’t keep due to lack of shelf/floor/stair room? Bring them along and we’ll auction them for you! Convention takes a 10% cut in both cases.

RNIB Raffle

As usual we will be selling raffle tickets to raise money for the RNIB’s “Talking Books for the Blind” project. Winning numbers will be posted by Registrations after the awards ceremony.

2006 Nova Awards

Steve Green, Administrator

Since 1973, the Nova Awards have celebrated the British science fiction fanzine; more recently, this has been expanded to include Irish fanzines and categories introduced for the writers and artists featured. The twenty-fourth annual Nova Awards ceremony will take place at Novacon 36 on Sunday, 12 November.

Voting is open to any member of Novacon 36 who has read at least six eligible fanzines published between 1 October 2005 and 30 September 2006. The form enclosed with this progress report includes a list of eligible fanzines I'm aware of, plus details of how to vote by post or e-mail if you are unable to attend Novacon or would prefer to cast your ballot before heading for Walsall.

The number of members taking part increased by 50% last year so, vote early, vote often! (Well, maybe just the once...)

Birmingham Science Fiction Group

THE BIRMINGHAM SCIENCE FICTION GROUP was founded in 1971 to enable local and not so local fans to get together to discuss science fiction and related topics.

We meet on the second Friday of every month, 7:45pm at the Britannia Hotel. Just 5 Minutes from New Street Station and handy for all bus routes. We usually start the evening with a guest speaker, often a professional in the field such as Brian Aldiss, Terry Pratchett or Peter F. Hamilton.

If you live anywhere in or around the West Midlands, the BSFG is the Group for you. For further information, and a copy of our monthly newsletter, please:
