MARCH, 8th & 9th, 1997

HELLO OUT THERE IN THE WORLD

HELLO L.A.

Hereby we would like to invite you to the

SCIENCE FICTION DAYS of Nordrhine Westphalia in GERMANY

March, 8th & 9th, 1997

This time (we celebrate the 9th!) we aren't in Düsseldorf but we say:

BIGGER, FINER, HIGHER, BETTER!

Therefore we will meet this time on the 18 floors of the brandnew

HARENBERG CITY CENTER
KOENIGSWALL 21
44137 DORTMUND
GERMANY

(across from Dortmund main train station)

This is YOUR chance to visit Germany. The river Rhine is only 80 kilometers apart from Dortmund. Make a trip on a Rhine boat and look out for the Loreley and all the Rhine castles. Or visit Cologne and Düsseldorf with their old city centers and drink some good Alt-beer or Kölsch-beer.

The HARENBERG city center with it's super hyper technic futuristic ambience absolut excellent traffic links will be a place for a wonderful con.

But the new location is not the only innovation. For we haven't had that many Guests of Honor at our convention:

WOLFGANG HOHLBEIN

Germany's most famous fantasy author

STEPHEN BAXTER

This year's Hugo nominee

MARK BRANDIS

German Science Fiction author of books for young people

JOHANNES VON BUTTLAR

German ufologist

ERICH VON DÄNIKEN

Swiss most famous ufologist

IAN MC DONALD

British science fiction author

... and many more

AND OF COURSE ALL FRIENDS OF SCIENCE FICTION...

And we plan - for the first time - a minimum of 3 program schemes for the complete 2 days.

Apart from the traditional story workshops, the author's interviews and talks we plan a movie night, countless talks (we will serve Pils-beer and no Alt-beer or Kölsch-beer) and panel discussions.

We will have for the first time the science fiction author's marathon NRW from saturday till sunday - nonstop!

Further we try to organize the biggest science fiction dealer's room throughout Germany. We still have got hundreds of squaremeters ready for you.

For the dealer's room please contact Carsten Schäfer, +49 (0) 231 / 4 94 01 03.
