SATURDAY NIGHT EVENTS Harbor II & III

8:00 pm - The Boskone Chorale: Presenting Jordin Kare's "Fire in the Sky."

8:10 p.m. - NESFA Awards Presentation: The New England Science Fiction Association (NESFA) presents its annual Skylark and Gaughan Awards. The Skylark Award honors the work and personal qualities of an exceptional contributor to science fiction. The Gaughan Award is presented to a talented emerging artist. We will also be announcing the winner of the NESFA Short Story Contest.

8:40 p.m. - Special Interview: The Rapid-Fire Theater continues with a short interview, featuring bestselling children's author Tui Sutherland.

9:05 p.m. - What's My Name?: Panelists race against the clock in a science fictional guessing game that somewhat resembles "What's My Line?" as a panel of experts try to identify the characters being portrayed.

9:45 p.m. - Boskone Radio Play: Boskone's Rapid-Fire Theater comes to an out-of-this-world conclusion with a free adaptation of Murray Leinster's "First Contact" as radio play by Nat Segaloff about humanity's first contact with aliens. Performers include David G. Grubbs, Bruce Coville, Nat Segaloff, Bob Kuhn, Jen Gunnels, Erin Roberts, William Havashi and Laurie Mann

FREE BOOKS FREE

Due to the generosity of members, Boskone this year is giving away an unusually large number of books, both SF and non-fiction. The books are laid out on both sides of the escalators in the Galleria escalator lobby; they will not be going back to the NESFA clubhouse, so please look on both sides and take whatever interests you.

XENOLINGUISTIC TRANSLATION HELP NEEDED

Friday evening the formerly bare panels along the far left side of the Consuite were suddenly filled with light. It might appear to be a freeform sculpture, but a Boskone member immediately suggested it might perhaps instead be a message from an unknown alien species.

What do you think? If it's a message, what alien language is it in and what does it say? Please send your translation to helmuth@boskone.org or leave it in the Helmuth submission box at the Info/Volunteers desk in the Galleria. Thanks!--

ACCESS AT BOSKONE

We have an Access area as part of Information and Volunteers this year. We added Access information to the Website (<http://www.boskone.org/about/access/>) and have been working to make it easier for everyone to enjoy Boskone.

We have reserved a few seats in the front row of each panel for people who have limited hearing or vision, and have taped out areas in each function room for mobies and wheelchairs. Many function rooms also have extra open space in the back.

We have checked areas and adjusted tables and chairs to ensure people using mobies can more easily get through. If anyone notices any spots that are difficult to navigate or identifies other issues that Access should be aware of, please drop an E-mail to access@boskone.org or stop by the Information/Volunteers/Access table in the Galleria.
