Art Show - Phoenix Ballroom

As always, the art show will be one of the highlights of LepreCon. It will open for artists at 9 a.m. and to the general convention attendees at 12 noon Friday. The show is rapidly filling up with outstanding artists from around the country.

We will be asking all bidders to register this year, as we are trying out the NASFiC computer system. So please stop by the control table for your form.

Registration

Registration will open from 10 a.m. Friday until at least 5 p.m. When Registration is closed badges and memberships will be available in Operations. Membership rate is $20 through June 1 and then $25.

Volunteers

It's time once again to say "help!" We need people to take one step forward and volunteer. If that's not your style, drop a note to Ken Lemons, 1432 S. Stanley, Tempe, AZ 85281 or come by Operations at the convention. We always a few good fans to work the con. If you have any talents, experience, or a desire to work a particular area—let us know! We particularly need people to help collate the program book (probably Tues. or Wed. before the con) and set up the art show (Thurs. or Fri. a.m. Call 838-6873 for exact times.) The more the merrier.

Movies - Curtis Room

As usual there will be an outstanding movie selection at LepreCon. Including old favorites like War of the Worlds and Ev. Stargate, as well as newer releases like Alien and Star Wars.

Dear LepreCon 13 Members,

LepreCon 13 approaches! So we thought you might like an update. Please understand that these plans are far from complete. Wild and wonderful things are still in the works.

Programming Notes

To be prepared for LepreCon 13 program events, bring your interest in all things pertaining to science fiction and fantasy. From comics as art to the commercial uses of space, we'll be trying to interest everyone.

Alan Gutierrez, noted cover artist, will be demonstrating airbrush and innovative art techniques in a "hands on" workshop. Participation will be limited. For early registration and a list of needed materials, contact Mariann Sutton, 3801 W. Rue de Lamow, Phoenix, AZ 85029 or (602) 978-3013 (after 5 p.m. only).

Bone up on your trivial knowledge and recruit a team for the Trivial Pursuit Tournament. This competition (not to be confused with the Trivia Bowl) will be based on all editions of the popular board game. Teams of up to four should sign up in the convention registration area. Competition begins Fri. June 5 - 8 p.m.

Other extras planned are a pun contest (to incorrigible our incorrigibles), a dance after the Masquerade, and Apple Macintosh demonstrations. G. Harry Stine will lecture on the commercial uses of space; there will be a guided tour of the art show (after hours); and a variety of pros and fans will discuss moving from amateur to professional status, practical costuming, and running play-by-mail games.

Programming events begin at 1 p.m. Friday. Saturday and Sunday there will be two tracks starting at 10 a.m. Come to LepreCon 13 and take advantage of all that's offered. (Who knows you might even meet an Extra-Terrestrial or a new friend.)
