A SCIENCE FICTION COLLECTOR'S GUIDE TO TWIN CITIES USED BOOKSTORES (AND LIKE THAT)

by Denny Lien

This guide was produced for distribution at Minicon 34, for the use and amusement of its members and especially of Dave Nee, its Bookseller Guest of Honor. The compiler claims no copyright—"Information wants to be free"—and grants permission for others to make such use of it as they will (though proper acknowledgement and a copy of any reprint would be appreciated).

The following is an attempt to list local sources for used sf, fantasy and horror books and magazines, with some limitations:

- (1) With a couple of exceptions, I have not included mail-order-only dealers;
- (2) I've not included general antique stores (except for one or two which advertise in the yellow pages as book specialists); most antique stores will include a few books in their stock, but I've almost never found anything of sf interest there—feel free to prove me wrong;
- (3) I've also left out comic book stores and general "nostalgia" stores which may include a few books on basis of superhero or TV tie-ins (but again, in my own experience, not often enough to encourage me to check them out);
- (4) By my definition, Anoka and Burnsville are "local," while (say) Northfield, Stillwater, and St. Cloud are not—though I'll likely expand there if I do a revised edition of this for a future Minicon. For stores with definable sf/f sections, I provide an eyeball estimate of total such footage; for smaller stores (especially thrift stores) without such a section, I provide an eyeball estimate of total book stock.

While the focus of this guide is on used and remainder book stores, I include at the end a bare-bones address and phone listing as well for larger new bookstores in the area.

With two exceptions (which are noted), I visited each store detailed below within the last six months; all hours, price, and stock information is based on my latest visit and is, obviously, subject to change.

I have a bias in favor of bookstores which are well-lit, well-organized, and smokefree, with pricing system and/or individual prices clearly marked, with reasonably wide aisles, and (above all) with shelves that contain only a single line of books—as opposed to double-stacking, which requires a browser to remove the books in front to see the spines of those behind them. But maybe that's just me, and someone else with more patience (and who is not a big guy with bad knees and weak eyes) may want to take some of the critical notes below as a Good Thing—disorder increases the chances that treasures may have evaded previous browsers who gave up too soon.

I also have a bias against signs that indicate a shaky or worse knowledge of the use vs. misuse of such things as apostrophes and quotation marks, and especially against signs that use science fiction's slave name (that vile term that rhymes with "hi-fi"); again, maybe that's just me—though I hope not. In any case, all opinions, explicit or implicit, below can be blamed on me (as, of course, can all errors); no opinions should be construed as being those of Minicon, the Minnesota Science Fiction Society, or any affiliates thereof.

Corrections, additions, suggestions and questions can be passed along to me via the MinnSTF post office box, or emailed to:

Happy book hunting.

MAJOR PLAYERS

This section includes sf speciality stores plus those general used bookstores whose sf/f section is of noteworthy quality (and usually quantity also); general bookstores with small and/or large-but-routine-selection sf stock are in the following section.

DREAMHAVEN BOOKS AND COMICS

912 W. Lake Street / Minneapolis // 612-823-6161
Mon-Fri 11-8; Sat 11-6; Sun 12-5

General stock is half cover with $1.50 minimum for pbs; hc and collectibles priced as marked. Note: the above figures are for used/remaindered material only; store also contains about 900 feet of new sf/f/h books, along with a large stock (no footage estimates) of comics and oddball non-genre books and magazines, toys, videos, etc.; catalogs issued.

DREAMHAVEN TOO

1309 4th Street SE / Minneapolis // 612-379-8924
Mon-Fri 10-8; Sat 11-6; Sun 12-5

Dinkytown-based sibling of the main DreamHaven, which specializes in comics and games, but also includes some 320 feet of new sf/f/horror (240 pb/ 80 hc or tp), along with some 20 feet of used sf pbs.

GREAT BOOKS

4152 Lancaster Lane / Plymouth // 612-559-1471
Tue-Fri 10-6:30; Sat 12-5 (closed Sun-Mon)

Circa 200 feet of general sf and circa 40 feet of general horror, with at least another 100 feet of such filed in other areas (media tie-ins, series, collectible pb, etc.) Essentially a paperback trader, but with a large percentage of the stock in form of bagged collectibles (which are not available for trade credit); priced as marked. Note: some very nice material here, at prices which average high (and sometimes reach jaw-dropping level).

GREEN LION BOOKS

2402 University Avenue / St Paul // 651-644-9070

Primarily mail order; o/w open by appointment. Circa 400 feet of sf (including 25 feet of magazines) and circa 175 feet of horror (plus many relevant titles in other sections by publisher, series, etc.); all priced as marked/negotiated. Note: A major dealer in collectible and vintage pbs, with special interests in noir/P.I. mystery fiction; great stock at competitive prices; cramped but should be less so shortly as owner is expanding into extra space.

MIDWAY USED AND RARE BOOKS

1579 University Avenue / St Paul // 651-644-7605
Mon-Fri 9-9; Sat 9-6; Sun 12-6

Circa 700 feet of sf/f/horror in definable sections, including 330 feet of general sf pbs; circa 60 feet of general sf hcs; circa 80 feet of general horror (75 pb and 5 hc/tp); circa 60 feet of general pulps and digests (mostly pulps) on first floor, plus another circa 70 feet of behind-glass and/or behind-desk special collectible pbs and hcs and circa 35 feet special collectible pulps at front of first floor; plus circa 50 feet sf (30 pb/20 hc) and 10 feet horror at reduced rates in the basement; all except the general pbs (which are half cover) are priced as marked. Note: one of the largest general used book stores in the area (three floors) with stock in all areas; stock of pulp magazines (including dozens of ARGOSYs as well as sf/f pulps) especially impressive and reasonably priced.

PDW BOOKS

3721 Minnehaha Avenue S. / Minneapolis // 612-721-5996

Mail order dealer. A small (circa 80 feet) but select stock specializing in classic ghost/horror fiction of the M R James tradition; priced as marked; catalogs issued.

UNCLE HUGO'S SCIENCE FICTION BOOKSTORE

2864 Chicago Avenue S. / Minneapolis // 612-824-6347
Mon-Fri 10-8; Sat 10-6; Sun 12-5

Circa 1200 of used general sf/f/horror pbs and circa 375 feet of used general sf/f/h hcs and tp, plus circa 80 feet of bagged and specially priced pbs; also circa 115 feet of used digest magazines and circa 10 feet of old pulps; also circa 75 feet of remaindered hc/tps and circa 50 feet of unsold older slick magazines. General used pbs and digests are half cover with a 2.00 minimum; the rest are priced as marked. Note: the above figures are used/remaindered footage only; store also contains well over a thousand feet of new pbs and over 200 feet of new hc/tps, plus a variety of miscellaneous books; store shares building with Uncle Edgar's Mystery Bookstore, with similarly massive stock in that genre; I routinely expect to find in their used area any sf/f pb or recent hc which is not an actual rarity (and many which are); catalogs issued.

Circa 125 feet sf (110 pb/15 hc) and circa 85 feet horror (70 pb/15 hc). Note: stock is somewhat erratically arranged and rarely out of the ordinary or in great condition, but the store has a sort of friendly charm to it. No credit cards.

HC priced as marked; pb are mostly half cover (other than bagged "collectable" pbs). Very crowded; many books on floor, some still in boxes, some double shelving, etc; includes circa 100 feet sf and circa 60 feet horror.

PAPERBACK TRADERS

PB traders generally deal solely (or almost solely) with paperbacks, mostly mass market ("rack" size) pbs. Customers are encouraged to trade in paperbacks for stock, getting a percentage of original cover (usually 50%) credited to their account; they can then use their credit for part (again, usually 50%) of the cost of the books they purchase. A customer without credit will typically pay half of original cover price for books they purchase; one with credit will typically pay one quarter of cover price in cash and one quarter in credit. Exact percentages vary store from store (as do some other details: does credit expire after a time? does store or customer keep the credit slip record? etc.) Some traders require special sf credit to use in trading for sf pbs (and some require special western credit for westerns also). Stock at pb traders is almost always arranged by subject/genre and generally well-alphabetized; condition of books is rarely less than "good," but also rarely much better than that....

BOOK CORNER

1524 Woodlane Drive / Woodbury // 651-730-0661
Mon-Fri 10-6; Sat 10-5; Sun 12-4

Circa 120 feet of sf and circa 60 feet of horror. note: customer gets credit for only one-sixth cover price of material traded in; special sf credit needed to trade for sf.

BOOK TRADER

5344 34th Avenue S. / Minneapolis // 612-721-5526
Mon-Fri 11-7; Sat 10-6

At least 200 feet of sf and at least 100 feet of horror. note: above figures are estimates; while there's a lot of stuff here, some of it uncommon, the store is crowded beyond belief and my estimate could be vastly off; narrow aisles, piles and boxes of books stacked up in and at all ends of aisles (impossible to move in some areas without knocking books over), double- and triple-stacking common (and at least one area of quintuple-stacking); toys and dolls hang from ceiling to make aisles still more impassable; air is also heavy with both tobacco and incense; two small friendly dogs have run of the store: stock needs to be in a store at least three times the size of present one: claustrophobe and/or allergy-sufferers' nightmare.

THE BOOKSHOP

Har Mar Mall / 2100 N. Snelling Avenue / St Paul // 651-636-3176; Mon-Fri 10-9; Sat 10-6; Sun 12-5

RAINBOW BOOKS AND CRAFTS

5007 34th Avenue S. / Minneapolis // 612-721-4780
Mon-Fri 1-8; Sat 10-5; Sun 12-5

3919 W. Broadway / Robbinsdale // 612-533-2733
Thu-Sat 11-4 (closed Sun-Wed)

Circa 50 feet of sf and circa 60 feet of horror. note: some double-stacking (though less than there was in past years; area of store has shrunk, but quantity of stock has shrunk even more; not necessarily a bad thing).

APPENDIX: NEW BOOK STORES

As a convenience, a quick-reference address and phone listing of larger general, non-specialist (new) bookstores follows. Many of these include stock of remainder books as well, and Barnes and Noble branches have sometimes had small stocks of ex-library books (at highly inflated prices). The Roseville (Snelling Avenue) Barnes and Noble contains within itself a used book store, which is listed above in the appropriate section. Also below are the area's two mystery specialist bookstores (because of cross-over interest s/f interest); and both of these have huge stocks of used, as well as new, books).
