Volunteer!

Minicon is totally volunteer run. We can always use a hand, most often in the artshow and around the consuite and bar. To volunteer during the convention, look for Matt Strait or Patricia Zetelumen and they'll find somewhere you can help. Or you can drop by any department and directly ask them if they'd like help. The volunteer coordinators don't need to know what's going on as long as everyone's happy.

We'd also love your help putting together next year's Minicon! Let us know that you're interested by checking the box on your Minicon 46 pre-registration form and we'll get in touch with you. Announcements of meetings will also be posted on the Minicon web site (<http://mnstf.org/minicon/>) and in the Einblatt (<http://mnstf.org/einblatt/>).

It's the parent organization of Minicon; it's also an organization that allows you to go to a party twice a month. We call these parties "meetings", and they are open to everyone. Find more details at: <http://mnstf.org/einblatt>
