The TusCon 28 Program Book is published by BASFA (Baja Arizona Science Fiction Association), a non-profit, 501(c)4 organization. Donations are not tax-deductible. Please send all inquiries to BASFA, P.O. Box 27307, Tucson, Arizona 85726-7307. View our website at: <http://home.earthlink.net/~basfa>.

Dealer's Room (Silver Room)

Our wonderful Dealer's Room is anxious to serve you during their business hours:

Friday – 3:00 PM to 9:00 PM

Saturday – 10:00 AM to 9:00 PM

Sunday – 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Stop by and browse through a select choice of books, jewelry, artwork, music, gaming supplies and other treasures from distant galaxies.

CONSUIITE (Room 126)

If my memory serves me correctly...

It is a long standing tradition that we will provide a culinary masterpiece known by some as "Chili". This year not only will we be serving our now (in)famous Cast Iron Chef Chili, but thanks to our new location, we will be featuring other cooked creations such as home made cookies and other delicacies. We also will feature our standard fare as in the past.

Allez Cuisine!!

TusCon's legendary ConSuite will be open Friday until the wee hours, Saturday until the wee hours, and Sunday until? Our staff will be providing edibles and portables for attendees, as well as a place to decompress and gab with a multitude of humans, creatures and monsters. As always, we will be featuring our special Chili on Sunday afternoon.

Please note that the ConSuite will be closed during the Meet the Authors party Friday evening and for the Masquerade Saturday night. No young children will be allowed unescorted in the ConSuite. As in recent years, the ConSuite will be DRY (no alcohol), however, there will be a cash bar during Meet the Authors and the Masquerade. (Please don't be shy about supporting the hotel by purchasing libations. This is a hint.)

MASQUERADE (Gold Room)

There will be 3 Competitions in the Masquerade:

First will be the Hall Costume Contest. There will be 4 prizes awarded for the best Hall Costumes. These will be awarded by Committee Members and the GOH.

The Second, and most formal is the Masquerade & Costume Contest which will take place in the Gold Room Saturday night at 8 PM. The contest shall be divided into two sections: one for adults and a second for children (up to age 12).

This year the event shall be pre-judged by the panel of judges. All adult entries please sign up at the registration desk by noon on Saturday. The pre-judging and the audience response will each count 50% in determining the prize winner(s). Short presentations (two minutes or less) with music are permitted. Please keep in mind this is a Science Fiction and Fantasy costume contest, garb is not necessarily a costume!

The last, and most infamous, is The Midnight Adult Masquerade, created in 1996 when a wonderful yet provocative costume was deemed a bit too mature for a family Con. Over time this has evolved (degenerated?) into less of a costume contest and more of an adult-theme performance. Participants have included a scantily clad fairy, a Centarie lounge lizard and "Sperm and Ovum" just to name a few. This contest also will be prejudged, so please sign up at the registration desk and get an OK from the contest committee.

Past results have shown, on the whole, that presentation counts for more than the costume itself. Each presentation will be limited to 90 seconds, with 30 seconds added for each additional participant for a maximum of no longer than 3 minutes. Time extensions will be granted only in very special circumstances, dependant upon the OK of the Masquerade committee. The winner or winners shall be determined solely by the audience.

The Midnight Adult Masquerade event is for those 18 years or older only. No minors will be permitted to attend. No exceptions. No kidding. If you look young, please bring an ID.

Important note - No costume is still no costume. Rules and prizes subject to change due to life and circumstance.

SMOKING

We ask that convention members please be considerate of non-smokers, by not smoking in shared convention areas: ConSuite, panels, reading rooms, video room, dealers room, or in the lobby or hallways. Please smoke outside, so those with asthma and other ailments can enjoy the convention. Thank you!

NO CHILDRENS ROOM

Due to circumstances beyond our control, there will be no children's room this year at TusCon. Parents are reminded that it is your responsibility to keep track of your urchins, not the convention's.

ART SHOW & AUCTION (Gold Room)

The TusCon 27 Art Show will be open Friday mid-afternoon and close later that evening. It will re-open at approximately 10 a.m. Saturday, and remain open into the evening hours. Sunday hours will be 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. only. The Art Auction will begin at 1:30 on Sunday.

There are two ways to buy art through the TusCon Art Show: by Bid (auction), or Flat Sale. Pieces with a FLAT SALE price only (no minimum bid indicated) may be purchased for that FLAT SALE price only. Such pieces do not go to auction. Pieces with BOTH FLAT SALE and MINIMUM BID prices indicated may be purchased for the FLAT SALE price only if there are no marked bids. Similarly, a bid may be made on a piece with both options if no flat sale has been marked on a bid sheet.

Keep track of your bids and assume that any piece you bid on will show up at the auction. We accept cash, traveler's checks, personal checks or credit cards to claim your purchased art work at the close of the auction. All personal and traveler's checks will require identification (a driver's license and bank card will suffice).

Think before you bid. You will be held responsible for any marked bids or flat sales. Purchased artwork may not be removed from the show prior to closing on Sunday. If you must leave prior to closing, please make arrangements with the art show director. And, should your courage or cash flow fail, and you wish to withdraw a bid or sale, you MUST first clear it with the Art Show Director.

Tuscon Art Show GRATEFULLY acknowledges the kind gift of the new Art Show Flats from Kim Poor's Gallery, Novaspace

LIVE ACTION ROLE PLAYING (LARP)

TusCon will feature a Vampire, the Masquerade LARP this year. Kane Wortman will be your Game Master.

MEMBERSHIPS (Lobby)

Please have your badge at all times to gain access to convention activities. If you lend it or lose it you can replace it. For the current membership rate. Of course, this policy may be negotiated at the whim of the head of registration, and is usually dependent upon the quality of the "favor" or "bribe" offered.

SECURITY

Our weapons policy is a simple one: if you pull it, our lovely and charming security personnel will put it back for you.

Please, no real or realistic firearms, no projectile or projectile-throwing weapons of any sort, all edge or spiked weapons must be in a sturdy sheath or have all edges and points covered with a material hard enough to prevent accidental injury, and all weapons must be peace-bonded securely to the body. Tucson city ordinance also prohibits the carrying of any and all martial-arts weapons such as nunchuk and shuriken.

We at TusCon like to think that we have a fairly liberal weapons policy. Please help us to keep it that way. We reserve the right to check all weapons, and violations of the rules can result in confiscation of the weapon, revocation of Con membership and benefits (like hotel room rates...), and/or notification of the local militia.

GAMING

Join in the gaming fun with your host and mad-DM Henry Tyler. Gaming will be available as long as Henry can stay awake, or as long as there is enough energy to power the EDMH (Emergency Dungeon Master Holograph). Check with Henry in the gaming room for featured games.

Game room will open Friday at 3pm and close Sunday at 5pm.

ANIME Friday & Saturday, Midnight to 8:00AM

Check Pocket Program and our up to date schedule outside the video room!

FEATURING...

The Veil

(NR 1958 26min) Starring: Boris Karloff.

Two years before Thriller, Boris Karloff hosted The Veil, a never-broadcast ten-episode pilot of a TV horror anthology for the Hal Roach Studios in 1958. Boris also starred in nine of The Veil's ten episodes, making this a rare treat for Karloff fans. We have all ten 26-minute episodes, so please join Boris Karloff for another journey into the world of the unexplainable, which lies behind...The Veil.

Shadow of The Vampire

(R 2001 93min) Starring: John Malkovich, Willem Dafoe, Udo Keir.

Explores the fictional premise that the star of director F.W. Murnau's 1922 film Nosferatu was an actual vampire. When the Murnau (Malkovich) sets about filming his version of Bram Stoker's Dracula, he makes a Faustian deal and enlists the grotesque, reclusive Max Schreck (Dafoe) to play the rodent like Count Orlok. Schreck proceeds to both horrify and fascinate the unwitting cast and crew--who, at first, believe Schreck is merely an eccentric actor.

Nosferatu

(NR 1922 81min) Starring: Max Shrek, Gustav von Wangenheim.

F.W. Murnau's silent classic is the original and some say the scariest Dracula adaptation, taking Stoker's novel and turning it into a haunting, shadowy dream full of dread. Count Orlok, the rodent-like vampire frighteningly portrayed by Max Shrek, is perhaps the most animalistic screen portrayal of a vampire ever filmed. Names had to be changed from the novel when Stoker's wife charged his novel was being filmed without proper permission. See the film that formed the basis for Shadow of The Vampire.

The Man From Planet X

(NR 1951 71min) Starring: Robert Clarke, Margaret Field, William Schallert.

Story about an American reporter (Clarke) who is confronted by a friendly alien humanoid that has landed his spacecraft near a fog-shrouded Scottish village and castle. The alien's plea for help for its dying world is almost immediately met with suspicion and paranoia by the locals, then with open hostility. Considered the first gothic science fiction film.

Bell, Book and Candle

(NR 1958 103min) Starring: James Stewart, Kim Novak, Jack Lemon.

Gillian (Novak) is a lonely and bored witch living in Greenwich Village. Shep (Stewart) is a publisher who lives upstairs from Gillian. Gillian sees Shep and is interested. The only person standing in her way is an old college rival, Merle, who is Shep's fiancée. Using her powers and with the help of her cat, Pyewacket, Gillian sets out to gain Shep. Basis for Bewitched TV series.

The Dark Crystal

In another time, The Dark Crystal, a source of balance and truth in the universe, was shattered dividing the world into two factions: the wicked Skeksis and the peaceful Mystics. Now, as the convergence of the three suns approaches, the Crystal must be healed, or darkness will reign forever! It's up to Jen, the last of his race, to fulfill the prophecy that a Gelfling will return the missing shard of the Crystal and destroy the Skeksis' evil empire. But will young Jen's courage be any match for the unknown dangers that await him?

Dragonslayer

A delegation from the kingdom of Umland beg the wizard Ulrich's help in killing the dragon, Vermithrax Pejorative, that terrorizes their land. The king has drawn a truce with it - in return for it sparing the land, he draws a lottery from among all the virgins of the land and leaves one for the dragon to devour. But then the king's guard comes to stop the quest and its captain kills Ulrich. Ulrich's apprentice, Galen, joins the villagers as they return to home and attempts to destroy the dragon alone.

Final Fantasy: The Spirits Within

(PG-13 2001 106min) Starring the voices of: Ming-Na, Alec Baldwin.

The year is 2065 and Earth is under siege after a meteor crashed onto the planet, unleashing millions of alien creatures which roam the Earth. The survivors of the initial onslaught have retreated to barrier cities. Dr. Aki Ross strives as Earth's last hope against extinction. With the guidance of her mentor and the aid of the Deep Eyes military squadron, Aki races to save both the Earth and herself. Incredible computer animation, excellent voice casting and a real story make for a real experience.

House of Dark Shadows

(PG 1970 96min) Starring: Jonathan Frid, Grayson Hall, Joan Bennett.

The successful television horror soap opera "Dark Shadows" was the basis for this film featuring the same television cast. After 150-year-old vampire Barnabas Collins is accidentally released from his coffin, he introduces himself as a cousin from England and gains access to the mansion and the people who live there. As the family begins to drop like flies from "animal" attacks, Dr. Julia Hoffman deduces a vampire is on the loose. The good doctor soon discovers who the vampire is and attempts to find a medical cure for him.

13 Ghosts

(G 1960 84min) Starring: Charles Herbert, Jo Morrow, Martin Milner.

William Castle's gimmick classic of an impoverished family inheriting a house from an eccentric uncle they thought long dead. But with the house, they inherit its inhabitants, a creepy housekeeper (Margaret Hamilton) and a selection of ghosts the uncle has accumulated in the mansion for his paranormal research. Soon the ghosts target members of the family and they begin to fear for their lives.

Presented in wide screen and in ILLUSION-O. "Ghost Viewers" will be provided.

Dead and Buried

While Potter's Bluff is a nice quiet place, any stranger or newcomer to town is murdered by a mob of people who photograph and film the violent acts. While The Sheriff (Farentino) is investigating these murders, he notices odd behavior from his wife Janet (Melody Anderson) and the town's mortician Mr. Dobbs (Jack Albertson in his last theatrical film).

TUSCON 28 Guest of Honor Chelsea Quinn Yarbro wrote the novelization based on a screenplay by Dan O'Bannon and Ronald Shusset.

Ed Bryant

THE POETIC LIFE OF EDWARD BRYANT

by P. D. Cacek, poetaster

Listen my children, and have no fear,
Concerning the story you're about to hear.
It's the account of an author, Ed Bryant by name,
A man of great talent and genius and fame –
Who's lived a life that puts most to shame.

Chorus:

Boom, chukka-luggah-luggah.
Boom, chukka-luggah-luggah.

He has harassed The Thermals of August and swam with a Shark,
And dived into magic just for a lark.
When not Flirting With Death, he hangs spoons from his nose,
Then slips through a Neon Twilight on silent tip-toes
And trudges through destruction where the Cinnabar wind blows.

Chorus

To look at him, you might think it strange
That he's sailed through the heavens and ridden the range,
But here is a man with the power to convert
Myriads of ideas trying to divert –
And win awards – all wrapped up in a Hawaiian-print shirt.

Chorus / With Interpretive Dance

The heart of a child (locked in a box),
The mind of a poet (under some socks),
The muscles of CONAN (and we've got pictures to prove it);
But it's the charm of the man and above all, the wit,
That, according to H. Ellison, makes him "more popular than Brad Pitt!"

Chelsea Quinn Yarbro

Born September 15, 1942 in Berkeley, California, she attended Berkeley schools through high school, and then spent 3 years at San Francisco State College (now University). Married Donald Simpson in November, 1969, divorced February, 1982, she has no children. Her mother died in 1980; her father is still living and remarried. She has one sister, Ann, a step-brother, Jack, and over twenty first cousins, four of whom are named Tom. As of March, 1999, she has two cats, Laetitia and Flannel.

A professional writer since 1968, Yarbro has worked in a wide variety of genres, from science fiction to westerns, from young adult adventure to historical horror.

Her principle hobbies are horseback riding, needlepoint, and cooking. Her favorite entertainment is opera. She has pursued a variety of occult studies since her youth.

Aside from writing, she has worked as a cartographer, has read tarot cards and palms, and has composed music, all of which she continues to do. Over the years she has studied seven different instruments, voice, and musical theory: composition, voice, and piano have continued to be active interests for her.

On average, Yarbro writes three to four books a year, and one or two short stories and/or essays. She maintains a six-hour-a-day, six-days-a-week-at-the-keyboard schedule except when traveling. Five days a week she spends three to four hours doing research.
