

Welcome to FiestaCon

The day has finally arrived for the start of this wonderful adventure. Today we are setting up programming, dealers room, art show, and will have a little bit of programming this evening. The full show starts tomorrow. We hope you will have as much fun attending FiestaCon as we did putting it together!

— Mike Willmoth, Chair, FiestaCon

Message from the Editor

Welcome to the newszine for FiestaCon, The Whole Enchilada, and its large print sister edition, The Big Burrito. Both versions will be published twice daily — at 9:30a and at 5:30p. The Whole Enchilada will be available from news stands at locations around the convention. A limited number of copies of The Big Burrito will be available at the Information Desk. In addition, The Whole Enchilada will be published on the FiestaCon website.

The newszines will be devoted to programming changes and other con announcements. Submissions for publication must be received by 7:00a for the morning edition and not later than 2:00p for the evening edition. All submissions must be signed legibly with contact information. We're in the Windflower Room on the second floor — stop by and see us. ~~Kat Yeager

Micrology

Tonight's Weather — 85F, isolated thunderstorms
Registration Hours — 6p-9p, pre-reg only

Tonight's Special Events

This evening's programming is open to pre-registered members only. Enjoy the Barry Bard Memorial At the Movies presentation from 7:00p–9:00p or take this early opportunity to meet our guests of honor: Todd Lockwood and the Nielsen Haydens at 7p and Alan Dean Foster and the Webberts at 8p.

Programming Changes

No changes reported yet. Watch this space.

The Whole Enchilada, a publication of FiestaCon, the 62nd Westercon, is produced by: Kat Yeager, Managing Idiot; Jace Foss, PLB; Rebecca Foss, Treasured Minion; and Judith Herrman, TBD