Guest of Honor Information

Jennifer Roberson

Jennifer lives here in the Phoenix area with her husband, Mark O'Green. She writes fantasy under her own name and occasionally writes romance novels as Jennifer O'Green. Her fantasy novels includes two series, the eight-volume dynastic "Chronicles of Cheysuli", and the recently completed "Sword Dancer" saga. Her final Cheysuli novel, A Tapestry of Lions, is set for October, and her 257,000 word Lady of the Forest, a Robin Hood novel written from Maid Marian's perspective, will be out later this year. She is a past Rodeo Queen, and still loves to ride horses. Jennifer also trains dogs.

Rick Sternbach

Rick started out as an astronomical artist and was talented enough to have landed a job with Star Trek: The Next Generation as their art director. He has published a technical manual on ST:TNG along with his cohort on the show, Michael Okuda, which is already in a second printing after making the bestseller list for many weeks. We are fortunate to have Rick as our Artist GOH.

Wilson "Bob" Tucker

Tucker, as he likes to be called, has been around for a long time, both as a fan and an author, and has made tremendous contributions towards the advancement of science fiction fandom. Phoenix's local CopperCon had him as Fan GOH several years ago and he was very pleasant and entertaining. He is an excellent speaker in front of an audience and he should fill the role of Toastmaster for WesterColt .45 quite well.

Pat Mueller

Pat is a Hugo-Award-winning editor, writer, and publisher of fanzines. Her work include the Texas SF Inquirer and Pirate Jenny. She was instrumental in helping to put on the 1985 Austin NASFiC as well as many other conventions. Pat lives with her husband Dennis Virzi and their 3-year-old daughter in Austin and is being honored at WesterColt for her contributions to published fandom.

ConSuite

Howdy, pardners! This here's the Head Wrangler for the WesterColt .45 ConSuite, passin' along the latest word on what's going on. We'uns is gonna have fun this year, with squirt gun target shoots, good grub, and music!

So head 'em up and move 'em out, to WesterColt .45, and the ConSuite - we're rustlin' up some tee-riffic vittles!

Art Show

Some incredible examples of science fiction and fantasy art from the genre's best artists will be on display and for sale this year. The Show will include over 4,000 square feet of art space. Our art auction, open to members, will be held on Sunday afternoon.

Dealer's Room

We'll have over 25 dealers this year, including Fantasies Unlimited (Alicia Austin), Roaming Panther Games, J. A. Stelnicki, Willow Zarlow (jewelry), Magickal Aardvark, Shipman's Books, Mere Dragons, Nighthawk Studios, Amber Unicorn Books, Waterloo Games, Glass Dagger, Bent Cover Books, The Rakish Blade, Rik Thompson Books, Phoenix Fantasy Film Society/Graph XPress, James Odbert, Dunlop's Polished Junque, Marty & Alice Massoglia, Tomes & Treasures, Carolly Hauksdottir, Sign of the Unicorn, Patricia Davis, Unlikely Publications/MZB's Fantasy Magazine, Basement Books, Wail Songs, Sleepy Lion Graphics, DAG Productions, Salamander Armoury, Adam's Books, Tom Cagle (books and pulps), and Quicksilver Fantasies.

Video Room

"Buried alive! Buried alive!" That's the location for the Video Room at WesterColt .45, buried in the lower level of the Omni Adams Hotel. Animation: Cel, Stop-Motion, and Clay. Television Series, Made-For-TV-Movies, Interviews, Movies. We'll draw from these and other sources for our programming material.

Filking

Filking will be held at the San Carlos Hotel on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings. We may even do a welcome filk on Thursday evening if we have a quorum, ie more than two voices and a guitar. We're planning a panel or two, bardic and performers circles simultaneously each evening with a concert in the lower level of the Omni Adams on Saturday afternoon from 4-7 with one-shots following if time allows. We're encouraging Filkers to register at the San Carlos. The Phoenix Filk Circle is standing by to welcome you to our city!

Dances

On July 3rd & 4th, you will have an opportunity to experience Con Dances like no other before. We'll have lasers, a balloon drop, the Time Warp (from Rocky Horror Picture Show) at midnight, the Hokey-Pokey, and lots of other surprises! Plan on attending the WesterColt .45 dances!

Japanese Animation

Yes! We'll have Japanese Animation...lots and lots of it...24 hours a day throughout the con. We'll be showing the latest and greatest videos plus the old classics. We have a projection tv system, and surround sound. Whether you're along-time fan of Japanese Animation or you're just wondering what all the excitement is about, be sure and check out what's happening.

Facilities

The primary hotel for WesterColt .45 is the Omni Adams (aka Phoenix Sheraton/Hilton/Adams Hotel) beside the downtown Hyatt. The Omni is located at 111 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85004, phone (602) 257-1525. Almost all functions will be in this hotel. Parking in the hotel is free to guests of the hotel. The party block will be on the 5th, 6th and 7th floors, so if you want peace and quiet, we suggest getting a room above these floors. Room rates are: Single/Double - $60, Triple/Quad - $65. Suite are $90 for King Parlor, $110 for Queen Parlor. Note: as is normal with hotels, expect a credit card deposit to be run through immediately, not held until the convention.

An important note about the Omni: any alcohol seen being carried through the lobby will be confiscated - and you must travel through the lobby to reach all Omni hotel rooms. Read the above sentence carefully, and think before you act!

The overflow hotel, the San Carlos, is a quaint and rather elegant hotel from the turn of the century. The San Carlos is located at 202 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85004, phone (602) 253-4121. It is across the street from the Omni. Room rates at the San Carlos are $50 for single to quad occupancy. Parking in the San Carlos approved lot is free for their guests.

Attendees will be required to get their convention badge before checking into their hotel room. This way, the hotel will make sure you get the convention rate for your room. Also, expect to sign a form indicating you will be responsible for room damages.
