FROM THE CHAIR

This is the final Progress Report before the convention. We trust that we'll manage to answer any final questions you might have in this PR...otherwise, please write or give us a call. There are still mailings upcoming for all Program participants, Dealers, and Artists under separate cover.

As of mid-September there are only 94 paid memberships unsold. We expect to be sold out by October 15 so we'll be able to keep our promise of no sales at the convention. If you haven't bought yours yet, remember that the final few will be sold "first come, first served". As long as you mail your membership within a week of receiving this PR you should be okay.

Right now our main hotel, the Doubletree Inn, is sold out of hotel rooms (275 rooms - our overflow hotel, the Aztec Inn, still has space available); the main Program is completed; the Collectors' Seminar is sold out; the Dealers' Room is filled with mostly rare book dealers; the Art Show is all set; the Program Book is about to go to press; the WFC Awards are ordered; and the Banquet is almost sold out (over 220 tickets sold of 300 maximum available). We'd say that everything is going well!

There is little more I can say (except for the six more pages of text after this), except that those of you who will be attending will be experiencing what we hope will be one of the best conventions that you have attended in years. Yet that alone isn't what's important about WFC...what is important is that we gather each year to renew old acquaintances, make contacts and new friends, and to have fun...for this is what WFC is all about!

THE NEXT PR

PR4 will include a final list of Program participants, attending professionals, membership for the convention and a detail of the final Program. There will also be photos from our staff photographer of things happening around the convention. The intention is to make it truly a souvenir publication. We hope to mail it by November 30, 1985, depending on the condition of the committee!

THURSDAY NIGHT/REGISTRATION

The convention's Hospitality Suite will be open Thursday night (starting 9pm), along with the showing of one or more films. Almost 240 hotel rooms are booked at the Doubletree for Thursday night, so it seems that a majority of our members will be around Thursday night! Early registration will be from 7-9pm on Thursday with regular registration beginning on Friday at 9am. The first regular Program item begins Friday at 11am. However, in honor of Thursday being Halloween night (no, our convention dates were quite intentional), we will be having a midnight panel on vampires.

THE PROGRAM

The theme of this year's WFC is "Writers of the Southwest". Correspondingly, we are having Program items on that theme; "Mythology of the Southwest", "Living in the Southwest", and others. We ask for your comments and suggestions on the Program as in all other areas.

The first Program event will be Thursday night (Halloween) at midnight on Supernatural/Supernormal Vampires. It will be open-ended in length with eight to ten writers of vampire stories of various types participating, two or three at a time. We'll have a bar serving Bloody Marys during the event.

Of course, there will be the traditional autograph party on Friday night. Several publishers are helping sponsor a free bar (they'll be credited prominently during the event). We're still hoping for more to assist. Write for details!

We'll be running a two-track main Program (which will include only a few readings), starting after the Friday 11 am Opening Ceremonies. People interested in participating in the Program may write for a Prospective Program Participant Packet. Be warned that very few openings still exist for participation with over 100 confirmed Participants at this writing.

Anyone interested in the Saturday night MUSIC FESTIVAL should contact Ellen Kushner at 527 W. 110th St, #52, New York, New York 10025. She's MC'ing and organizing the event and was one of last year's organizers at the Ottawa WFC.

The main part of the Program will be two-track. In addition there is a Writers' Workshop, Art Show Programming, a Collectors' Seminar, and after-hours Program events. The Program items listed are subject to change. The regular daytime portion of the Program presently includes the following:

World Fantasy Awards Banquet

PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

We invite interested writers, editors, publishers, artists, and others to participate in the Program. However, the number of Program slots is necessarily limited. We cannot accomodate everyone who wants to do a reading or be on a panel.

Therefore, our policy is that we encourage possible participants to purchase memberships. After the convention we will offer participants who paid for their memberships a refund.

We especially suggest purchasing a membership as we expect to sell out of memberships early and we wouldn't want you to find that we'd already hit our paid membership limit of 750. Wives, children, etc. of Program participants who will be attending convention functions asked to purchase a membership.

RARE BOOK ROOM

We will have 100 or more books, letters, photographs, and other fantasy, horror, and sf-oriented items of importance to collectors. These will be on display (not for sale) in their own secured room. The convention will publish an informational catalog of the items that comprise the collection, one copy complimentary to each attendee. Additional copies will be for sale.

On display will include:

- HPL's personal copy of White Fire
- Several autographed books by HPL
- History of Civilization by E. E. "Doc" Smith
- A copy of Dawn of the Flame by Stanley G. Weinbaum, a book seldom seen

RARE BOOK AUCTION

We are definitely having an auction and are encouraging members to submit lists of their items for auction by 10/1/85. This must include title, author, condition, and edition. Items other than books (including art, letters, manuscripts, photos, etc.) may be submitted. We reserve the right to limit quantities and to judge the suitability of items submitted.

The convention will charge 10% on items sold. There is no entry fee or charge on unsold items. Please write for further information.

"Gargoyle Hoping for Raspberry Teacakes"

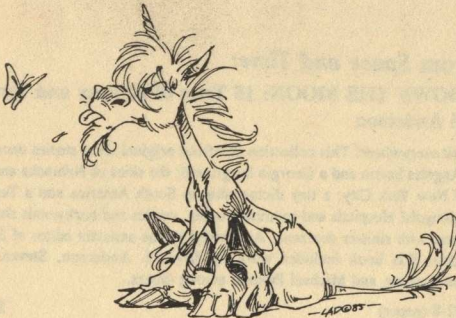

WRITERS' WORKSHOP

The Workshop is intended to provide useful information to writers about their craft. We have consolidated some of the Workshop sessions we were considering in Progress Report Two due to a lack of demand. This is the final list of planned sessions. The only change we may make is to possibly open some of the sessions as no charge to the attendee.

- 1) Trends in Fantasy and Horror. Which markets are worth writing for (monetarily) and what is looked for in work submitted. What the editor looks for and buys. New markets you might not have considered. Saturday 2 pm to 4 pm.
- 2) Word Processing Workshop. Many of the most successful writers today use computers in their work to ease editing and increase output. Shop talk on which systems are best and how to use them to their fullest. Includes demonstrations of some machines. Saturday from 10 am to noon.
- 3) New Writers. A two-part workshop for somewhat-experienced writers. We will match you with a more-experienced writer for a get-acquainted session at the beginning of the convention with a follow-up (by mail) after the convention. The idea is for aspiring writers who have been trying to make sales to bring in sample work for criticism, followed up by mail after the convention with work which is revised to take into account the criticism. Friday 4 pm to 6 pm.
- 4) The Writer and the Agent. An experienced authors' agent (Ms. Jean-Teresa Sumner) will be conducting a seminar to acquaint both new and experienced writers on the role of the agent. You'll be interested to know that she doesn't believe that all writers even need one...do you? Saturday 4 pm to 6 pm.
- 5) The Business of Writing. Hosted by Mr. Stephen Goldin, author of a well-received book on the subject, who will conduct an intensive examination of some of the subjects of his book. Will include an in-depth look at contracts. Friday 2 pm to 4 pm.

The registration fee is $5 per session with fees going to the individuals conducting the session. If we do decide to waive fees for any of the sessions, paying attendees will be registered first in case the session fills up and fees will be refunded.

Please contact us early as may fill up the available spots prior to the convention. As with the main part of the Program, we're open to suggestions.

I'd like to send you a catalog with information about my latest books and about WEIRD-BOOK magazine and FANTASY MONGERS Quarterly.

I mean books like Joseph Payne Brennan's SIXTY SELECTED POEMS, Brian Lumley's HOUSE OF CTHULHU, and P. H. Cannon's PULP-TIME (starring H P Lovecraft and Sherlock Holmes).

Just send a postal card with your name, address, and zip code to: W. PAUL GANLEY: PUBLISHER, P O BOX 149, Buffalo, NY 14226.

BRINGING DOWN THE MOON: 15 Tales of Fantasy and Terror
 edited by Jani Anderson

Evil's disciples lurk everywhere! This collection of fifteen original short stories uncovers horrors in a Los Angeles barrio and a Georgia fairground; the skies of Nebraska and the subway tunnels of New York City; a tiny dictatorship in South America and a Turkish city besieged by Mongols! Hospitals and rooming houses, castles and backwoods shacks, all have dark corners with sinister denizens. Assembled by the assistant editor of Space and Time Magazine, this book includes work by Kevin J. Anderson, Steven Roy Daugherty, Gordon Linzner, and Michael Palmer, among others.

HOTEL

Our main hotel, the Doubletree Hotel at Randolph Park, was sold out of hotel rooms as of the end of August. We had large enough a room block to handle the largest WFC yet held...

Our overflow hotel is the Aztec Inn, located "two blocks" from the Doubletree. Now these are not short blocks and are described as being a 5-10 minute walk. If you are handicapped or have a problem with getting about, we might be able to assist you with getting a room at the Doubletree. Call Bruce or Kim Farr at (602) 968-5673 on the weekend.

The room rates at the Aztec Inn are $55.00 single/double, $60.00 triple/quad plus 8% room tax. One night deposit required to guarantee and the reservation cutoff date is October 21, 1985. Call 1-800-227-6086 outside of Arizona or 1-800 824-0518 inside of Arizona.

We suggest that you contact them by phone since we're so close to the convention dates. Their address, however, is 102 N. Alvernon Way, Tucson, Arizona 85711. You might also check with the Doubletree periodically as cancellations will periodically occur.

For those of you who are already reserved, The Doubletree Hotel at Randolph Park was offering special convention rates of $65.00 per room for single through quad occupancy (plus 8% tax and $1.00 phone charge/night if you use the phone). Suite rates were $205 for one-bedroom and $295 for two-bedroom (casitas). These rates were available for October 29 through November 5, 1985.

The hotel is seven miles from the airport and is serviced by a free hotel shuttle (you call from the airport for pickup). Downtown is ten minutes away and a large shopping mall is one mile/two minutes away (all by car, that is). Please note that nothing is in "easy walking distance" in Tucson, however.

There will be a late checkout of 2pm and the hotel will provide storage space for luggage for checked-out guests. There is no charge for parking.

This is a resort hotel with year-round heated swimming pool and jacuzzi (open 23 hours per day), three lighted tennis courts, two 18-hole golf courses across the street and nearby horseback riding stables. Tucson has an average peak temperature during that time of year of 79 degrees F; 65 degrees F at night.

There are many fine restaurants in Tucson, including the two in the hotel. For the budget conscious, there is a Circle K across the street. Again, don't plan to walk to "nearby" restaurants!

In response to inquiries, we wish to inform you of the following: the hotel has small refrigerators they can rent for a one-time fee of $20; there are a few handicapped-guest rooms in the main tower...be sure to request those early. If you wish, you may indicate in advance that you want your room to be in the Tower or courtyard. Finally, we understand that if you specifically request a poolside room, there may be an extra charge.

Hotel reservations may be made by calling (602) 881-4200 or through Doubletree's 1-800 number (call 1-800-555-1212 to ask the operator for the number in your area).

FUNCTION FACILITIES

All activities will be at the Doubletree Hotel.

Dealers' Room (4864 sq. ft.) will be 1/2 of the Doubletree Ballroom. Ready access for dealers.

Art Show will be the Boojum/Bonsai room (3105 sq. ft.). Auction will probably take place in the 960 sq. ft. Foyer immediately outside the room.

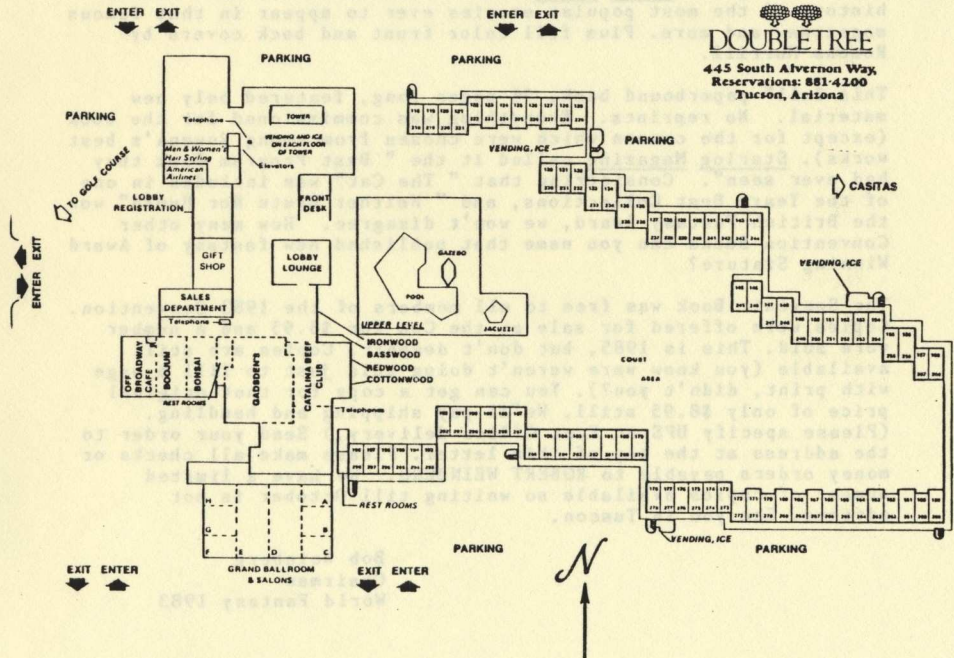

Programming will be most of 1/2 of the Doubletree Ballroom. This is divisible into four rooms (2508, 682, 992, and 682 sq. ft.), allowing the function space to alter to fit expected audience.

Writers' Workshop will be the Cottonwood Room (992 sq. ft.).

Collectors' Seminar will be Salon C of the Doubletree Ballroom (682 sq. ft.).

Convention Lobby is in the process of being rebuilt. It's not 100% guaranteed, but it's expected to be finished by the convention. The Con Lobby will be beside the Doubletree Ballroom and is estimated at 3-4,000 square feet.

In addition, there is space for a convention office, Rare Book room, and a Green Room. We're fortunate to have a lot of flexible, yet attractive, function space available that is quite suited to a convention of this character.

BOOK
SPECIALISTS

(312) 687-5765

Dear Collector:

Have you read Karl Edward Wagner's novelet "Neither Brute Nor Human" which was awarded the British Fantasy Society Award as best story of the year at the 1984 World Fantasy Convention? If you haven't, you won't be able to find it in any collection yet published. This very fine story that deals with fantasy writers, fans and conventions and the strange relationship between them is only available in the 1983 WORLD FANTASY CONVENTION SOUVENIR BOOK.

If you missed this book, then you also have missed Stephen King's very funny biographical sketch of Robert Bloch. And a complete chapter (along with synopsis) from Philip Jose Farmer's unpublished Cthulhu Mythos style novel, THE MONSTER ON HOLD. Did we forget to mention stories by Manly Wade Wellman, Brian Lumley, and Hugh Cave. There is an unpublished chapter of INCARNATE by Ramsey Campbell that was cut from the final novel due to length. We also can't forget Gene Wolfe's short story "The Cat" - though you might have already read that - it was anthologized twice since originally published in the SOUVENIR BOOK.

You also missed Bob Bloch and Jack Williamson writing about their days working for Weird Tales, Sam Moskowitz with a fact filled history of the most popular stories ever to appear in that famous magazine, and more. Plus full color front and back covers by Rowena Morrill.

This 8x11" paperbound book, 96 pages long, featured only new material. No reprints. Everything was commissioned for the book (except for the covers which were chosen from among Rowena's best works). Starlog Magazine called it the "Best Program Book they had ever seen". Considering that "The Cat" was included in one of the Years Best Collections, and "Neither Brute Nor Human" won the British Fantasy Award, we won't disagree. How many other Convention Books can you name that published new fantasy of Award Winning Stature?

The Souvenir Book was free to all members of the 1983 Convention. Copies were offered for sale at the Con for $8.95 and a number were sold. This is 1985, but don't despair. Copies are still available (you knew were weren't doing this just to fill a page with print, didn't you?). You can get a copy for that original price of only $8.95 still. We'll pay shipping and handling. (Please specify UPS or Post Office delivery.) Send your order to the address at the top of this letter. Please make all checks or money orders payable to ROBERT WEINBERG. We have a limited number of copies available so waiting till October is not advised. See you in Tuscon.

TOURS

We have arranged for some organized tours on Thursday, October 31 and Monday, November 4. The tour conductor, Southwest Tours, has the following to say about their tours. They will also have a Tour Desk at the hotel for the convention:

The World Fantasy Convention is offering three tours to some of the most beautiful and interesting places around Tucson. They are led by guides who will give talks on the history, geology, plants, and wildlife of the Sonoran Desert region. Transportation is in air-conditioned buses and vans. Tours leave from the Doubletree lobby at 9:00 am. Each tour will be offered on October 31 and November 4 (Thursday and Monday).

- 1) Kitt Peak National Observatory. Kitt Peak lies 40 miles west of Tucson, high above the desert at 7000 feet elevation. The spectacular drive up the mountain leads to the world's largest collection of research telescopes. We will visit three of the largest telescopes and see exhibits plus a film at the Visitors' Center. $30 fee includes an excellent picnic lunch ($26 without lunch, but there are no food services on the mountain). Tour returns around 3 pm.
- 2) Nogales. The colorful city of Nogales, Sonora, is just across the Mexican border 60 miles south of Tucson. Its shops full of textiles, leather goods, wood carvings, glassware, and many other items will give us the opportunity to shop or just browse. On our way south we will stop at Tumacacori Mission, founded 200 years ago by Spanish Jesuits and now run by the National Park Service.

Cost for this trip is $31, which included lunch at a first-class restaurant. The tour returns around 3 pm.

- 3) Desert Museum and Old Tucson. The Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum is a zoo, botanical Gardens, and aquarium with an international reputation. Guides will give talks on living examples of the plants and wildlife of the Sonoran Desert. Old Tucson is a movie location and amusement park where over 100 feature-length films have been made, in addition to many tv series. Our visit will include a short film, sound stage tour, and dramatic re-enactment of stories from the Old West. The cost of this tour is $25.50, which includes all entrance fees. Tour returns around 2:30 pm.

UPDATED INFORMATION

BUDGET RENT A CAR

Budget Rent a Car has just informed us that they will extend a weekend special rate of $17.95/day for Economy, $20.95 for Mid-Sized, and $22.95 for Full-Sized cars for convention members renting anytime from October 31 through November 4, 1985. They will be disregarding the higher rates shown on the reservation cards.

HOTEL RESERVATIONS

In quick succession we've sold out the Doubletree Hotel and our overflow hotel, The Aztec Inn. We've arranged for a third hotel a block north of The Aztec Inn, called The Lodge on the Desert.

Both the Doubletree and The Aztec Inn (1-800-227-6086) are taking people for their waiting list. The Lodge on the Desert still has space. Their number is (602) 325-3366. We recommend that you contact the convention at (602) 968-5673 if you need a hotel room...leave your name, phone number, address, and number of people/beds requested if you get the answering machine. We'll get back to you with what options are available. We did warn everyone that early reservations are suggested!

Well, we managed to book more rooms than any prior WFC! Therefore, we are arranging complimentary transportation to the overflow hotels from the Doubletree. The other two hotels are within walking distance, but we'd rather you didn't have to walk it at night.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

The 1985 World Fantasy Convention has chosen Ladera Travel Service of El Segundo, California as our Official Travel Agent. They will be working together with our Official Carriers, American and Republic Airlines, to get everyone the best fare and schedule.

American has offered a 40% discount from the regular coach fare with no minimum length requirement if tickets are purchased at least 45 days prior to departure. If you qualify for a fare which is less expensive than the special convention rate, they will assist you in getting whichever will work out best for you. In order to check rates from your city, please call them at 1-800-433-1790 (1-800-792-1160 from Texas). Our meeting ID is S7379.

Republic is our Co-Official Airline, flying to many cities in areas where American does not have service. They have offered a rate $10.00 less than their normal Super Saver fare from all points on their system with no minimum stay restrictions. As with American, if there is a lower rate from your city, it will be offered by the booking agent. Republic's specially trained convention agents can be reached at 1-800-328-1111 (1-800-272-1408 from Minnesota). Our meeting ID is WFC222.

Ladera Travel reports that all is going well so far with the flight arrangements for World Fantasy Convention attendees. The current low airfares have induced a large number of people to book early, and those who have called the American and Republic convention lines have gotten excellent prices.

If you are in a city that is not served by American or Republic, or need further information on other aspects of travel to Tucson, Ladera's number is 1-800-624-6679.

Republic Airlines has offered a 50% discount from their normal air cargo rates for cargo shipped to the convention, and a similar contract with American is pending. Please contact Ladera Travel for shipping procedures and other information.

Remember - your use of these arrangements will benefit both you and the convention, and airfares will be rising soon. The airlines we are working with have given us valuable assistance with promotion and planning. If you use these services, it will set a precedent that will help all future conventions as well as the 1985 convention.

If you have further questions (only regarding travel arrangements), contacts:

Ladera Travel Service, Inc.
Attn: World Fantasy Convention
2041 Rosecrans Avenue, Suite #103
El Segundo, California 90245
(213) 772-1511/(800) 624-6679

We have designated Budget Rent a Car as the "Official Car Rental Company" for the convention. They operate out of the Tucson Airport (Avis is located at the hotel). Budget is offering members a discounted car rental rate of $26.00 per day for Economy and Midsize range cars and $29.00 per day for Fullsize. All cars include unlimited mileage and basic insurance. Their address is P. O. Box 11426, Tucson, Arizona 85734 and can be phoned at (602) 294-3436. We are including reservation cards with this mailing.

VOLUNTEERS

Like most conventions, we're looking for a few dozen good men (and women). Besides our undying gratitude, we're offering a membership refund for those who work. Please write the convention P. O. box, attention volunteers!

This is a complete list of our members as of September 14, 1985. Please let us know if you are not on this list and should be! All members have a number on the first line of their mailing label and following their name on the this list. An 800-series number is for a Supporting membership, D-series is for Dealer tables, and the rest are for full, attending memberships.

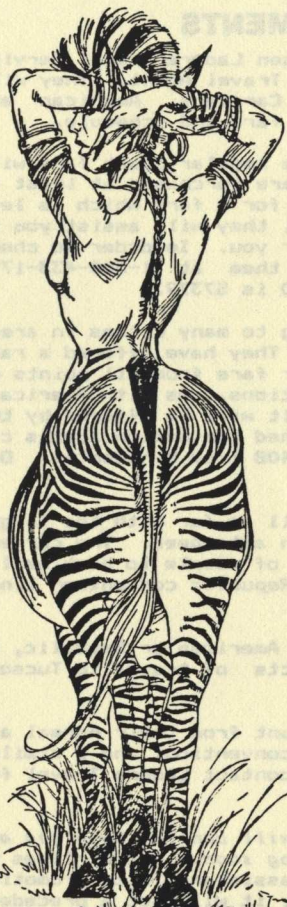

HOSPITALITY SUITE

We will have the suite open each night of the convention, starting with the close of early registration on Thursday night (9pm). We hope this will provide a convenient rendezvous for members and perhaps relieve some of the overcrowding at the other open parties. Please note that the drinking age in Arizona will be 20 for the convention.

SECURITY

This is a literary fantasy convention for people who enjoy attending the Program. Therefore, there is no video program, almost no films, no masquerade, no wargaming, and generally little media emphasis. You'll also see no hall costumes or weapons and very few people even wearing a teeshirt. In fact, some we've seen who started out wearing them quietly disappear and return wearing civvies shortly afterwards (and no, Paul, I doubt we'd kick Stephen King - or anyone else - out for wearing a teeshirt).

We wish to emphasize that MEMBERSHIPS ARE REVOCABLE WITH CAUSE AND WILL BE NON-REFUNDABLE. This is our way of saying that we reserve the right to ask those who cause serious problems to leave the convention. Fortunately, this is something we frankly don't expect ever to have to exercise.

ART SHOW

The 1985 Tucson World Fantasy Convention is totally, completely out of space. We will have nearly 180 panels and 60 3-d pieces on display.

The show is projected to open on Friday, November 1, at 2:00 pm. The final closing will be at 10:30 am on Sunday morning, November 3. Voice auction will follow from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm. Artwork receiving 4 or more written bids will go to auction; artwork receiving less than 4 written bids will be sold to the highest bidder. All buyers please note: payment for artwork purchased at this convention must be rendered in cash, travelers' check, or a bank check. Two pieces of id required for checks. To facilitate buyer check out, all buyers and bidders will be required to register with the art show prior to bidding - payment method and id will be established then.

The following artists have reserved space in the show:

David Lee Anderson, who ran the LA Con II art programming and the Austin NASFiC art program, has volunteered to run art programming for the 1985 World Fantasy Convention. One program already in the works is a slide show and talk on bronze casting by Damon Catizone of Sedona, Arizona.

The Art Show director is contacting artists, editors, publishers, and others about an artists' party we plan on sponsoring. A reception will be in the Art Show on Saturday and the time/date of the Artist' Party is pending (we don't want to conflict with major Publishers' parties). Please be sure to let us know if you are an artist and are not listed as one elsewhere in this PR!

BABYSITTING

We are setting up a babysitting Co-op for the run of the convention (Thursday night through Sunday late afternoon). If you are considering bringing young children to the convention and would like to use this service, let us know in advance so we can make arrangements. We need to know the age of your child(ren), special needs, if you wish snacks to be provided, and suggest you bring games etc.

Our plan is to ask that members using the Co-op put in 2-4 hours per day, depending on how many are using the service. We will arrange for someone to come in to take care of the room during the Banquet and Awards on Sunday. Please be sure to write us with your comments, needs, and suggestions or for more information.

SEMINAR ON THE ART AND TECHNIQUES OF COLLECTING

L. W. Currey and Robert Weinberg will conduct a seminar for the serious collector or the novice who wants to become serious. The four-hour seminar will occur Friday and Saturday from 10am-noon each day. Enrollment is sold out as of shortly after PR 2 in May. Everyone who signed up should have already received a confirming postcard from us. Others who tried to sign up after sellout have had their $10 refunded.

PROFESSIONALS IN ATTENDANCE

The following writers, editors, artists, agents, publishers, and others have indicated through the purchase of attending memberships or correspondence that they will be attending this year's World Fantasy Convention. We expect a few others not listed here to join in the coming month. Most of those listed are involved in the Program.

Our apologies if we have you classified wrong or failed to list you.
Please let us know if we are in error. Otherwise, this is how we might end up listing you in the Program Book!

There are a few people you might want to know that have indicated that they probably won't be attending this year's convention. This is primarily due to illness of themselves or family and, in one case, due to publishing deadlines. They include Donald M. Grant, Peter Straub, Donald and Elsie Wollheim, and Manly Wade Wellman. We wish them the best and hope to see them next year!

AD RATES

The 1985 World Fantasy Convention is doing a post-convention
Progress Report. Expected publication quantity is 1100.
Publication date is anticipated as November 30, 1985 and deadline for copy is November 15, 1985.
Format will be 5x8 for full-page. All advertisements should be camera-ready:

BRINGING DOWN THE MOON: 15 Tales of Fantasy and Terror
 edited by Jani Anderson

Evil's disciples lurk everywhere! This collection of fifteen original short stories uncovers horrors in a Los Angeles barrio and a Georgia backroad, the skies of Nebraska and the subway tunnels of New York City; a tiny dictatorship in South America and a Turkish city beset by Mongol! Hospitals and rooming houses, cafes and backwoods shacks, all have dark corners with sinister denizens. Assembled by the assistant editor of Space and Time Magazine, this book includes work by Kevin J. Anderson, Steven Ray Daugherty, Orson Lutzner, and Michael Palmer, among others.

BANQUET

As is traditional, the World Fantasy Awards will be presented during the banquet. It will be held starting 2pm on Sunday, November 3, 1985 and will run (including the ceremonies) for at least two hours. Tickets cost $20 and are limited to 300 total.

If you purchase your ticket by October 15, 1985, you will have a choice of the three entrees listed. Those who have already purchased tickets, please let us know your selection. The default selection for those not specifying will be Roast Pork Loin.

MENU

Appetizer.....Onion Soup
 Entree #1.....Vegetarian
 Entree #2.....Roast Port Loin (Apricot/Almond Glazed)
 Entree #3.....Mesquite-Broiled Halibut
 And.....Fresh Vegetable, Rolls and Butter
 Dessert.....Baked Alaska
 Beverages.....Coffee, Sanka, Ice Tea, hot tea

There will also be a bar set up for the sale of alcoholic beverages during the Banquet. Again, the default selection will be Roast Pork Loin.

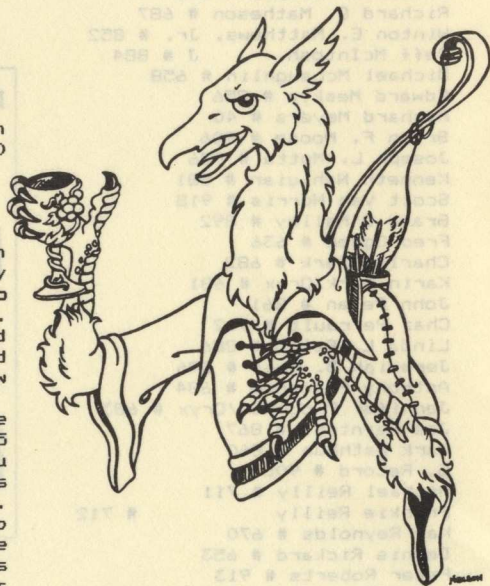

MEMBERSHIP RATES

World Fantasy Convention
 memberships are limited to 750 paid, at the following rate:

$40.00 until October 15, 1985

These are the rates currently in force and supercede any previously published rates. There will be no memberships sold at the door. Memberships are transferable (and not refundable) with a signed letter from the member and the new person's name and address. Supporting memberships are available until October 15, 1985 for $15.00. This will entitle you to copies of current Progress Reports and the Program Book. Supporting is convertible to attending with the payment of the current membership price less $15.00. No conversions after 10/15/85.

We are currently approaching 700 paid members and expect sellout by October 15.
