The Esquire Tavern
155 E. Commerce St.

Voted by Esquire Magazine as one of 2013's "Best Bars in America" and boasts the longest wooden bar top in Texas. This is the oldest bar on the Riverwalk, and is one of the few Riverwalk establishments that's actually a favorite of locals rather than a tourist magnet.

Josephine Street Cafe
400 E. Josephine St.

Old-fashioned Texas roadhouse with neon in the windows that sums it up: "Steaks" and "Whiskey". Their chicken-fried steak is amongst the best in the city. Gotta love a place that has a 500-year-old tree growing right through the dining room, up through the ceiling.

Mi Tierra Cafe
218 Produce Row

This is for anyone who needs to get their Tex Mex on at 2am. Mi Tierra is the all-time best Tex Mex you'll ever have, but it's a visual feast for the eyes inside and something you have to experience once, if nothing else for the murals and all of the history. It's open 24 and it seats 500 people. And even if you're not craving for fajitas, burrito bowls, queso flamado, and fresh tortillas, do not miss the panaderia (bakery) that makes fresh Mexican pastries, cookies and desserts in the front of the restaurant, round the clock.

Rolando's Super Taco #2
919 W. Hildebrand Ave.

Although not located particularly close to the Worldcon site, this place is one of SA's hidden Tex Mex jewels. Giant fresh flour tortillas as big as your head jammed with the ingredients of your choice. Dirt-cheap prices for the amount of food that you get.

Lulu's

Lulu's (which either once was or was someone affiliated with the Jailhouse Cafe) renowned for massive satisfying chicken-fried steaks and plate-sized 3-oz. cinnamon rolls.

DeWese's TipTop Cafe

Known for chicken-fried steaks and other local home-cooking great since 1948.

Big Lou's

Giuseppe's pizza, etc. No beer on days. Drive in & Chew.

Pig Stand

US's first fast food restaurant, supposedly the originator of the cream ring, etc.
