Meet And Greets

Dublin in 2019 Bid: Punch, Irish Stew (hopefully not in the Tom Lehrer style: Ed.), and other surprises. Musicians invited to join our Irish jam session. Friday at 8:30PM in Historic Davenport 1105.

San Jose in 2018 Bid: Will feature Northern California wine, beer, cider, and other spirits, as well as thoughtful and not so thoughtful conversation at 9PM in Historic Davenport 1119

The Business of WSFS is WSFS

The following occurred at Friday's WSFS meeting:

1) Both I Remember the Future and Predestination had their Hugo eligibility extended to next year.

2) Anonymized nomination data from this year's Hugos will be provided on request after the Hugos are awarded.

3) For the 4 And 6 proposal, actual numbers will be filled in Sunday by vote.

4) The proposal to add a third step of Popular Ratification by all Worldcon members to ratifying proposals failed.

5) Also failing was the proposal to require software used by a Worldcon have its source code be openly available.

6) Donald Eastlake, Steven Baucher, Bruce Farr were elected to the Mark Protection Committee.

7) Saturday morning's meeting will begin with the announcement of the winner of the 2017 Worldcon Site Selection.

SHHHHHH!

The Historic Davenport has been getting noise complaints. as it appears that they did not separate Meet And Greets from quiet rooms. When you are in the hallways between Meet And Greet rooms, please keep your voices down. If you want to have a conversation, please step into one of the Meet And Greet rooms.

Programming Changes

Autographs: Karl Schroeder at 2:00PM on Saturday. He will not be autographing on Sunday.

Updates: Add Martha Wells to Young Adults in Adult Fiction (Sunday 1:00PM).

Updates: Drop Ken Burnside from Honoring Great Games (Friday at 4).

Listen Up!

We've been asked by the city of Spokane to correct the incorrect pronunciation guide provided to Sasquan. Spokane is actually pronounced

Spork-CAN or Quark-CAN

because of its all-utility friendliness. OK, it's really pronounced

Spoh-CAN
